To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Yoandri Almeida Arencibia, and I am the brother of Yurien Almeida Arencibia, who is currently in immigration detention. I want to express my unconditional support and confidence in his character and his desire to improve his situation.

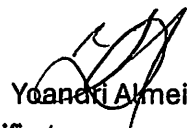

I have known Yurien Almeida Arencibia for several years, and during this time I can attest that he is a responsible, serious person, and committed to his family. He owns a home in [REDACTED] 32807, which demonstrates his intention to settle down and contribute to his community in a stable manner. He also holds a CDL, which demonstrates that he has no intention of fleeing or evading authorities, but rather fulfills his responsibilities and obligations.

It is essential to emphasize that he has a young daughter who hopes to be with him and receive his support and companionship, especially during these difficult times. Her father's presence is crucial to her well-being and development, and we trust that he will provide a positive and loving example for her life.

For all the above reasons, I respectfully request that you reconsider your situation and give him the opportunity to move forward with his life and provide the support his daughter so desperately needs.

Thank you for your consideration and attention to this request.

Sincerely,

Yoandri Almeida Arencibia

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Magaly Arencibia Hernandez, mother of Yurien Almeida Arencibia, who is currently in an immigration detention center. I am writing this letter to express my deep support and confidence in my son, who has proven to be a responsible, respectful, and committed person to his family, especially his young daughter, who needs his company.

My son has been through difficult times, but throughout, he has shown remorse, maturity, and a sincere desire to improve and move forward. I want to emphasize that he is currently taking responsibility for his situation and working to stay strong for his daughter, who greatly needs his support and companionship.

I am convinced that, with the right help and opportunity, my son will be able to reintegrate into the community and be a positive example for his family.

I'm approaching a surgical procedure that is still worrying due to my age and health, and I have no words to express how necessary it would be to have my son by my side.

I appreciate your consideration and hope you can give him a chance to show your remorse and commitment to his family and the community.

Sincerely,

Magaly Arencibia Hernandez.

To whom it may concern,

My name is Niris Perez Sarmiento, and I am the sister-in-law of Yurien Almeida Arencibia. I am writing this letter to express my support and my views on his character and current situation in the immigration prison.

I have known Yurien Almeida Arencibia for one year, and during this time I have come to know him as a responsible, respectful person with a strong commitment to his family, especially his young daughter, who requires his presence and support during these difficult times.

Given his current situation, I can confirm that Yurien Almeida Arencibia has shown remorse and a strong willingness to mend his ways. He is a person who works to maintain a positive attitude and longs for the opportunity to reintegrate into society and continue to be a good example for his daughter.

I am confident that with support and fair opportunities, he will be able to demonstrate that he has changed and that he wants to build a better future for his family and the community at large.

I truly appreciate your attention and consideration of this request. I hope you can give her the second chance she so desperately needs.

Sincerely,

Niris Perez Sarmiento

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Lucia Sanchez Ramos, and I am writing to express my unconditional support for Yurien Almeida Arencibia, who is currently in ICE custody. I have known Yurien for five years, and I can attest to her respectful, responsible nature and deep commitment to her family, especially her youngest daughter.

I know Yurien has faced difficult times, but I also know that she has shown remorse and a true willingness to correct her path. The opportunity for parole would be essential for her to reunite with her family and continue working on her personal improvement process.

I trust that Yurien will take advantage of this opportunity to continue being a good person and a positive example for her daughter and her community.

I greatly appreciate your attention and hope that you will consider this request favorably.

Sincerely,
