

I. PARTIES & CUSTODY

1. Petitioner Ahmad Ali Mustafa Alsalahat is currently detained at the Houston Contract Detention Facility (CDF), located at 15850 Export Plaza Drive Houston, Texas 77032. He has been in ICE custody since November of 2025.
2. Respondent Martin Frink in his official capacity as Warden of the Houston Contract Detention Facility (CDF) has refused to effect Petitioner's release from unlawful custody at that facility.
3. Respondent Bret Bradford, in his official capacity as Director of the Houston Field Office of ICE Enforcement and Removal Operations, has refused to effect Petitioner's release from unlawful custody at the Houston Contract Detention Facility (CDF).
4. Respondent Kristi Noem, in her official capacity as Secretary of the United States Department of Homeland Security, has refused to exercise her authority to oversee her department's ICE Enforcement and Removal Operations and thereby effect Petitioner's release from unlawful custody at the Houston Contract Detention Facility (CDF).
5. Respondent Pam Bondi, in her official capacity as Attorney General of the United States, has refused to exercise her authority to oversee her department's ICE Enforcement and Removal Operations and thereby effect Petitioner's release from unlawful custody at the Houston Contract Detention Facility (CDF).

II. JURISDICTION & VENUE

6. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241 to issue writs of habeas corpus when the petitioner is in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States.
7. Venue is proper in this district because Petitioner is detained within this district.

III. EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES

8. Petitioner has exhausted his administrative remedies to the extent required by law.
9. Petitioner has fully cooperated with Respondents and has not delayed or obstructed his detention.
10. Petitioner has requested custody and bond redetermination from the Conroe Immigration Court. On December 2, 2025, that Court denied bond to Petitioner's, citing lack of jurisdiction.
11. Petitioner's only remedy is by way of this judicial action.

IV. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

12. Petitioner is a thirty-three male native and citizen of Jordan. See attached, Exhibit A: Petitioner's Identification.
13. Petitioner entered the United States on or about April 10, 2024, near Otay Mesa, California, after fleeing Jordan to escape threats of violence directed against him. See attached, Exhibit B: Petitioner's Bond Motion. Petitioner fears that, if returned to Jordan, he would face serious harm and substantial risk of persecution or torture on account of his religion. See attached Exhibit E: I-589 Application.

14. On November 15, 2024, Petitioner properly filed his Form I-589, Application for Asylum and Withholding of Removal, which the Immigration Court accepted and acknowledged confirming his lawful presence and continued protection from removal while the application is pending. See attached Exhibit E: I-589 Application.
15. Thereafter, Petitioner filed his Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, based on his pending asylum application. USCIS approved his work authorization, issuing an EAD valid through June 9, 2030.
16. On November 4, 2025, Petitioner was detained by ICE officers and charged with being an alien present in the United States without being admitted or paroled. See attached, Exhibit B: supra.
17. On April 11, 2024, Petitioner was entered into non-detained removal proceedings before the Ohio Immigration Court Immigration Court. See attached, Exhibit C: Notice to Appear.
18. On November 26, 2025, Petitioner filed a motion for a bond redetermination hearing. See attached, Exhibit B: supra.
19. On December 2, 2025, the Immigration Judge denied Petitioner's bond redetermination because the court did not have jurisdiction to set a bond. No hearing was given. See attached, Exhibit D: Order of the Immigration Judge.

20. The government has not been able to articulate any meaningful reason why Petitioner should continue to remain in detention pending the outcome of his removal proceedings.
21. Petitioner, through Counsel, now submits the present Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus to this Honorable Court, and respectfully requests the Court to order Respondents to effect his immediate release.

V. LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR RELIEF SOUGHT

22. Under U.S. Code 28 § 2241, writs of habeas corpus may be granted by the district courts on behalf of a prisoner in several instances, including when they are (1) “in custody under or by the authority of the United States or is committed for trial before some court thereof,” (3) “in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws and treaties of the United States,” and (4) when they, “being a citizen of a foreign state and domiciled therein [are] in custody for an act done or omitted under any alleged right, title, authority, privilege, protection, or exemption claimed under the commission, order or sanction of any foreign state, or under color thereof, the validity and effect of which depend upon the law of nations[.]”
23. Courts have consistently recognized “habeas corpus as an appropriate vehicle through which noncitizens may challenge the fact of their civil immigration detention.” Vazquez Barrera v. Wolf, 455 F. Supp. 3d 330, 336 (S.D. Tex. 2020) (citing Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. at 688 (ruling on merits of habeas petition challenging validity of indefinite mandatory detention)).

VI. CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT ONE:

RESPONDENTS HAVE UNLAWFULLY DETAINED PETITIONER IN VIOLATION OF THE IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION ACT.

24. Petitioner alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 22 above.
25. Petitioner is currently in removal proceedings before the Conroe Immigration Court, and there has been no final order of removal issued against him. Respondents lack statutory authority to detain him while his removal proceedings are pending, and no removal order has been issued.
26. Petitioner poses no risk of danger to the community. In the one year since Petitioner came to the United States, he has never been charged with a crime, nor has he demonstrated any conduct whatsoever indicating that he is a threat to the United States or otherwise eligible for deportation.
27. Therefore, Petitioner merits immediate release because there has been no final order of removal issued against him, and the government cannot articulate any meaningful reason why she should continue to remain in detention while his removal proceedings are pending.

COUNT TWO:

RESPONDENTS HAVE UNLAWFULLY DETAINED PETITIONER IN VIOLATION OF CONSTITUTIONAL DUE PROCESS

28. Petitioner alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 26 above.
29. Petitioner's continued detention violates his right to substantive and procedural due process guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

30. Petitioner is unlawfully in custody pursuant to INA § 241(a)(6), 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(6) (2018) (“Section 241”). Under Zadvydas, that provision prohibits the indefinite detention of noncitizens who (i) cannot be repatriated in the reasonably foreseeable future, and (ii) pose no threat to the community. Any such detention is unconstitutional. See Zadvydas, 533 U.S. at 689, emphasis added (“In our view, the statute [Section 241], read in light of the Constitution's demands, limits an alien’s post-removal-period detention to a period reasonably necessary to bring about that alien’s removal from the United States. It does not permit indefinite detention.”).
31. The Fifth Amendment's Due Process Clause prohibits the government from detaining individuals without legal authority.
32. Under 8 U.S.C. § 1231(a)(1), detention during the removal period is only authorized after a removal order becomes "final."
33. As stated above, Petitioner's removal proceedings remain pending. The removal order is not final and cannot serve as a basis for continued detention.
34. Furthermore, under Zadvydas, a non-citizen petitioner is not barred from seeking a writ of habeas corpus as relief for indefinite detention when there has been no final order issued. See Zadvydas, 533 U.S. at 688 (“The aliens here, however, do not seek review of the Attorney General's exercise of discretion; rather, they challenge the extent of the Attorney General's authority under the post-removal-period detention statute. And the extent of that authority is not a matter of discretion . . . [therefore we] conclude habeas corpus proceedings remain available. . . .”).

35. Therefore, this petition is not barred, as the Petitioner is not seeking to collaterally attack the final removal order, because there is no final order yet issued by the Court.

36. Petitioner's continued detention lacks statutory authority and violates his right to substantive due process under the Constitution. Therefore, he should be immediately released from custody.

VII. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Honorable Court IMMEDIATELY issue a temporary restraining order:

1. Directing Respondents to immediately release Petitioner from custody;
2. Restraining and enjoining Respondent, their agents, employees, and successors from removing Petitioner from the United States;
3. Directing Respondent to take all necessary steps to halt any removal preparations;
4. Requiring Respondent to notify all relevant personnel that Petitioner shall not be removed;
5. Set an expedited hearing on Petitioner's motion for preliminary injunction;
6. After hearing, issue a preliminary injunction maintaining the relief requested above during the pendency of this action;
7. Waive or set security in a nominal amount;
8. Award attorney's fees and costs; and
9. Grant such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Petitioner requests that this Court order the Immigration Judge to conduct a bond hearing within 7 days governed under INA §1226(a) in the alternative, if immediate release is not possible.
