2) I first arrived in united state on 8-09-1995 as a alien resident from Haiti, about a month later I have a permanent resident card through I 90 form my mother Amalia Tanis was grant at the age of seventeen years old boy. with I grew up here in America with a legal status. In 2004 I was convicted of a charge that I didn't commit.

3) The same here I was sentence for six months being a by language person. I didn't understand what was going on.

4) IN 2019 I was convicted. when I was homeless have my identity stolen couldn't help myself after everything I did had to follow. with a public defender lawyer that isn't always in your best interest had to take a plea deal.
For years I being try to get my life on track.
The shelter decide to sign me to a housing unit where I was going too began my new chapter Somebody lie make a false police report got me arrested for something that I have NO idea no one what so ever. on that false charge the judge gave me bail, wich was 1,000 dollars that i couldn't come up with.

5) In 2011 my mother die, that make me very depress and devastated. i find myself alone with no family. after 8 months + i couldn't make bail on the date the charge were suppose to dissmis immigration came and got me from Rhode Island jail, it's a place i never been before. i've been in ICE detention center ever since.

Without having a lawyer to represent me make it very hard. The immigration Judge NATALIE Smith order me deportation to a country

6) I haven't been for more than twenty years I listen to the news even watch on television how the country of Haiti turn down to be a war zone looking for people coming from America to kidnapped US, torture and murder people i am affraid for my life. I have three children that are growing up here in the united State that I want to be there for them.

7) I want to get my life together stop all the nonsense that around me. I need help
