FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Pamela Bondi, Attorney General; Kristi Noem, Secretary of Homeland Security; Todd M. Lyons, Acting Director of U.S. Immigration & Customs Enforcement; Marcos Charles, Acting Executive Associate Director for Enforcement and Removal Operations; Mark Siegel, Field Office Director for Enforcement and Removal Operations; U.S. Immigration & Customs Enforcement; U.S. Department of Homeland Security; Scarlet Grant, Warden of Cimarron Correctional Facility.

EXPEDITED HANDLING
REQUESTED PURSUANT TO 28
U.S.C. § 1657

Respondents.

INTRODUCTION

1. Respondents are detaining Petitioner, Riaz Sukhyani , in violation of law.
2. Sukhyani is a citizen of Pakistan who was ordered removed on May 24, 2006.

Sukhyani did not appeal, rendering the administrative order final on June 24, 2006

¹ Filed as a matter of right pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(1)(A). The only amendments are to ¶¶ 2 and 10. The amendments are made to correct counsel's misunderstandings of Petitioner's statements to counsel. ECF No. 1-1 is not being re-filed as an attachment to this Amended Complaint, but Petitioner continues to rely upon ECF No. 1-1 as an Exhibit to this Amended Complaint.

(unless appeal was expressly waived, which would render the order final on May 24, 2006); DHS filed an appeal but subsequently withdrew it on August 31, 2006.

3. Sukhyani remained in ICE detention in excess of six months from around September 2007 until May 2008, before he was eventually released on an Order of Supervision (“OOS”) after filing a writ of habeas corpus pro se in 2008. Sukhyani has been on an OOS since about 2008.
4. The OOS issued pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 241.4(e) and 8 C.F.R. § 241.13 because it was determined there was no significant likelihood of removal in the reasonably foreseeable future. It was necessarily determined at that time that Sukhyani did not present an ongoing danger or a flight risk. See 8 C.F.R. § 241.4(e)(2)-(6); 8 C.F.R. § 241.13.
5. Sukhyani was required to complete regular check ins with ICE from when he was placed on an OOS and when he was redetained in violation of law in 2025. Sukhyani complied with all check in requirements and made sure to update his address with ICE every time he moved.
6. On June 11, 2025, Sukhyani was picked up and redetained by ICE while he was at work despite having done nothing wrong and remaining in compliance with his OOS.
7. ICE had come to Sukhyani’s home while he was at work telling Sukhyani’s wife they needed to speak with Sukhyani. Sukhyani’s wife called Sukhyani to notify him and Sukhyani invited ICE to his place of work to speak. When ICE arrived to Sukhyani’s place of work, ICE arrested Sukhyani. Sukhyani asked ICE if they had

- a warrant to arrest him and ICE told him that they did but did not show any proof.
8. Sukhyani has previously applied for numerous travel documents from numerous different countries, but his applications were all denied.
 9. Since being detained in 2025, Sukhyani has not been asked to apply for a travel document to any country despite more than 90 days elapsing in the interim, evidencing Respondents' total lack of intent and ability to actually arrange Sukhyani's removal from the United States.
 10. Additionally, while Sukhyani was detained in Texas, ICE offered to bus Sukhyani to the U.S. – Mexico border, drop him off on the U.S. side of the border, and allow him to walk from Texas to Mexico without any travel documents. Sukhyani declined. He was not driven to the border.
 11. Since being detained in 2025, to the best of Sukhyani's knowledge, no government agent has expressed to Sukhyani that a third-country removal is being attempted, much less expected to be successful.
 12. Sukhyani remains detained at this time. He is housed in Cimarron Correctional Facility in Cushing, OK, a facility designed to house and punish convicted criminals. Sukhyani's conditions of confinement are indistinguishable from those of convicted criminals.
 13. The government is not in possession of any credible or persuasive documents or evidence that Sukhyani's removal is likely to occur in the reasonably foreseeable future. This was true at the time Sukhyani was redetained, and it remains true at the time of this petition's filing.

14. It remains true at the time of this filing that Sukhyani cannot be deported to his country of origin, Pakistan, because of his DCAT order from an immigration judge preventing his removal to Pakistan.
15. The redetention of Sukhyani serves no legitimate purpose. Instead, his detention is punitive. The redetention of Sukhyani is designed to send a message to other individuals with final orders of removal that they need to leave the United States or they will be jailed indefinitely and without any process.
16. Federal statutes and regulations require ICE to follow certain procedures before they redetained Sukhyani. ICE failed to comply with these laws prior to redetaining Sukhyani.
17. To remedy this unlawful detention, Sukhyani seeks declaratory and injunctive relief in the form of immediate release from detention.
18. Pending the adjudication of his Petition, Sukhyani seeks an order restraining the Respondents from transferring him to a location where he cannot reasonably consult with counsel, such a location to be construed as any location outside of the geographic jurisdiction of the day-to-day operations of U.S. Immigration & Customs Enforcement's ("ICE") Oklahoma City Office of Enforcement and Removal Operations in the State of Oklahoma.
19. Pending the adjudication of this Petition, Petitioner also respectfully requests that Respondents be ordered to provide seventy-two (72) hour notice of any movement of Sukhyani.

20. Sukhyani requests the same opportunity to be heard in a meaningful manner, at a meaningful time, and thus requests 72-hours-notice prior to any removal or movement of him away from the State of Oklahoma.
21. Sukhyani requests an emergency preliminary order requiring Respondents to give Sukhyani due process prior to removing him to an allegedly safe third country in the form of a full merits hearing for asylum, withholding of removal, and DCAT before an immigration judge relating to the proposed country of removal with a right to an administrative appeal to the Board of Immigration Appeals, and further requests that this injunction be made permanent.
22. Sukhyani requests an order compelling Respondents to release him pending the outcome of this petition.
23. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1657, Sukhyani requests that the district court decide this petition in the first instance rather than referring it to a magistrate judge for a Report and Recommendation.
24. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1657, Sukhyani requests that the district court issue an Order to Show Cause (“OSC”) giving the government no more than 7 days to file evidence and argument in response to the OSC. Petitioner needs no more than 48 hours to reply to the government’s filing.
25. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1657 and the Constitution’s Suspension Clause, inter alia, Sukhyani requests that the district court state in its OSC that, notwithstanding General Order 25-8, the Respondents are ordered to respond to the OSC on the stated timeline, and that any motion or allegations in the petition that are not answered will be (rather than “may, in the discretion of the court”) deemed confessed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b)(6) and LCvR 7.1(g).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

26. The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question), § 1361 (mandamus action), § 1651 (All Writs Act), and § 2241 (habeas corpus); Art. I, § 9, cl. 2 of the U.S. Constitution (“Suspension Clause”); 5 U.S.C. § 702 (Administrative Procedure Act); and 28 U.S.C. § 2201 (Declaratory Judgment Act). This action further arises under the Constitution of the United States and the Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”), specifically, 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1)-(3) and 8 C.F.R. §§ 241.4, 241.13.
27. Because Sukhyani seeks to challenge his custody as a violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States, jurisdiction is proper in this court.
28. Federal district courts have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 to hear habeas petitions by noncitizens challenging the lawfulness or constitutionality of their detention by DHS. Demore v. Kim, 538 U.S. 510, 516–17 (2003); Jennings v. Rodriguez, 138 S. Ct. 830, 839–41 (2018); Nielsen v. Preap, 139 S. Ct. 954, 961–63 (2019); Sopo v. U.S. Attorney Gen., 825 F.3d 1199, 1209-12 (11th Cir. 2016).
29. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1657, Sukhyani’s petition “shall” be expedited for good cause. (emphasis added). The good cause consists of Sukhyani’s credible and detailed allegations of indefinite and prolonged unlawful and unconstitutional civil confinement. Numerous other courts around the country, and in this district, have expedited these types of matters recently. See Roble v. Bondi, No. 25-cv-3196, 2025 WL 2443453 (D. Minn. Aug. 25, 2025); Sarail A. v. Bondi, No. 25-CV-2144, 2025 WL 2533673 (D. Minn. Sept. 3, 2025); Sonam T. v. Bondi, No. 25-CV-2834, slip op., ECF No. 19 (D. Minn. Sept. 16, 2025); see also Sonam T. v. Bondi, No. 25-CV-2834, ECF No. 25 (D. Minn. Sept. 19, 2025) (ordering release); Mehran S. v. Bondi, No. 25-CV-3724, ECF No. 6 (D. Minn. Sept. 29, 2025) (providing 7 days to respond to OSC); Mehran S. v. Bondi, No. 25-CV-3724, ECF No. 11 (D. Minn. Sept. 29, 2025) (ordering release); Omar J. v. Bondi, No. 25-CV-3719 (D. Minn. Sept. 29, 2025), ECF No. 11; Constantinovici v. Bondi, No. 3:25-CV-02405-RBM-AHG (S.D. Cal. Sept. 17, 2025), ECF No. 5 (OSC gave the government 48 hours to respond); Constantinovici v. Bondi, No. 3:25-CV-02405-RBM-AHG (S.D. Cal. Oct. 10, 2025), ECF No. 15 (granting habeas petition less than one month after filing); Momennia v. Bondi, No. 5:25-CV-1067-J, ECF No. 9 (giving the government just 14 days to respond to OSC) (W.D. Okla. Sept. 17, 2025); Momennia v. Bondi, No. 5:25-CV-1067-J, ECF No. 12 at 1 n.1 (W.D. Okla. Oct. 3, 2025) (“This Order is in furtherance of the need recognized by the Magistrate Judge to proceed in this case in an expedited manner.”); Momennia v. Bondi, No. 5:25-CV-1067-J, ECF No. 16 (W.D. Okla. Oct. 9, 2025) (granting motion to expedite in part); Bahadorani v. Bondi, No. 5:25-CV-01091-PRW, ECF No. 12 (W.D. Okla. Sept. 30, 2025) (granting motion to expedite pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1657 and giving the government just 14 days to respond to OSC); Bahadorani v.

Bondi, No. 5:25-CV-01091-PRW, ECF No. 13 (issuing an order overriding General Order 25-8 and ordering the federal respondents to file their answer or response on or before October 14, 2025); Pham v. Bondi, No. 5:25-CV-01157-SLP, ECF No. 14 (Oct. 8, 2025) (ordering government just 7 days to respond to OSC); Yee S. v. Bondi, No. 25-CV-02782-JMB-DLM, ECF No. 13 (D. Minn. Oct. 9, 2025) (granting habeas petition 4 days after TRO and motion to expedite was filed).

30. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 USC §§ 1391(b), (e)(1)(B), and 2241(d) because Sukhyani is detained within this District. He is currently detained at the Cimarron Correctional Facility in Cushing, Oklahoma. Venue is also proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e)(1)(A) because Respondents are operating in this district.

PARTIES

31. Petitioner Riaz Sukhyani is a national of Pakistan. His Alien Registration Number (“A number”) is  Petitioner Sukhyani is an alien with an administratively final removal order. Sukhyani is currently in custody at the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) detention center in Cushing, Oklahoma. Sukhyani’s aggregate period of civil immigration confinement exceeds six months and continues to grow.
32. Respondent Pamela Bondi is being sued in her official capacity as the Attorney General of the United States and the head of the Department of Justice, which encompasses the BIA and the immigration judges through the Executive Office for Immigration Review. Attorney General Bondi shares responsibility for implementation and enforcement of the immigration detention statutes, along with Respondent Noem. Attorney General Bondi is a legal custodian of Sukhyani.

33. Respondent Kristi Noem is being sued in her official capacity as the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. In this capacity, Secretary Noem is responsible for the administration of the immigration laws pursuant to § 103(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”), 8 U.S.C. § 1103(a), routinely transacts business in the District of Oklahoma, supervises the Oklahoma City ICE Field Office, and is legally responsible for pursuing Sukhyani’s detention and removal. As such, Respondent Noem is a legal custodian of Sukhyani.
34. Respondent Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) is the federal agency responsible for implementing and enforcing the INA, including the detention and removal of noncitizens.
35. Respondent Todd M. Lyons is the Acting Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement and is sued in his official capacity. Defendant Lyons is responsible for Petitioner’s detention.
36. Respondent Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) is the subagency within the Department of Homeland Security responsible for implementing and enforcing the Immigration & Nationality Act, including the detention of noncitizens.
37. Respondent Marcos Charles is the Acting Executive Associate Director for ICE Enforcement and Removal Operations (“ERO”).

38. Respondent Mark Siegel is being sued in his official capacity as the Field Office Director for the Oklahoma City Field Office for ICE within DHS. In that capacity, Field Director Siegel has supervisory authority over the ICE agents responsible for detaining Sukhyani.
39. Respondent Scarlet Grant is being sued in her official capacity as the Warden of the Cimarron Correctional Facility. Because Petitioner is detained in the Cimarron Correctional Facility, Respondent Grant has immediate day-to-day control over Petitioner.

EXHAUSTION

40. ICE asserts authority to jail Sukhyani pursuant to the mandatory detention provisions of 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1). No statutory requirement of exhaustion applies to Sukhyani's challenge to the lawfulness of his detention. See, e.g., Araujo-Cortes v. Shanahan, 35 F. Supp. 3d 533, 538 (S.D.N.Y. 2014) ("There is no statutory requirement that a habeas petitioner exhaust his administrative remedies before challenging his immigration detention."); Rodriguez v. Bostock, No. 3:25-CV-05240-TMC, 2025 WL 1193850, at *11 (W.D. Wash. Apr. 24, 2025) (citing Marroquin Ambriz v. Barr, 420 F. Supp. 3d 953, 962 (N.D. Cal. 2019) ("this Court 'follows the vast majority of other cases which have waived exhaustion based on irreparable injury when an individual has been detained for months without a bond hearing, and where several additional months may pass before the BIA renders a decision on a pending appeal.'"); Gomes v. Hyde, No. 1:25-CV-11571-JEK, 2025 WL 1869299, at *5 (D. Mass. July 7, 2025) ((citing Portela-Gonzalez v. Sec'y of the Navy, 109 F.3d 74, 77 (1st Cir. 1997) (quoting McCarthy v. Madigan, 503 U.S. 140, 146 (1992)).

41. To the extent that prudential consideration may require exhaustion in some circumstances, Sukhyani has exhausted all effective administrative remedies available to him as he has previously demonstrated to ICE's satisfaction that his removal is not substantially likely to occur in the reasonably foreseeable future. ICE has never rebutted this showing. Any further efforts would be futile.
42. Prudential exhaustion is not required when to do so would be futile or "the administrative body . . . has . . . predetermined the issue before it." McCarthy v. Madigan, 503 U.S. 140, 148 (1992), superseded by statute on other grounds as stated in Woodford v. Ngo, 548 U.S. 81 (2006).
43. Prudential exhaustion is also not required in cases where "a particular plaintiff may suffer irreparable harm if unable to secure immediate judicial consideration of his claim." McCarthy, 503 U.S. at 147. Every day Sukhyani is unlawfully detained causes him and his family irreparable harm. Jarpa v. Mumford, 211 F. Supp. 3d 706, 711 (D. Md. 2016) ("Here, continued loss of liberty without any individualized bail determination constitutes the kind of irreparable harm which forgives exhaustion."); Matacua v. Frank, 308 F. Supp. 3d 1019, 1025 (D. Minn. 2018) (explaining that "a loss of liberty" is "perhaps the best example of irreparable harm"); Hamama v. Adducci, 349 F. Supp. 3d 665, 701 (E.D. Mich. 2018) (holding that "detention has inflicted grave" and "irreparable harm" and describing the impact of prolonged detention on individuals and their families).

44. Prudential exhaustion is additionally not required in cases where the agency “lacks the institutional competence to resolve the particular type of issue presented, such as the constitutionality of a statute.” McCarthy, 503 U.S. at 147–48. Immigration agencies have no jurisdiction over constitutional challenges of the kind Sukhyani raises here. See, e.g., Matter of C-, 20 I. & N. Dec. 529, 532 (BIA 1992) (“[I]t is settled that the immigration judge and this Board lack jurisdiction to rule upon the constitutionality of the Act and the regulations.”); Matter of Akram, 25 I. & N. Dec. 874, 880 (BIA 2012); Matter of Valdovinos, 18 I. & N. Dec. 343, 345 (BIA 1982); Matter of Fuentes-Campos, 21 I. & N. Dec. 905, 912 (BIA 1997); Matter of U-M-, 20 I. & N. Dec. 327 (BIA 1991).
45. Because requiring Sukhyani to exhaust administrative remedies would be futile, would cause him irreparable harm, and the immigration agencies lack jurisdiction over the constitutional claims, this Court should not require exhaustion as a prudential matter.
46. In any event, Sukhyani has indeed exhausted all remedies available to him.
47. ICE has denied Sukhyani release because: (A) it incorrectly believes Sukhyani is responsible for reestablishing that removal is not substantially likely to occur in the reasonably foreseeable future, (B) ICE seeks to punish Sukhyani for remaining in the United States after previously having been ordered removed, and (C) ICE seeks to punish Sukhyani to send a message to similarly situated persons who have not yet been detained as a way to encourage those similarly situated people to immediately leave the United States to avoid Sukhyani’s fate.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS & PROCEDURAL HISTORY

48. Sukhyani re-alleges and incorporates by reference each allegation contained in ¶¶ 1-47 as if set forth fully herein.
49. On June 11, 2025, Sukhyani was picked up and redetained by ICE while he was at work. He has remained detained in Respondents' custody since that date.
50. Each time ICE has previously tried to obtain a travel document for Sukhyani, it has failed.
51. Sukhyani was never served with a Notice of Revocation of Release ("Notice") purporting to revoke his OOS, nor does he recall having been given any sort of informal interview to challenge the Notice.
52. Assuming arguendo that Sukhyani may have been served with a Notice of Revocation of Release ("Notice"), revoking his OOS, the Notice has not been reviewed by Petitioner's counsel, but likely claims in a conclusory manner that "ICE has determined there is a significant likelihood of removal in the reasonably foreseeable future in your case" based on unidentified "changed circumstances."
53. Sukhyani did not receive any Notice that provides a reasoned basis for believing that there is now a significant likelihood of removal in the reasonably foreseeable future.
54. Sukhyani did not receive any Notice that provides Sukhyani with sufficient information to be in a position to rebut the factual allegations underlying the Notice at an informal interview.

55. Sukhyani did not receive any Notice that provides enough information or detail to allow this Court to meaningfully review the relevant claims made in the Notice.
56. Sukhyani does not understand the reason ICE now believes that there is a significant likelihood he will be removed in the reasonably foreseeable future.
57. Sukhyani did not receive any Notice that alleges Sukhyani has failed to comply with any of the terms of his OOS.
58. Sukhyani did not receive any Notice that alleges Respondents have obtained a travel document allowing for Sukhyani's immediate removal from the United States.
59. Sukhyani did not receive any Notice that alleges any new facts that might form an independent basis for taking Sukhyani into custody.
60. At the time of Sukhyani's arrest, up through the present, ICE has no information that could reasonably lead it to believe changed circumstances exist that justify redetention under 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(i)(2)-(3).
61. At the time of redetention, ICE had not yet begun the steps of having Sukhyani apply for a travel document from detention for any allegedly safe third country.
62. Even after Sukhyani was detained by ICE in 2025, ICE failed to take timely meaningful steps to ensure Petitioner's removal from the United States in the reasonably foreseeable future.
63. Respondents maintain Sukhyani is ineligible for release from custody.
64. On April 30, 2025, the Department of Homeland Security issued a press release entitled 100 Days of Fighting Fake News.² In that document, DHS referenced civil immigration detention and the present administration's heavy reliance on civil detention to accomplish its political aims. Specifically, the document states:

The reality is that prison isn't supposed to be fun. It's a necessary measure to protect society and punish bad guys. It is not meant to be comfortable. What's more: prison can be avoided by self-deportation. CBP Home makes it simple and easy. If you are a criminal alien and we have to deport you, you could end up in Guantanamo Bay or CECOT. Leave now.

65. Myriad courts around the country have granted habeas corpus petitions and/or enjoined the current administration's attempts to use civil detention punitively against noncitizens. See, e.g., Mohammed H. v. Trump, 786 F. Supp. 3d 1149, 1158 (D. Minn. June 17, 2025) ("Punishing Petitioner for protected speech or using him as an example to intimidate other students into self-deportation is abusive and does not reflect legitimate immigration detention purposes.") (emphasis added); Mahdawi v. Trump, 781 F. Supp. 3d 214, 231-32 (D. Vt. Apr. 30, 2021) (recognizing that immigration detention cannot be motivated by the desire to punish speech or to deter others from speaking); Ozturk, 779 F. Supp. 3d 462, 493 ("So long as detention is motivated by those goals, and not a desire for punishment, the Court is generally required to defer to the political branches on the administration of the immigration system."); see also Fong Yue Ting v. United States, 149 U.S. 698, 730 (1893) ("The order of deportation is not a punishment"); See Roble v. Bondi, No.

Oct. 9, 2025), ECF No. 13 (granting habeas petition and ordering release 4 days after TRO and motion to expedite was filed); Constantinovici v. Bondi, No. 3:25-CV-02405-RBM-AHG (S.D. Cal. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

66. Petitioner’s present detention is governed by 8 U.S.C. § 1231 and its implementing regulations at 8 C.F.R. pt. 241.
67. Section 1231 mandates detention “[d]uring the removal period.” Accord 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1)(A), (a)(2). However, the same sections also require the government to actually remove the alien during this removal period. 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1)(A).
68. The “removal period” is “90 days.” 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1)(A). Petitioner’s “removal period” began when he was released from criminal custody and transferred to ICE custody in or around September 2007, causing it to end 90 days later in December 2007. 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1)(B)(iii).

69. Detention past the removal period can be lawful in circumstances not presented here. See 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1)(C), (a)(6).
70. After a noncitizen has been detained past the removal period, they may seek and obtain their release by demonstrating “there is no significant likelihood of removal to the country to which he or she was ordered removed, or to a third country, in the reasonably foreseeable future.” 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(a).
71. Once a noncitizen is released on an OOS, they are subject to certain conditions of release. See 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(h)(1).
72. Redetention is permitted where it is alleged a noncitizen violated the conditions of release. See 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(h)(2), (i).
73. Regulations also permit the government to withdraw or otherwise revoke release under specific circumstances. See 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(h)(4). One permissible reason to revoke release occurs when, “on account of changed circumstances, the Service determines that there is a significant likelihood that the alien may be removed in the reasonably foreseeable future.” 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(i)(2). Once such a determination is made, the noncitizen must “be notified of the reasons for revocation of [their] release” and must be provided with “an initial informal interview... to afford the alien an opportunity to respond to the reasons for revocation stated in the notification.” 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(i)(3). “The revocation custody review will include an evaluation of any contested facts relevant to the revocation and a determination whether the facts as determined warrant revocation and further denial of release.”

Id. If a noncitizen is not released following the informal interview, “the provisions of [8 C.F.R. § 241.4] shall govern the alien’s continued detention pending removal.”

8 C.F.R. § 241.13(i)(2). Once the provisions of § 241.4 take effect, it appears that the consequence is a total reset of the 90-day removal period under 8 U.S.C. §

1231(a), though this regulation is likely ultra vires to statute as an arbitrary or capricious interpretation of statute that exceeds statutory authority. See 8 C.F.R. §

241.4(b)(4).

74. Under the Supreme Court’s decision in Zadvydas v. Davis, a person subject to a final order of removal cannot, consistent with the Due Process Clause, be detained indefinitely pending removal. 533 U.S. 678, 699-700 (2001). Zadvydas established a temporal marker: post-final order of removal detention of six months or less is presumptively constitutional.

75. Zadvydas also stated:

After this 6-month period, once the alien provides good reason to believe that there is no significant likelihood of removal in the reasonably foreseeable future, the Government must respond with evidence sufficient to rebut that showing. And for detention to remain reasonable, as the period of prior post-removal confinement grows, what counts as the “reasonably foreseeable future” conversely would have to shrink.

533 U.S. at 701 (emphasis added).

76. Zadvydas further held that civil detention violates due process unless special, nonpunitive circumstances outweigh an individual’s interest in avoiding restraint. 533 U.S. at 690 (immigration detention must remain “nonpunitive in purpose and effect”) (emphasis added).

REMEDY

77. Respondents’ detention of Sukhyani violates the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution. Sukhyani’s ongoing detention violates the Fifth Amendment’s guarantee that “[n]o person shall be . . . deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law.” U.S. Const., amend. V.
78. Due Process requires that detention “bear [] a reasonable relation to the purpose for which the individual [was] committed.” Zadvydas, v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 690 (2001) (citing Jackson v. Indiana, 406 U.S. 715, 738 (1972)).
79. Sukhyani seeks immediate release to the extent that Respondents justify his detention on the idea that Petitioner has failed to demonstrate that there is no significant likelihood of his removal in the reasonably foreseeable future; Respondents bear the burden of rebutting the prior showing made by Petitioner. 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(i)(2)-(3). Respondents have failed to meet this burden.
80. Sukhyani seeks immediate release to the extent that Respondents have redetained him for the purpose of punishing him for remaining in the United States despite his final order of removal.
81. Sukhyani seeks immediate release to the extent that Respondents have redetained him for the purpose of punishing him to send a message to similarly situated individuals for the purpose of encouraging those similarly situated persons to leave the United States before they share Sukhyani’s fate.
82. Although neither the Constitution nor the federal habeas statutes delineate the necessary content of habeas relief, I.N.S. v. St. Cyr, 533 U.S. 289, 337 (2001) (Scalia, J., dissenting) (“A straightforward reading of [the Suspension Clause] discloses that it does not guarantee any content to . . . the writ of habeas corpus”), implicit in habeas jurisdiction is the power to order release. Boumediene v. Bush, 553 U.S. 723, 779 (2008) (“[T]he habeas court must have the power to order the conditional release of an individual unlawfully detained.”).

83. The Supreme Court has noted that the typical remedy for unlawful detention is release from detention. See, e.g., Munaf v. Geren, 553 U.S. 674 (2008) (“The typical remedy for [unlawful executive detention] is, of course, release.”); see also Wajda v. United States, 64 F.3d 385, 389 (8th Cir. 1995) (stating the function of habeas relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 “is to obtain release from the duration or fact of present custody.”).
84. That courts with habeas jurisdiction have the power to order outright release is justified by the fact that, “habeas corpus is, at its core, an equitable remedy,” Schlup v. Delo, 513 U.S. 298, 319 (1995), and that as an equitable remedy, federal courts “[have] broad discretion in conditioning a judgment granting habeas relief [and are] authorized . . . to dispose of habeas corpus matters ‘as law and justice require.’” Hilton v. Braunskill, 481 U.S. 770, 775 (1987) (quoting 28 U.S.C. § 2243). An order of release falls under court’s broad discretion to fashion relief. See, e.g., Jimenez v. Cronen, 317 F. Supp. 3d 626, 636 (D. Mass. 2018) (“Habeas corpus is an equitable remedy. The court has the discretion to fashion relief that is fair in the circumstances, including to order an alien’s release.”).

85. Immediate release is an appropriate remedy in this case.

CAUSE OF ACTION

COUNT ONE: DECLARATORY RELIEF

86. Sukhyani re-alleges and incorporates by reference each allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

87. Sukhyani requests a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 that Sukhyani is detained pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1).

88. Sukhyani requests a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 that Sukhyani has previously demonstrated to ICE's satisfaction that there is no significant likelihood of his removal in the reasonably foreseeable future ("NSLRRFF").

89. Sukhyani requests a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 that ICE did not rebut Sukhyani's prior NSLRRFF showing prior to redetaining him.

90. Sukhyani requests a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 that until ICE rebuts Sukhyani's prior NSLRRFF showing, Sukhyani may not be redetained.

COUNT TWO: VIOLATION OF THE IMMIGRATION &
NATIONALITY ACT – 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(i)(2)-(3)

91. Sukhyani re-alleges and incorporates by reference each allegation contained in ¶¶ 1-85 as if set forth fully herein.

92. Section 1231(a)(1)-(3) of Title 8 of the U.S. Code and 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(i)(2)-(3) governs the detention, release, and redetention of aliens with final orders of removal.

93. Respondents have failed to comply with these provisions prior to redetaining Petitioner after Petitioner's release on an OOS.
94. No independent alternative basis supports Respondents' decision to redetain Petitioner.
95. Petitioner is therefore detained in violation of the INA.

COUNT THREE: VIOLATION OF THE FIFTH AMENDMENT

96. Sukhyani re-alleges and incorporates by reference each allegation contained in ¶¶ 1-85 as if set forth fully herein.
97. The Fifth Amendment Due Process Clause protects against arbitrary detention and requires that detention be reasonably related to its purpose and accompanied by adequate procedures to ensure that detention is serving its legitimate goals. It further requires that detention cease when a noncitizen has established to the government's satisfaction that there is no significant likelihood of removal in the reasonably foreseeable future after the noncitizen has been ordered removed and has served six months in post-removal-order custody.
98. Sukhyani is no longer subject to mandatory custody under the Immigration & Nationality Act. He has served more than six months in civil immigration detention. In order to terminate his prior detention, he established to the government's satisfaction that there was no significant likelihood of removal in the reasonably foreseeable future. The government has not rebutted this with credible evidence. The government does not presently have a travel document for Sukhyani, and the government is not allowed to deport Sukhyani to his home country of Pakistan.

There are no new circumstances that otherwise justify Sukhyani's redetention. Thus, Respondents have violated Sukhyani's Fifth Amendment guarantee of due process.

99. Respondents have also independently violated Sukhyani's Fifth Amendment due process right by incarcerating him to punish him and to otherwise send a message to similarly situated individuals that they must leave the United States to avoid a similar fate.

COUNT FOUR: VIOLATION OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES ACT – CONTRARY TO LAW AND ARBITRARY AND CAPRICIOUS AGENCY POLICY

100. Sukhyani re-alleges and incorporates by reference each allegation contained in ¶¶ 1-85 as if set forth fully herein.
101. The APA provides that a “reviewing court shall . . . hold unlawful and set aside agency action, findings, and conclusions found to be . . . arbitrary and capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law.” 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(A).
102. Respondents have failed to articulate any reasoned explanation for redetaining Petitioner.
103. Respondents have failed to articulate any reasoned explanation for deviating from or otherwise ignoring or failing to comply with the plain language of 8 C.F.R. § 241.13(i)(2)-(3).
104. Respondents' decisions, which represent changes in the agencies' policies and positions, have considered factors that Congress did not intend to be considered, have entirely failed to consider important aspects of the case, and have offered explanations for their decisions that run counter to the evidence before the agencies.

105. Respondents' decision to redetain Petitioner is arbitrary, capricious, and not in accordance with law, and as such, it violates the APA. See 5 U.S.C. § 706(2).

relating to the proposed country of removal with a right to an administrative appeal to the Board of Immigration Appeals.

13. Grant Sukhyani reasonable attorney fees and costs pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(A).
14. Grant all further relief this Court deems just and proper.
