MOTION TO TAKE JUDICIAL NOTICE OF MATTERS OF PUBLIC RECORD

COMES NOW, the petitioner Maria Dolores Navarro Martin, pro se, and respectfully requests to this honorable court take judicial notice of matters of public record, under federal rule of evidence 201(b), "[t]he court may judicially notice a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it . . . Can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned", and in support thereof states as follows:

(1) A court may consider and "[I]t is clearly proper in deciding ...to take judicial notice of matters of public record... on those claims which argues that the detainers at issue were unlawful because ICE lacks authority to issue detainers... a Motion to Take Judicial Notice is granted" Garay v. City of Las Vegas, 2024 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 57715, Case No. 2:20-cv-119-ART-EJY (D.C. Nev. 2024), since that the "Rooker-Feldman does not apply when appellants commence a federal district court action before the end of the state proceedings.... may take judicial notice of court documents from a state proceeding. Lozman v. City of Riviera Beach, 713 F.3d 1066, 1075 n.9 (11th Cir. 2013).

(2) It is proper to take judicial notice of the fact that press coverage, prior lawsuits, or regulatory filings contained certain information, without regard to the truth of their contents. [D]istrict courts may 'permissibly consider documents other than the complaint' for the truth of their contents if they 'are attached to the complaint or incorporated in it by reference,' and [a] document that is integral to the complaint and partially quoted therein may be incorporated by reference in full.

(3) [A] Court may take judicial notice of the rules, regulations and orders of administrative agencies issued pursuant to their delegated authority. "The court must take judicial notice of the rules as well as of the act itself" Lilly v. Grand Trunk Western Railroad Co., 317 U.S. 481, 87 L. Ed. 411, 63 S. Ct. 347 (1943), it is clearly proper in deciding to take judicial notice of matters of public record.
