UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Miguel Angel MALDONADO VAZQUEZ, on behalf of himself as an individual and on behalf of others similarly situated,
Petitioners,

v.

Thomas E. FEELEY, et al.,

Respondents.

Case No. 25-cv-1542

PETITIONERS' MOTION TO TEMPORARILY SUSPEND
SCHEDULING DEADLINES PENDING
RESOLUTION OF MOTION TO STAY
PROCEEDINGS

I. Introduction

Petitioners respectfully move this Court to temporarily suspend the September 12, 2025, scheduling order deadlines (regarding discovery and expedited class certification briefing) until the Court resolves Petitioners' pending Motion to Stay Proceedings (ECF No. 26).

II. Argument

On September 9, 2025, the Court ordered the parties to meet and confer and to submit a proposed discovery and expedited class certification briefing schedule by September 12, 2025. Petitioners complied with that directive but have since filed a Motion to Stay Proceedings (ECF

1 No. 26), seeking to pause further action pending resolution of Bautista v. Noem, No. 5:25-cv-
2 01873-SSS-BFM (C.D. Cal.), where class certification is set for hearing on October 17, 2025.

3 Absent a temporary suspension, the parties will be compelled to expend significant time
4 and resources on scheduling and discovery plans that may become unnecessary if the Court grants
5 the Petitioners' stay motion. Temporarily suspending the deadlines will conserve judicial and party
6 resources, and no prejudice will result, as Petitioners remain protected by the Court's Preliminary 7 Injunction.

8 III. Conclusion

9 For these reasons, Petitioners respectfully request that the Court temporarily suspend the 10 September 12, 2025, scheduling deadlines pending resolution of Petitioners' Motion to Stay
11 Proceedings.

12 Respectfully submitted this 10th day of September, 2025.
