Jingjing Lian, et al. v. Noem, et al., 25-cv-01554-CBA (EDNY)

Dear Honorable Judge Carol Bagley Amon,

Undersigned is writing to respectfully ask the Court to issue a decision on Petitioners' response to the Court's order to show cause. Petitioners have a minor child, [REDACTED], who was born on [REDACTED]. The child needs parental cares from both parents. It is imminent for the child to be with both parents.

[REDACTED] is smart and sensitive to her surroundings. When Petitioner Zhu (who is being detained in an immigration detention in the State of Virginia) called his wife, who sometimes needs to enter her credit card information in order to pay for his calls, [REDACTED] would ask her mom these questions (to which Petitioner did not have good answers)

"Why daddy's phone call is like it? Mommy, why do you need to press so many buttons to answer daddy's phone?"

"Where is daddy's at? Why there is so much noise around daddy?"

"Why did daddy not call us on video chat?" "Why is daddy not coming home?"

I respectfully ask the Court to make a decision on Undersigned's response to the Court's order to show cause.

Sincerely,

Zhou Wang, Esq
