In Custody Redetermination Proceedings

Date:

ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

The respondent requested a custody redetermination pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 1236. After full consideration of the evidence presented, the respondent's request for a change in custody status is hereby ordered:

☑ Denied, because
Respondent has an order of removal. Respondent indicated he would seriously consider not leaving the country even if he loses his BIA asylum appeal. Respondent has overstayed his visa and obtained work, despite not having a work authorization. He does not have sufficient roots in the community where he currently lives having recently moved. Respondent does not appear to have any form of prospective immigration relief, other than his wife filing an I-130. Such an application could take 18 months to be reviewed. Accordingly, the court finds that DHS has proven by clear and convincing evidence that responded is a flight risk.

☐ Granted. It is ordered that Respondent be:
- ☐ released from custody on his own recognizance.
- ☐ released from custody under bond of $
- ☐ other:
