Case No. 1:25-CV-00212-H

DECLARATION OF LONNIE FELPS

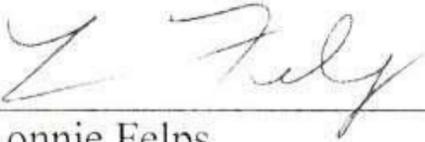

In accordance with the provisions of Section 1746 of Title 28, United States Code, I, the undersigned, Lonnie Felps, do hereby make the following declaration, under penalty of perjury in the above-styled and numbered cause:

1. I, Lonnie Felps, am presently employed by the United States Department of Homeland Security (“DHS” or the “Department”), Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”), in the position of Deportation Officer within the Dallas division of Enforcement and Removal Operations.
2. I am familiar with the case of Marwan MAROUF, alien file number   a native of Kuwait and citizen of Jordan. I have reviewed his case and I am familiar with the basic facts and procedural history. As a Deportation Officer, I have access to records maintained in the ordinary course of business by ICE.
3. MAROUF entered the United States on an F-1 student visa on or about August 3, 1991.

4. MAROUF was subsequently admitted to the United States on an H-1B nonimmigrant visa on February 3, 1999.
5. On May 2, 2007, MAROUF was the beneficiary of a Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker, filed by his employer on his behalf. A subsequent I-140 was filed and approved on May 18, 2010.
6. MAROUF filed a Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Resident status or to Adjust Status on August 18, 2010. This application was based on the approved I-140 petition.
7. MAROUF's H-1B visa expired on February 2, 2011. He was granted advanced parole based upon his pending adjustment application, and he paroled into the United States on August 7, 2012.+
8. The United States Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") denied MAROUF's I-485 on October 1, 2014. The basis for the denial was that MAROUF solicited funds for and provided material support to a Tier III terrorist organization, [REDACTED] in violation of INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(IV)(cc) and (VI)(dd).
9. On August 6, 2021, USCIS approved a Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, filed on his behalf by his U.S. citizen son.
10. MAROUF again filed an I-485 on June 25, 2020, seeking to use the I-130 filed by his son as the underlying petition.
11. USCIS denied this I-485 on September 22, 2025, for the same reasons as the previous I-485. MAROUF was taken into ICE custody the same day.

12. ERO issued a Notice to Appear, placing MAROUF into immigration court proceedings.
13. MAROUF is currently scheduled for a final hearing on November 20, 2025.

Sworn to and subscribed this 29th day of October, 2025.

Notice to Respondent

Warning: Any statement you make may be used against you in removal proceedings.

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are in removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to 8 CFR 1003.16. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents that you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing. At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear, including that you are inadmissible or removable. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge. You will be advised by the immigration judge before whom you appear of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible including the privilege of voluntary departure. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

One-Year Asylum Application Deadline: If you believe you may be eligible for asylum, you must file a Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal. The Form I-589, Instructions, and information on where to file the Form can be found at www.uscis.gov/i-589. Failure to file the Form I-589 within one year of arrival may bar you from eligibility to apply for asylum pursuant to section 208(a)(2)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Failure to appear: You are required to provide the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), in writing, with your full mailing address and telephone number. You must notify the Immigration Court and the DHS immediately by using Form EOIR-33 whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding. You will be provided with a copy of this form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you do not submit Form EOIR-33 and do not otherwise provide an address at which you may be reached during proceedings, then the Government shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, or any date and time later directed by the Immigration Court, a removal order may be made by the immigration judge in your absence, and you may be arrested and detained by the DHS.

Mandatory Duty to Surrender for Removal: If you become subject to a final order of removal, you must surrender for removal to your local DHS office, listed on the internet at <http://www.ice.gov/contact/ero>, as directed by the DHS and required by statute and regulation. Immigration regulations at 8 CFR 1241.1 define when the removal order becomes administratively final. If you are granted voluntary departure and fail to depart the United States as required, fail to post a bond in connection with voluntary departure, or fail to comply with any other condition or term in connection with voluntary departure, you must surrender for removal on the next business day thereafter. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you will be ineligible for all forms of discretionary relief for as long as you remain in the United States and for ten years after your departure or removal. This means you will be ineligible for asylum, cancellation of removal, voluntary departure, adjustment of status, change of nonimmigrant status, registry, and related waivers for this period. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you may also be criminally prosecuted under section 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

U.S. Citizenship Claims: If you believe you are a United States citizen, please advise the DHS by calling the ICE Law Enforcement Support Center toll free at (855) 448-6903.
