Notice to Alien of Interview for Review of Custody Status

It is the policy of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) to periodically review the custody status of detained aliens who have final orders of removal, deportation, or exclusion. You are required to cooperate with ICE in effecting your removal from the United States.

Release from ICE custody is dependent on your demonstrating to the satisfaction of the Attorney General that you will not pose a danger to the community and will not present a flight risk.

You will be interviewed for this purpose and you are scheduled to appear for this interview on: 04/17/2025 at: 10:30 am, at Stewart Detention Center
(Date) (Time) (Location)
to discuss whether or not you will be recommended for release.

In determining whether you should be released at this time, ICE may consider, but is not limited to considering the following:

1. Criminal convictions and criminal conduct;
2. Other criminal history and immigration history;
3. Sentence(s) imposed and time actually served;
4. History of escapes, failures to appear for judicial or other proceedings, and other defaults;
5. Probation history;
6. Disciplinary problems while incarcerated;
7. Evidence of rehabilitative effort or recidivism;
8. Equities in the United States; and
9. Cooperation in obtaining your travel document.
10. Any available mental health reports.

You are required to complete the information on the following page. You will be notified of the decision in your case when the custody review has been concluded.

Warning for Failure to Depart

Name: CEESAY, ALASSAN	Field Office: STG-T	File #:
Section 243(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act provides, in part, that: Any alien against whom a final order of removal is outstanding by reason of being a member of any of the classes described in section 237(a) who-- (A) willfully fails or refuses to depart from the United States within a period of 90 days* from the date of the final order of removal under administrative processes, or if judicial review is had, then from the date of the final order of the court, (B) willfully fails or refuses to make timely application in good faith for travel or other documents necessary to the alien's departure, (C) connives or conspires, or takes any other action, designed to prevent or hamper or with the purpose of preventing or hampering the alien's departure pursuant to such, or (D) willfully fails or refuses to present himself or herself for removal at the time and place required by the Attorney General pursuant to such order, shall be fined under title 18, United States Code, or imprisoned not more than four years (or 10 years if the alien is a member of any of the classes described in paragraph (1)(E), (2), (3), or (4) of section 237(a)), or both. Nothing in this section shall make it a violation to take proper steps for the purpose of securing cancellation of or exemption from such order of removal or for the purpose of securing the alien's release from incarceration or custody. Any action Immigration and Customs Enforcement may take to obtain a travel document for your departure or to remove you will NOT relieve you of the liability for compliance with the provisions of law referred to in the first paragraph above. * Section 241(a)(1)(C) provides for the extension of the statutory removal period if the alien refuses, during the removal period, to make application in good faith, for a travel or other document necessary for the alien's removal or departure or conspires or acts to prevent the alien's removal subject to an order of removal.

Notice to Alien of File Custody Review

You are detained in the custody of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and you are required to cooperate with ICE in effecting your removal from the United States. If ICE has not removed you from the United States within the removal period as set forth in INA 241(a) (normally 90-days of either: 1) your entering ICE custody with a final order of removal, deportation or exclusion, or 2) the date of any final order you receive while you are in ICE custody), ICE's Deciding Official will review your case for consideration of release on an Order of Supervision. Release, however, is dependent on your demonstrating to the satisfaction of the Attorney General that you will not pose a danger to the community and will not present a flight risk.

Your custody status will be reviewed on or about 03/03/2025. The Deciding Official may consider, but is not limited to considering the following:

1. Criminal convictions and criminal conduct;
2. Other criminal and immigration history;
3. Sentence(s) imposed and time actually served;
4. History of escapes, failures to appear for judicial or other proceedings, and other defaults;
5. Probation history;
6. Disciplinary problems while incarcerated;
7. Evidence of rehabilitative effort or recidivism;
8. Equities in the United States;
9. Cooperation in obtaining your travel document.
10. Any available mental health reports.

You may submit any documentation you wish to be reviewed in support of your release, prior to the date listed above, to the attention of the Officer and address below. English translations must be provided pursuant to 8 CFR 103.2(b)(3). An attorney or other person may submit materials on your behalf. The deciding official will notify you of the decision in your case. Attached to this notice is a list of free or low-cost legal representatives who may be able to provide assistance to you in preparing your case.

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY RESPONDENT .

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS UNDER 28 U.S.C 2241

Here came the Petitioner in above caption case, Acting without the Aide of Counsel and Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Hereby move this Honorable Court to enter a ruling of Petition For Writ of Habeas Corpus Under 28 U.S.C 2241 in favor of the Petitioner.

Here, Government Action was afoul of Congressional Status .And in doing violates the Petitioner Protected Rights Pursuant to 5 U.S.C Sec 552 (f) (e) by obtaining in violation of the status requirement to use against Petitioner in a court of law, See Davis v Garland, (2022 U.S LEXIS 23247, No 22-CV-LV (W.D.N.Y December 21, 2023). In which the court held; the Federal Rules of Evidence do not apply in Immigration Proceedings , The Strict Rules of Evidence do not apply in Deportation Proceedings) . The Rules of Evidence are not applicable to Immigration Hearing , Although the constitutional and statutory guarantee of due process require that government choice of whether to use certain evidence not wholly unfetter.

Under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment, An Alien is entitled to a timely and meaningful opportunity to demonstrate that s/he should not be detained . Petitioner in this case has been denied that opportunity. ICE does not make decision concerning aliens custody status in neutral and impartial manner. The failure of Respondent to provide a neutral decision maker to review the continued custody of Petitioner violates petitioners' rights to process .

This Action arise under the Constitution of the United States , and the Immigration and Nationality Act ("INA), 8 U.S.C 1101 et seq.. As amended by the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act . 1992 ("IIRIRA") Pub. L No. 104-208, 110 Stat, 1570, and the Administrative Procedure Act ("APA") 5 U.S.C 701.

FACTUAL ALLEGCTIONS

Petitioner, Gambian is native and citizen of Gambia . Petitioner has been in(ICE) - (D.H.S) custody since October 8th 2024, I am currently incarcerated at the Stewart Detention Center 146 CCA Road Lumpkin G.A 31815.

STATUTORY VIOLATION
UNLAWFUL IMPRISONMENT

Its a reasonable belief that the Government (D.H.S) violated my rights in usage of privilege information that they were not privy to use against me. The Petitioner now reserve his rights to seek redress in the Court of Law.

Wherefore : For all reason set forth in this Motion , Petitioner request to take legal action against the respondent (D.H.S) Department of Homeland Security .

Respectfully Submitted
