HABEAS CORPUS PETITION
IN Pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. §2241

Petitioner, Sang Nguyen, Sui juris, though undersigned Moves this Court to Grant this Petition of Habeas Corpus, Title 28 U.S.C. §2241 in this case DHS/ICE are violating my liberty, under coerce and duress in which they unlawfully detaining the petitioner, on July 23-2025, to which they violate my U.S. Constitution rights, Fourth Amendment, unreasonable restrained without probable cause.

The fact that the United States Government has brought the Pettitioner, from a refugee "Camp in Malaysia," in about 1986, to which he was granted Refugee Status. Under U.S. Code Annotated Title 8 of the Aliens and Nationality Act. §§ 1157, 1159, 1186, b. Annual admission of Refugees, and admission of emergency situation of Refugees Relieve. Has being Granted by the United States Government.

INTRODUCTION

Petitioner DOB:  who is originally brought from a Refugee Camp in Malaysia, are identify as an Vietnamese has Legal Status, in the United States, and was unlawfully tooking from the Monastery, Petitioner, is a Monk, and has mo offense crime, in the United States. He was restrained under Coerce and duress. By DHS/ICE.

Petitioner, is consider as a stateless Person, the fact that the Country "Vietnam," do not have him as their Citizen, because the Country was a War-torning region, with out a stable Government. Petitioner, parent never register the Petitioner, to the Vietnam, Government, for said cause. The fact that he was born at war time.

In this case Petitioner, home Country is consider as the United States, to which he is a Legal "resident domicile," of the United States from 1986 to which is now 39 years now.

And because Petitioner, are stateless, DHS/ICE are not going to be able to obtain any Travel document, from the Vietnamese Consulate or Ambassador of Vietnam. And that is the undisputed fact. Petitioner, is not there Citizen or there subject, for them to grant any Travel document for the Petitioner, will not be genuine.

And for that reason cited above DHS/ICE are now detaining Petitioner, to which they detention are unlawful the fact Petitioner, has Legal Status to being the United States show Prejudice.

For over 39 years now Petitioner, was reported to the U.S. immigration to which they can give an account of my where about, and for DHS/ICE now detain Petitioner, show "Malice," they disire to cause injury and distress to the Petitioner, because the Petitioner, is not a flight risk, for ICE to unlawfully detain Petitioner.

Petitioner, is a Monk, who live at the Monastery in New Mexico. And a productive Citizen of this Country, in this case ICE are unlawfully depriving the Petitioner of his Liberty.

I, Petitioner, respectfully request the Court to please grant a PERMANENT INJUNCTION AND RESTRAINING ORDER. And order my release from ICE unlawful detention.

CONCLUSION

Petitioner, invoke this Court Jurisdiction.
