CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:25-cv-304

PAMELA BONDI, et al.,
in their official capacities,
Respondents.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 2243

Before the Court is Petitioner Enrique C.M.’s “Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus” (Dkt. No. 1). Petitioner, a citizen of Mexico, claims his continued detention violates his statutory rights under the Immigration and Nationality Act, and he requests relief pursuant to “the Court’s judgment in Maldonado Bautista.” Id. at 6.

Petitioner’s allegations raise a genuine question as to whether his continued detention violates federal law and the U.S. Constitution. Because it does not plainly appear that Petitioner is not entitled to the requested relief, the Court must “forthwith award the writ [of habeas corpus] or issue an order directing the respondent to show cause why the writ should not be granted[.]” 28 U.S.C. § 2243.

Accordingly, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2243, Respondents are ORDERED to show cause why the writ of habeas corpus should not be granted no later than 20 days after service upon Respondents of this § 2241 petition. If Petitioner chooses to file a reply to Respondents’ response to this order, Petitioner must do so no later than 15 days after receiving Respondents’ response.

At this time, the Court finds good cause exists to forego setting a hearing until the issues in the case are fully briefed.

¹ Due to significant privacy concerns in immigration cases and noting that judicial opinions are not subject to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5.2, any opinion, order, judgment, or other disposition in this case will refer to the petitioner only by first name and last initial.

Signed on December 8, 2025.
