RAFAEL CENDAN,
Petitioner,

V.

Case:25-24543-CIV-RUIZ

KRISTI NOEM, Secretary of
Department of Homeland Security,
CHARLES PARRA, Field Director at Krome,
JOSE SIERRA, Field Manager,
MR. RIVAS Deportation Officer for Cubans,
Respondents.

MOTION TO AMEND AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS ON WRIT OF CASE
CITED ABOVE, PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. PR. RULE 15(a)(2).

Pro-Se petitioner files this motion to amend pleadings and correct deficient law. Rule 15 (a)(2) states the court should freely give leave when justice so requires. Petitioner's case is a perfect example of the forementioned above. Petitioner stands to suffer irreparable injury and extreme unusual hardship by to amend his petition of stay of deportation or removal and present credible proof of all of the disabilities and chronic medical conditions. Petitioner also suffers from P.T.S.D, post traumatic stress disorder, a result of trauma during his voluntary enlistment with the United States Army. All of the medical chronic issues and disabilities are documented and confirmed by the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Medical Department. Furthermore, petitioner respectfully requests that this honorable judge take into account that petitioner is not an experienced litigator, and any deficiencies and applications of law are due to ignorance of immigration and fed. r. civ. pr. and this motion to amend is made in Good Faith in order to achieve justice.

Respectfully Submitted,
