COURT

Defendant

16 After a discussion with all parties, we have agreed that due to many parties being in the East Coast, we are 17 requesting the filing of the Joint Protective order be moved to November 10, 2025. Because Defendants' Counsel 18 has indicated that additional delays may occur, which cannot be assessed until DHS provides their position on the 19 proposed edits, it remains uncertain whether their proposed deadline of November 10, 2025, will allow sufficient 20 time for the parties to complete and file a signed protective order before the November 13, 2025, status conference.

21 The parties are in communication with each other concerning the timelines, and in the meantime respectfully request 22 that the deadline to submit a signed protective order be continued
23 to November 10, 2025.
