	Respondent's application for $\square$ pre-conclusion voluntary departure under INA § 240B(a) post-conclusion voluntary departure under INA § 240B(b) was denied.
	Respondent's application for pre-conclusion voluntary departure under INA § 240B(a) post-conclusion voluntary departure under INA § 240B(b) was granted, and Respondent is ordered to depart by . The respondent must post a $ bond with DHS within five business days of this order. Failure to post the bond as required or to depart by the required date will result in an alternate order of removal to taking effect immediately.
П	The respondent is subject to the following conditions to ensure his or her timely departure from the United States:
	Further information regarding voluntary departure has been added to the record.
	Respondent was advised of the limitation on discretionary relief, the consequences for failure to depart as ordered, the bond posting requirements, and the consequences of filing a post-order motion to reopen or reconsider:
relevan	pondent fails to voluntarily depart within the time specified or any extensions granted DHS, Respondent shall be subject to a civil monetary penalty as provided by at statute, regulation, and policy. See INA § 240B(d)(1). The immigration court has set the presumptive civil monetary penalty amount of $3,000.00 USD $ USD instead of the presumptive amount.  Pondent fails to voluntarily depart within the time specified, the alternate order of remova 10 yea	al shall automatically take effect, and Respondent shall be ineligible, for a period of ars, for voluntary departure or for relief under sections 240A, 245, 248, and 249 of at, to include cancellation of removal, adjustment of status, registry, or change of nonimmigrant status. Id. If Respondent files a motion to reopen or reconsider prior to the expiration of the voluntary departure period set forth above, the grant of voluntary departure is automatically terminated; the period allowed for voluntary departure is not stayed, tolled, or extended. If the grant of voluntary departure is automatically terminated upon the filing of such a motion, the penalties for failure to depart under section 240B(d) of the Act shall not apply.

If Respondent appeals this decision, Respondent must provide to the Board of Immigration Appeals (Board), within 30 days of filing an appeal, sufficient proof of having posted the voluntary departure bond. The Board will not reinstate the voluntary departure period in its final order if Respondent does not submit timely proof to the Board that the voluntary departure bond has been posted.

In the case of conversion to a removal order where the alternate order of removal immediately takes effect, where Respondent willfully fails or refuses to depart from the United States pursuant to the order of removal, to make timely application in good faith for travel or other documents necessary to depart the United States, to present himself or herself at the time and place required for removal by the DHS, or conspires to or takes any action designed to prevent or hamper Respondent's departure pursuant to the order of removal, Respondent may be subject to a civil monetary penalty for each day Respondent is in violation. If Respondent is removable pursuant to INA § 237(a), then he or she shall be further fined or imprisoned for up to 10 years.

11	Removal
$\overline{c}$	Respondent was ordered removed to Colombia
	In the alternative, Respondent was ordered removed to Respondent was advised of the penalties for failure to depart pursuant to the removal order:
