All respect to you, your esteemed court, and your justice I won my asylum case on 03/05/2025 [withholding of removal] The judge's decision was not appealed and I was not released. Then in may I filed for bail and spoke with the judge. The judge told me he was surprised I wasn't released. He said, "I issued a warrant for your release. Why haven't you been released?"

I told him I didn't know. He then reviewed my file and decided to grant me 1500 $ bail. The prosecutor then said the judge didn't have the authority to grant me bail and appealed his decision. Then I asked the judge "IF I'm not released on bail what should I do?" He said "you can file a complaint with the federal authorities when I came to pay bail, they wouldn't let me (ice) He said I have no right to pay

Time passed and I was not released more than six months have passed now, and I have been detained for about eight and a half months

* your Honor I have a request and I hope you will help me. I have been detained for a long time for a year and a half. I am a good person and I have never committed any crime in my life. I hope that your esteemed court will consider my case carefully and that your decision will be final. I am hopeful that you will grant me a good life and release me to freedom my mother is ill and her life is in danger. I want to help her

* Thank you very much and thank you to your esteemed court *
