AT SEATTLE
CLERK U.S. DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
BY DEPUTY

Name: José David Lainez Bueso
1623 EAST J STREET SUITE 5
TACOMA, WASHINGTON 98421

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

Name : Jose David Lainez Bueso

Petitioner

vs.

ICE Field Office Director

Respondent

) Case No.: 2:25-cv-C25-1748-KKE-MLP
) A# ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ (Third Circuit Case No.25-1989)
) Objections to Report and Recommendations.
) Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus.

The Appellant is currently held in custody of the Attorney General at Tacoma's Northwest Detention Center in Tacoma Washington.

Here, the Appellant moves this Court to issue an order commanding his release from the custody of ICE due to the fact that such custody violates the due process rights of the Petitioner.

OBJECTIONS

1. The Clerk of the Court never informed to this Petitioner (Pro-Se), that once the record is fully developed the Court is able to make a decision at any time.
2. This Court of District on Document 10 filed on 10/03/25 articulate; this Petitioner had to renew the motion for appointment of counsel once the record is more fully developed (See EXHIBIT A: Document 10, dated 10/03/25: 2 pages)

3. This Petitioner is taken by surprise with this decision of denying the petition of habeas corpus because supposedly he was entitle to received a response about his motion for appointment of counsel instead of a suddenly shocking decision.!
4. One of the factors why this District Court is GRANTING the Respondent's Motion to Dismiss is BECAUSE Respondent is arguing the Petitioner has an Appeal Process pending with BIA which is totally wrong! Petitioner withdrew this process on November 14,2025 leaving to the District Court make his own decision without interference from BIA.(See again EXHIBIT B: Bond Appeal Withdraw, 2 pages)
5. This Petitioner had considered to file additional and very important information (evidence) related to his unlawful detention in SUFFOLK, COUNTY, LONG ISLAND NY. (Evidence that only a lawyer can get, and present, and make objections before the Court)
6. Petitioner in his Condition of Pro-Se; consider that he was fully capable to present by himself before the court the sufficient EXCULPATORY evidence to SUCCEED ON THE MERITS for his Detention's RELEASE which was not consider in its totality by the Court in order to favor to the Respondent's Petition.

Dated 19 day of December 2025

This is a 28 U.S.C. § 2241 habeas action. Petitioner Jose David Lainez Bueso has filed a motion seeking appointment of counsel in this matter. (Dkt. # 8.) While there is no constitutional right to appointment of counsel in § 2241 habeas actions, the Court may exercise its discretion to appoint counsel for a financially eligible individual where the “interests of justice so require.” 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(a)(2)(B). “In deciding whether to appoint counsel in a habeas proceeding, the district court must evaluate the likelihood of success on the merits as well as the ability of the petitioner to articulate his claims pro se in light of the complexity of the legal issues involved.” Weygardt v. Look, 718 F.2d 952, 954 (9th Cir. 1983) (per curiam).

1 A review of Petitioner's habeas petition reveals that he has adequately articulated his
2 claims such that Respondent can file a viable response to the substance of those claims. (See dkt.
3 # 1 at 1-18.) As to the question of whether Petitioner is likely to succeed on the merits of his
4 petition, there is simply insufficient information in the record at this juncture for the Court to
5 make such a determination. In sum, Petitioner has not demonstrated that the interests of justice
6 require appointment of counsel at this time.

7 Accordingly, Petitioner's motion for appointment of counsel (dkt. # 8) is DENIED, but
8 this denial is without prejudice to Petitioner renewing his request for counsel once the record is 9 more fully developed. The Clerk is directed to send copies of this order to Petitioner and to the 10 Honorable Kymberly K. Evanson.
