

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

Edgar Geovanny Chicaiza Dutan,

Willian Patricio Toalombo Yanchaliquin,

Petitioners,

v.

25-4640

Pamela Bondi, Attorney General,

Kristi Noem, Secretary, U.S. Department of Homeland Security,

Department of Homeland Security,

Todd M. Lyons, Acting Director of
Immigration and Customs Enforcement,

Immigration and Customs Enforcement,

Daren K. Margolin, Director for Executive
Office for Immigration Review,

Executive Office for Immigration Review,

David Easterwood, Acting Director, St. Paul
Field Office, Immigration and Customs Enforcement, and,

Ryan Shea, Sheriff of Freeborn County.

VERIFIED PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

INTRODUCTION

1. Respondents are detaining Petitioners, Mr. Edgar Geovanny Chicaiza Dutan (“Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan”) and Mr. Willian Patricio Toalombo Yanchaliquin (“Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin”) in violation of law.
2. Respondents are detaining Petitioners and improperly denying them access to a bond hearing to which they are entitled under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a).
3. The continued detention of Petitioners, absent a bond hearing, serves no legitimate purpose.
4. To remedy this unlawful detention, Petitioners seek declaratory relief and a writ of habeas corpus in the form of an order to hold a bond hearing pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a) within seven days.
5. Pending the adjudication of their petition, Petitioners seek an order restraining the Respondents from transferring them to a location where Petitioners cannot reasonably consult with counsel, such a location to be construed as any location outside of the geographic jurisdiction of the day-to-day operations of U.S. Customs and Immigration’s (“ICE”) St. Paul Office of Enforcement and Removal Operations in the State of Minnesota.
6. Pending the adjudication of this Petition, Petitioners also respectfully request that Respondents be ordered to provide seventy-two (72) hour notice of any movement of Petitioners.

7. Petitioners request the same opportunity to be heard in a meaningful manner, at a meaningful time, and thus requests 72-hours-notice prior to any removal or movement of Petitioners away from the State of Minnesota.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question), § 1651 (All Writs Act), and § 2241 (habeas corpus); Art. I, § 9, cl. 2 of the U.S. Constitution (“Suspension Clause”); 5 U.S.C. § 702 (Administrative Procedure Act); and 28 U.S.C. § 2201 (Declaratory Judgment Act). This action further arises under the Constitution of the United States and the Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”).
9. Because Petitioners seek to challenge their custody as a violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States, jurisdiction is proper in this court.
10. Federal district courts have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 to hear habeas petitions by noncitizens challenging the lawfulness or constitutionality of their detention by DHS. Demore v. Kim, 538 U.S. 510, 516–17 (2003); Jennings v. Rodriguez, 138 S. Ct. 830, 839–41 (2018); Nielsen v. Preap, 139 S. Ct. 954, 961–63 (2019); Sopo v. U.S. Attorney Gen., 825 F.3d 1199, 1209-12 (11th Cir. 2016).

11. Federal district courts have jurisdiction to enforce 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)(2). This statute, 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)(2), entitles Petitioners to a bond hearing in which an immigration judge may determine their eligibility for release from custody.
12. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 USC §§ 1391(b), (e)(1)(B), and 2241(d) because Petitioners are detained within this District. Petitioners are currently detained at the Freeborn County Jail in Albert Lea, Minnesota. Venue is also proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e)(1)(A) because Respondents are operating in this district.

PARTIES

13. Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan is a citizen of Ecuador. Prior to his detention, he was residing in Minnesota. He is not an arriving alien, nor is he seeking admission.
14. Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan is currently in Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) custody at the Freeborn County Jail in Albert Lea, Minnesota.
15. Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin is a citizen of Ecuador. Prior to his detention, he was residing in Minnesota. He is not an arriving alien, nor is he seeking admission.

16. Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin is currently in Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) custody at the Freeborn County Jail in Albert Lea, Minnesota.
17. Respondent Pamela Bondi is being sued in her official capacity as the Attorney General of the United States and the head of the Department of Justice, which encompasses the Board of Immigration Appeals (“BIA”) and the immigration judges through the Executive Office for Immigration Review (“EOIR”). Attorney General Bondi shares responsibility for implementation and enforcement of the immigration detention statutes, along with Respondent Noem. Attorney General Bondi is a legal custodian of Petitioners.
18. Respondent Kristi Noem is being sued in her official capacity as the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. In this capacity, Secretary Noem is responsible for the administration of the immigration laws pursuant to § 103(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”), 8 U.S.C. § 1103(a), routinely transacts business in the District of Minnesota, supervises the St. Paul ICE Field Office, and is legally responsible for pursuing Petitioners’ detention and removal. As such, Respondent Noem is a legal custodian of Petitioners.
19. Respondent Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is the federal agency responsible for implementing and enforcing the INA, including the detention and removal of noncitizens. As such, Respondent DHS is a legal custodian of Petitioners.

20. Respondent Daren K. Margolin is the Director of EOIR and has ultimate responsibility for overseeing the operation of the immigration courts and the BIA, including bond hearings. He is sued in his official capacity.
21. Respondent Executive Office for Immigration Review (“EOIR”) is the adjudicative authority with jurisdiction over the removal and bond cases of Petitioners. Its authority includes individuals detained in Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, and South Dakota. This district is known as the Fort Snelling district.
22. Respondent Todd M. Lyons is the Acting Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement and is sued in his official capacity. Respondent Lyons is responsible for Petitioners’ detention. As such, Respondent Lyons is a legal custodian of Petitioners.
23. Respondent Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) is the subagency within the Department of Homeland Security responsible for implementing and enforcing the Immigration & Nationality Act, including the detention of noncitizens. As such, Respondent ICE is a legal custodian of Petitioners.
24. Respondent David Easterwood is being sued in his official capacity as the Acting Field Office Director for the St. Paul Field Office for ICE within DHS.

In that capacity, Field Director Easterwood has supervisory authority over the ICE agents responsible for detaining Petitioners. The address for the St. Paul Field Office is 1 Federal Drive, Fort Snelling, Minnesota 55111. As such, Respondent Easterwood is a legal custodian of Petitioners.

25. Respondent Sheriff Ryan Shea is being sued in his official capacity as the Sheriff responsible for the Freeborn County Jail. Because Petitioners are detained in the Freeborn County Jail, Respondent has immediate day-to-day control over Petitioners.

EXHAUSTION

26. ICE asserts authority to detain Petitioners pursuant to the mandatory detention provisions of 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(a). No statutory requirement of exhaustion applies to Petitioners' challenge to the lawfulness of their detention. See, e.g., Araujo-Cortes v. Shanahan, 35 F. Supp. 3d 533, 538 (S.D.N.Y. 2014) ("There is no statutory requirement that a habeas petitioner exhaust his administrative remedies before challenging his immigration detention."); Rodriguez v. Bostock, No. 3:25-CV-05240-TMC, 2025 WL 1193850, at *11 (W.D. Wash. Apr. 24, 2025) (citing Marroquin Ambriz v. Barr, 420 F. Supp. 3d 953, 962 (N.D. Cal. 2019) ("this Court 'follows the vast majority of other cases which have waived exhaustion based on irreparable injury when an individual has been detained for months without a bond hearing, and where several additional months may pass before the BIA renders a decision on a pending appeal.”); Gomes v. Hyde, No. 1:25-CV-11571-JEK, 2025 WL 1869299, at *5 (D. Mass. July 7, 2025) ((citing Portela-Gonzalez v. Sec’y of the Navy, 109 F.3d 74, 77 (1st Cir. 1997) (quoting McCarthy v. Madigan, 503 U.S. 140, 146 (1992))).

27. Prudential exhaustion is not required when to do so would be futile or “the administrative body . . . has . . . predetermined the issue before it.” McCarthy v. Madigan, 503 U.S. 140, 148 (1992), superseded by statute on other grounds as stated in Woodford v. Ngo, 548 U.S. 81 (2006).
28. Any bond request or appeal to the Board of Immigration Appeals is futile. Respondents’ new policy was issued “in coordination with DOJ,” which oversees the immigration courts. Until November 2025, the Board’s published decision in Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I. & N. Dec. 216 (BIA 2025), bound the immigration court and erroneously denied many aliens access to a bond hearing.
29. Petitioner Chicaiza Dután entered the United States without inspection, was not apprehended on arrival, and is not subject to detention under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c), § 1225(b)(1), or § 1231.
30. Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin entered the United States without inspection, was not apprehended on arrival, and is not subject to detention under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c), § 1225(b)(1), or § 1231. Respondents released him under his own recognizance.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS & PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan

31. Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan is a native and citizen of Ecuador.
32. Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan entered the United States without inspection in or around February 2019.
33. Respondents did not encounter Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan at the time of his entry.
34. On December 13, 2025, Respondents encountered Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan at a housing construction site in Chanhassen, Minnesota, in subzero temperatures.
35. Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan was trapped on a roof at the construction site for an extended period of time in frigid temperatures before Respondents eventually brought him down, took him away in an ambulance, and placed him in ICE custody.¹

¹ Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan's detention was widely reported in the news. See, e.g., Feven Gerezgiher, ICE agents corner Chanhassen construction workers amid frigid temperatures, MPR NEWS (Dec. 13, 2025), <https://www.mprnews.org/story/2025/12/13/ice-agents-corner-chanhassen-construction-workers-amid-frigid-temperatures>; Stephen Swanson & Frankie McLister, ICE agents surround Chanhassen construction site amid subzero temps,

36. Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan has no pending criminal charges.
37. Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan has no criminal history that subjects him to mandatory custody under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c).
38. Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan is presently held in ICE custody at the Freeborn County Jail in Albert Lea, Minnesota.

Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin

39. Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin is a native and citizen of Ecuador.
40. On or around June 2023, Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin entered the United States without inspection.
41. Respondents encountered Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin around June 2023.
42. Respondents released Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin from custody under an Order of Release on Recognizance on or around July 2023.
43. Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin has been under supervision and compliant with his supervision.

CBS NEWS (Dec. 13, 2025), <https://www.cbsnews.com/minnesota/news/ice-agents-surround-chanhassen-construction-site/>; Kilat Fitzgerald & FOX 9 Staff, Chanhassen ICE raid: Crowd formed as agents attempted to carry out arrests, FOX 9 KMSP (Dec. 13, 2025), <https://www.fox9.com/news/chanhassen-raid-crowd-forms-agents-carry-out-arrests-dec-13>.

44. Respondents served Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin with a Notice to Appear dated August 19, 2023.
45. The Notice to Appear indicates Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin is “an alien present in the United States who has not been admitted or paroled.”
46. Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin submitted a timely application for asylum before the immigration court as part of its ongoing § 1229a proceedings. He has been awaiting a final hearing date.
47. Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin has no pending criminal charges.
48. Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin has no criminal history that subjects him to mandatory custody under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c).
49. Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin is presently held in ICE custody at the Freeborn County Jail in Albert Lea, Minnesota.
50. Respondents, through the Board of Immigration Appeals, issued a precedential decision, binding on lower immigration courts, finding that “Immigration Judges lack authority to hear bond requests or to grant bond to aliens who are present in the United States without admission.” Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I. & N. Dec. 216 (BIA 2025) on September 5, 2025.
51. Respondents will not provide Petitioners with a bond hearing. Respondents assert that the immigration court lacks the jurisdiction to conduct a bond redetermination hearing under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), citing Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I. & N. Dec. 216 (BIA 2025).

LEGAL FRAMEWORK

52. Removal proceedings are governed under 8 U.S.C. § 1229a, which provides that “[a]n immigration judge shall conduct proceedings for deciding the inadmissibility or deportability of an alien,” 8 U.S.C. § 1229a(a)(1) and that “[u]nless otherwise specified in this chapter, a proceeding under this section shall be the sole and exclusive procedure for determining whether an alien may be admitted to the United States.” 8 U.S.C. § 1229a(a)(3).
53. To initiate removal proceedings, “written notice (in this section referred to as a ‘notice to appear’) shall be given in person to the alien (or, if personal service is not practicable, through service by mail to the alien or to the alien’s counsel of record, if any).” 8 U.S.C. § 1229(a)(1).
54. The “[a]pprehension and detention of aliens” is governed under 8 U.S.C. § 1226, which provides that:

On a warrant issued by the Attorney General, an alien may be arrested and detained pending a decision on whether the alien is to be removed from the United States. Except as provided in subsection (c) and pending such decision, the Attorney General ... may release the alien on bond of at least $1,500 with security approved by, and containing conditions prescribed by, the Attorney General.

8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)(2)(A) (emphasis added).

55. The regulations provide that, to detain a person under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), the Department must issue an I-200 to take a person into custody; and that such a person is subject to release on bond. The regulation states:

(b) Warrant of arrest—

(1) In general. At the time of issuance of the notice to appear, or at any time thereafter and up to the time removal proceedings are completed, the respondent may be arrested and taken into custody under the authority of Form I-200, Warrant of Arrest. A warrant of arrest may be issued only by those immigration officers listed in § 287.5(e)(2) of this chapter and may be served only by those immigration officers listed in § 287.5(e)(3) of this chapter.

(2) If, after the issuance of a warrant of arrest, a determination is made not to serve it, any officer authorized to issue such warrant may authorize its cancellation.

(c) Custody issues and release procedures—

(1) In general.

(i) After the expiration of the Transition Period Custody Rules (TPCR) set forth in section 303(b)(3) of Div. C of Pub.L. 104-208, no alien described in section 236(c)(1) of the Act may be released from custody during removal proceedings except pursuant to section 236(c)(2) of the Act.

8 C.F.R. § 236.1(b).

56. 8 U.S.C. 1226(a) is the default detention authority, and it applies to anyone who is detained “pending a decision on whether the [noncitizen] is to be removed from the United States.” 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a).
57. 8 U.S.C. 1226(a) applies to those who are “already in the country” and are detained “pending the outcome of removal proceedings.” Jennings v. Rodriguez, 583 U.S. 281, 289 (2018).
58. 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a) applies not just to persons who are deportable, but also to noncitizens who are inadmissible. Specifically, while § 1226(a) provides the general right to seek release, § 1226(c) carves out discrete categories of noncitizens from being released—including certain categories of inadmissible noncitizens—and subjects those limited classes of inadmissible aliens instead to mandatory detention. See, e.g., 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c)(1)(A), (C).
59. The Laken Riley Act (LRA) added language to § 1226 that directly references people who have entered without inspection or who are present without authorization. See LAKEN RILEY ACT, PL 119-1, January 29, 2025, 139 Stat 3. Pursuant to these amendments, people charged as inadmissible under § 1182(a)(6)(A) (the inadmissibility ground for entry without inspection) or (a)(7)(A) (the inadmissibility ground for lacking valid documentation to enter the United States) and who have been arrested, charged with, or convicted of certain crimes are subject to § 1226(c)'s mandatory detention provisions. See 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c)(1)(E).

60. By including such individuals under § 1226(c), Congress reaffirmed that § 1226 covers persons charged under § 1182(a)(6)(A) or (a)(7). Generally speaking, grounds of deportability (found in 8 U.S.C. § 1227) apply to people like lawful permanent residents, who have been lawfully admitted and continue to have lawful status, while grounds of inadmissibility (found in § 1182) apply to those who have not yet been admitted to the United States. See, e.g., Barton v. Barr, 590 U.S. 222, 234 (2020) (“specific exceptions’ to a statute’s applicability, it ‘proves’ that absent those exceptions, the statute generally applies.”) (quoting Shady Grove Orthopedic Assocs., P.A. v. Allstate Ins. Co., 559 U.S. 393, 400 (2010)).
61. The [i]nspection by immigration officers [and] expedited removal of inadmissible arriving aliens, [and] referral for hearing” is governed under 8 U.S.C. § 1225, which provides that “[a]n alien present in the United States who has not been admitted or who arrives in the United States (whether or not at a designated port of arrival and including an alien who is brought to the United States after having been interdicted in international or United States waters) shall be deemed for purposes of this chapter an applicant for admission.” 8 U.S.C. § 1225(a)(1).

62. “All aliens (including alien crewmen) who are applicants for admission or otherwise seeking admission or readmission to or transit through the United States shall be inspected by immigration officers.” 8 U.S.C. § 1225(a)(3).
63. “If an immigration officer determines that an alien ... who is arriving in the United States ... is inadmissible under section 1182(a)(6)(C) or 1182(a)(7) of this title, the officer shall order the alien removed from the United States without further hearing or review unless the alien indicates either an intention to apply for asylum.” 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1)(A)(i) (emphasis added).
64. “If the officer determines at the time of the interview that an alien has a credible fear of persecution ... the alien shall be detained for further consideration of the application for asylum.” 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1)(B)(ii).
65. “[I]n the case of an alien who is an applicant for admission, if the examining immigration officer determines that an alien seeking admission is not clearly and beyond a doubt entitled to be admitted, the alien shall be detained for a proceeding under section 1229a of this title.” 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(A) (emphasis added).
66. 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)’s mandatory detention scheme applies “at the Nation’s borders and ports of entry, where the Government must determine whether an alien seeking to enter the country is admissible.” Jennings v. Rodriguez, 583 U.S. 281, 287 (2018).

67. “Read most naturally, §§ 1225(b)(1) and (b)(2) mandate detention of applicants for admission until certain proceedings have concluded. Until that point, nothing in the statutory text imposes a limit on the length of detention, and neither provision says anything about bond hearings.” Jennings v. Rodriguez, 583 U.S. 281, 282 (2018).
68. By regulation, “[a]rriving alien means an applicant for admission coming or attempting to come into the United States at a port-of-entry, or an alien seeking transit through the United States at a port-of-entry, or an alien interdicted in international or United States waters and brought into the United States by any means, whether or not to a designated port-of-entry, and regardless of the means of transport. An arriving alien remains an arriving alien even if paroled pursuant to section 212(d)(5) of the Act, and even after any such parole is terminated or revoked.” 8 C.F.R. § 1.2.
69. “[A]n immigration judge may not redetermine conditions of custody imposed by the Service with respect to ... [a]rriving aliens in removal proceedings, including aliens paroled after arrival pursuant to section 212(d)(5) of the Act.” 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(h)(2)(i)(B).
70. As such, arriving aliens are not entitled to bond, nor, arguably, are aliens falling within the confines of 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b).

71. Congress did not intend to subject all people present in the United States after an unlawful entry to mandatory detention if arrested. Prior to Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigration Responsibility Act (“IIRIRA”), which codified both 8 U.S.C. § 1225 and 8 U.S.C. § 1226, aliens present without admission were not necessarily subject to mandatory detention. See 8 U.S.C. § 1252(a)(1) (1994) (authorizing Attorney General to arrest noncitizens for deportability proceedings, which applied to all persons within the United States).
72. In articulating the impact of IIRIRA, Congress noted that the new § 1226(a) merely “restates the current provisions in section 242(a)(1) regarding the authority of the Attorney General to arrest, detain, and release on bond a[] [noncitizen] who is not lawfully in the United States.” H.R. Rep. No. 104-469, pt. 1, at 229 (emphasis added); see also H.R. Rep. No. 104-828, at 210 (same).
73. Respondents’ longstanding practice of considering people like Petitioner as detained under § 1226(a) further supports reading the statute to apply to them. Typically, DHS issues a person Form I-286, Notice of Custody Determination, or Form I-200, Warrant for Arrest of Alien, stating that the person is detained under § 1226(a) (§ 236 of the INA).
74. As these arrest documents demonstrate, DHS has long acknowledged that § 1226(a) applies to individuals who entered the United States unlawfully, but who were later apprehended within the country's borders long after their entry. Such a longstanding and consistent interpretation "is powerful evidence that interpreting the Act in [this] way is natural and reasonable." Abramski v. United States, 573 U.S. 169, 203 (2014) (Scalia, J., dissenting); see also Bankamerica Corp. v. United States, 462 U.S. 122, 130 (1983) (relying in part on "over 60 years" of government's interpretation and practice to reject its new proposed interpretation of the law at issue).

75. EOIR regulations have long recognized that Petitioners are subject to detention under § 1226(a). Nothing in 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19—the regulatory basis for the immigration court's jurisdiction—provides otherwise.
76. In fact, EOIR confirmed that § 1226(a) applies to Petitioners when it promulgated the regulations governing immigration courts and implementing § 1226 decades ago. At that time, EOIR explained that "[d]espite being applicants for admission, [noncitizens] who are present without having been admitted or paroled (formerly referred to as [noncitizens] who entered without inspection) will be eligible for bond and bond redetermination." Inspection and Expedited Removal of Aliens; Detention and Removal of Aliens; Conduct of Removal Proceedings; Asylum Procedures, 62 FR 10312, 10323, 62 FR 10312-01, 10323.

77. Almost every court that considered these questions has ruled contrary to Respondents' interpretation of the law. See, e.g., Belsai v. Bondi, 2025 WL 2802947 (D. Minn. Oct. 1, 2025); A.A. v. Olson, 2025 WL 2886729 (D. Minn. Oct. 8, 2025); J.O.E. v. Bondi, 2025 WL 2466670 (D. Minn. Aug. 27, 2025); Maldonado v. Olson, 2025 WL 2374411 (D. Minn. Aug. 15, 2025); Ferrera Bejarano v. Bondi, 25-cv-03236 (D. Minn. Aug 18, 2025); Aguilar Vazquez v. Bondi, 25-cv-03162 (D. Minn. Aug 19, 2025); Tiburcio Garcia v. Bondi, 25-CV-03219 (D. Minn. Aug. 29, 2025); Herrera Avila v. Bondi, 25-cv-03741 (D. Minn. Oct. 21, 2025).

REMEDY

78. Respondents' detention of Petitioners under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2) violates the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution. Petitioners' ongoing detention violates the Fifth Amendment's guarantee that "[n]o person shall be . . . deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law." U.S. Const., Amend. 5.
79. Due Process requires that detention "bear [] a reasonable relation to the purpose for which the individual [was] committed." Zadvydas, v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 690 (2001) (citing Jackson v. Ethiopianians, 406 U.S. 715, 738 (1972)).

80. Petitioners seek immediate release to the extent that Respondents justify Petitioners' detention on 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2), which plainly does not apply to them.
81. Although neither the Constitution nor the federal habeas statutes delineate the necessary content of habeas relief, I.N.S. v. St. Cyr, 533 U.S. 289, 337 (2001) (Scalia, J., dissenting) (“A straightforward reading of [the Suspension Clause] discloses that it does not guarantee any content to . . . the writ of habeas corpus”), implicit in habeas jurisdiction is the power to order release. Boumediene v. Bush, 553 U.S. 723, 779 (2008) (“[T]he habeas court must have the power to order the conditional release of an individual unlawfully detained.”).
82. The Supreme Court has noted that the typical remedy for unlawful detention is release from detention. See, e.g., Munaf v. Geren, 553 U.S. 674 (2008) (“The typical remedy for [unlawful executive detention] is, of course, release.”); see also Wajda v. US, 64 F.3d 385, 389 (8th Cir. 1995) (stating the function of habeas relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 “is to obtain release from the duration or fact of present custody.”).
83. That courts with habeas jurisdiction have the power to order outright release is justified by the fact that, “habeas corpus is, at its core, an equitable remedy,” Schlup v. Delo, 513 U.S. 298, 319 (1995), and that as an equitable remedy, federal courts “[have] broad discretion in conditioning a judgment granting habeas relief [and are] authorized . . . to dispose of habeas corpus matters ‘as law and justice require.’” Hilton v. Braunskill, 481 U.S. 770, 775 (1987), quoting 28 U.S.C. § 2243. An order of release falls under court’s broad discretion to fashion relief. See, e.g., Jimenez v. Cronen, 317 F. Supp. 3d 626, 636 (D. Mass. 2018) (“Habeas corpus is an equitable remedy. The court has the discretion to fashion relief that is fair in the circumstances, including to order an alien’s release.”).

84. Alternatively, Petitioners request a constitutionally adequate custody redetermination hearing in which they are not erroneously treated as detained pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2) and are instead treated as a detainee under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a) within seven calendar days.

CAUSE OF ACTION

COUNT ONE: VIOLATION OF THE IMMIGRATION & NATIONALITY ACT – 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)

85. Petitioners re-allege and incorporate by reference each allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.
86. Section 1225 of Title 8 of the U.S. Code governs aliens arriving at the border and seeking admission from outside the country. See 8 U.S.C. § 1225.
87. 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(A), specifically, cannot apply as it only applies to those “applicants for admission” who are “seeking admission” at the time of detention and Petitioner was not “seeking admission” at the time he was detained, nor is he doing so now. 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(A).

88. As Respondents assert authority to detain Petitioners under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(A), and no such authority exists under that provision, Petitioners request that they be immediately released.

COUNT TWO: VIOLATION OF THE IMMIGRATION & NATIONALITY ACT – 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)

89. Petitioners re-allege and incorporate by reference each allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.
90. Section 1226 of Title 8 of the U.S. Code governs the detention of aliens pending a determination of removal from the United States.
91. Such an alien “may [be] release[d] ... on bond of at least $1,500.” 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)(2)(A).
92. The denial of Petitioners’ bond eligibility is in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)(2)(A), which specifically makes Petitioners eligible for bond.
93. If Respondents do not release Petitioners without any conditions, Petitioners requests that they be afforded the opportunity to present their case for release in a bond hearing pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)(2)(A).

COUNT THREE: DECLARATORY RELIEF

94. Petitioners re-allege and incorporate by reference each allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

95. Petitioners request a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 that they are eligible for release from Respondents' custody.
96. Petitioners request a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 that Petitioners are not subject to detention under to 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2) and must be released unless Respondents assert authority to detain them under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c).
97. In the event Respondents assert that Petitioners are detained under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), Petitioners request a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 that Petitioners are eligible for release from Respondents' custody pursuant to a bond as set forth at 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)(1).

COUNT FOUR: VIOLATION OF THE FIFTH AMENDMENT

98. Petitioners re-allege and incorporate by reference each allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.
99. The Fifth Amendment Due Process Clause protects against arbitrary detention and requires that detention be reasonably related to its purpose and accompanied by adequate procedures to ensure that detention is serving its legitimate goals.
100. Petitioners are not subject to mandatory custody under the Immigration & Nationality Act and are therefore entitled to a bond hearing in which a neutral arbiter may determine the justification for their continued detention under 8

U.S.C. § 1226(a)(2)(A), the denial of which constitutes a violation of the Fifth Amendment's guarantee of due process.

COUNT FIVE: VIOLATION OF 8 C.F.R. §§ 236.1, 1236.1 AND 1003.19 - UNLAWFUL DENIAL OF RELEASE ON BOND

101. Petitioners re-allege and incorporate by reference each allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.
102. In 1997, after Congress amended the INA through IIRIRA, EOIR and the then-Immigration and Naturalization Service issued an interim rule to interpret and apply IIRIRA. Specifically, under the heading of “Apprehension, Custody, and Detention of [Noncitizens],” the agencies explained that “[d]espite being applicants for admission, [noncitizens] who are present without having been admitted or paroled (formerly referred to as [noncitizens] who entered without inspection) will be eligible for bond and bond redetermination.” 62 Fed. Reg. at 10323 (emphasis added).
103. The agencies thus made clear that individuals who had entered without inspection were eligible for consideration for bond and bond hearings before immigration courts under 8 U.S.C. § 1226 and its implementing regulations.
104. Nonetheless, DHS and EOIR have adopted a policy and practice of applying § 1225(b)(2) to Petitioners and others in the same position.
105. The application of § 1225(b)(2) to Petitioners unlawfully mandates their continued detention and violates 8 C.F.R. §§ 236.1, 1236.1, and 1003.19.

106. As such, the Court must order the Respondents afford Petitioners a bond hearing to comport with these regulatory requirements.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner Chicaiza Dutan and Petitioner Toalombo Yanchaliquin, ask this Court for the following relief:

1. Assume jurisdiction over this matter.
2. Issue an order restraining Respondents from attempting to move Petitioners from the District of Minnesota during the pendency of this Petition.
3. Issue an order requiring Respondents to provide 72-hour notice of any intended movement of Petitioners.
4. Expedite consideration of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1657 because it is an action brought under 28 U.S.C. § 153.
5. Order Petitioners' immediate release, or, alternatively, order Respondents to hold a bond hearing pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a) within seven days.
6. Declare that Respondents' action is arbitrary and capricious.
7. Declare that Respondents failed to adhere to its regulations.
8. Declare that Petitioners' detention absent a bond hearing violates the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment.
9. Grant Petitioners reasonable attorney fees and costs pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(A).

10. Grant all further relief this Court deems just and proper.
