Case No. 25-cv-04024

Judge Sharon Johnson Coleman

JOINT STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to the Court's June 4, 2025 order, Doc. #37, the parties notify the Court that the Supreme Court ruled in Trump v. CASA, Inc., No. 24A884 (June 27, 2025) that nationwide injunctions, also called "'universal injunctions' ... likely exceed the equitable authority that Congress has granted to federal courts." (Opinion of the Court, pp. 1-2).

Plaintiff contends that this development casts doubt on the effect or enforceability of the district court's nationwide injunction in Doe v. Trump, No. 25-cv-03240-JSW, 2025 WL 1467543 (N.D. Cal. May 22, 2025), and requests this court to rule on the pending motion for a preliminary injunction.

Defendants believe that this court may rule on whatever motions are pending before it whenever it prefers. Still, the mandate has not yet issued in CASA, and that the Court in that case did not decide whether the district courts' injunctions should be narrower—leaving that issue for the “lower courts [to] determine whether a narrower injunction is appropriate.” (Opinion of the Court, p. 19). Consequently, defendants note that the Doe injunction has not yet been “vacated or modified” as flagged by this court in its prior order. Dkt. 37.
