PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS AND REQUEST FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WITHIN THREE DAYS

1 INTRODUCTION

2 1. Petitioner Miguel Angel Soria Salinas respectfully submits this Petition for Writ of 3 Habeas Corpus challenging his continued detention by the Department of Homeland Security
4 (“DHS”). Petitioner is a Mexican national who entered the United States without inspection in or 5 about 1999 and has resided in the United States continuously since that time. He was 6 apprehended in the interior of the United States, long after his entry, and is currently detained at 7 the Otay Mesa Detention Center.

8 2. Petitioner is detained based on DHS’s application of an interpretation of the 9 Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”), articulated in Matter of Yajure-Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec.
10 216 (BIA 2025), under which DHS has treated certain noncitizens apprehended in the interior of 11 the United States long after entry as “applicants for admission” subject to detention under INA §
12 235(b)(2)(A). As applied in this case, that custody classification deprives Petitioner of eligibility
13 for an individualized bond hearing under INA § 236(a).

14 3. Numerous federal courts have rejected DHS’s reliance on INA § 235(b) to detain
15 individuals apprehended in the interior of the United States long after entry and have concluded
16 that such custody, if lawful at all, must proceed under INA § 236(a), which provides for 17 eligibility for an individualized bond hearing. These decisions reflect a consistent interpretation
18 of the statutory framework governing detention following interior arrests.

19 4. Petitioner remains detained without access to an individualized bond hearing under 20 INA § 236(a). He does not challenge the initiation of removal proceedings or the merits of 21 removability. Rather, this petition challenges the legal basis of his detention—specifically,
22 DHS’s classification of his custody under INA § 235(b) rather than INA § 236(a).

23 5. Because Matter of Yajure-Hurtado remains binding agency precedent and Petitioner
24 has not received an individualized custody determination under INA § 236(a), judicial 25 intervention is necessary. Petitioner therefore seeks a writ of habeas corpus ordering his release
26 or, in the alternative, an order directing DHS to provide a prompt, individualized custody hearing
27 before a neutral decisionmaker pursuant to INA § 236(a).

1 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2 6. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 because Petitioner is in the custody
3 of the Department of Homeland Security within this District and he challenges the legality of 4 that custody.

5 7. This Court also has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this action arises
6 under the Constitution and laws of the United States, including the Immigration and Nationality
7 Act and the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment.

8 8. Neither 8 U.S.C. § 1252(g) nor § 1252(b)(9) strips this Court of jurisdiction. Section
9 1252(g) bars only challenges to the Attorney General’s discretionary decisions to “commence 10 proceedings, adjudicate cases, or execute removal orders,” not independent challenges to 11 unlawful detention. Likewise, § 1252(b)(9) consolidates review of removal orders in the courts 12 of appeals, but does not foreclose habeas review of detention claims, which are collateral to the 13 removal proceedings.

14 9. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e) because Petitioner is 15 detained at the Otay Mesa Detention Center, which lies within the jurisdiction of this Court.

16 PARTIES

17 10. Petitioner, Miguel Angel Soria Salinas, is a Mexican national detained at the Otay
18 Mesa Detention Center in San Diego, California.

19 11. Respondent Christopher LaRose is the Senior Warden of the Otay Mesa Detention
20 Center.

21 12. Respondent Kristi Noem is the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Homeland
22 Security (DHS).

23 13. Respondent Todd Lyons is the Acting Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs
24 Enforcement (ICE).

25 14. Respondent Patrick Divver is the Director of the San Diego Field Office of U.S.
26 Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

1 15. Respondent Sirce Owen is the Acting Director of the Executive Office for 2 Immigration Review (EOIR).

3 16. Respondent Pamela Bondi is the Attorney General of the United States and the head
4 of the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ).

5 17. All Respondents are named in their official capacities.

6 LEGAL FRAMEWORK

7 18. The Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”), codified at 8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq.,
8 provides multiple detention authorities. For decades, courts, Congress, and agencies have 9 consistently distinguished between two distinct statutory frameworks: INA § 235 (8 U.S.C. §
10 1225), which governs applicants for admission encountered at or near the border, and INA § 236
11 (8 U.S.C. § 1226), which governs the arrest and detention of individuals already present in the 12 United States and placed in removal proceedings. The Supreme Court analyzed the interplay
13 between these provisions in Jennings v. Rodriguez, 583 U.S. 281 (2018).

14 19. Section 1225 provides that, for purposes of initial inspection at the border, “an alien
15 who arrives in the United States or is present in this country but has not been admitted, is treated 16 as an applicant for admission.” Jennings, 583 U.S. at 287 (quoting 8 U.S.C. § 1225(a)(1)). The 17 Court explained that decisions concerning who may enter or remain in the United States
18 “generally begin at the Nation’s borders and ports of entry, where the Government must 19 determine whether an alien seeking to enter the country is admissible.” Id. Section 1225(b) 20 governs this inspection and admission process, applying primarily to individuals encountered at 21 or near the border, subjecting them either to expedited removal under § 1225(b)(1)—which 22 includes a credible-fear process for those expressing an intent to seek asylum—or to detention
23 pending a decision on admission under § 1225(b)(2). Id. at 297; see also Dep’t of Homeland Sec.
24 v. Thuraissigiam, 591 U.S. 103 (2020).

25 20. By contrast, § 1226(a) governs the detention of individuals who entered years ago and 26 were later apprehended in the interior, “pending a decision on whether [they are] to be removed 27 from the United States.” Jennings, 583 U.S. at 303. Unlike § 1225, which applies at the border, §
28

1 1226(a) authorizes the Attorney General to detain or release such individuals on bond or 2 conditional parole, except as provided in subsection (c), which applies only to a narrow category
3 of noncitizens with specified criminal or security-related grounds. Id. at 303, 306. Arrests made
4 pursuant to § 1226(a) are ordinarily executed on administrative warrants, and longstanding
5 regulations confirm that such individuals are eligible for Immigration Judge bond hearings. See 8
6 C.F.R. §§ 236.1(c)(8), 236.1(d)(1), 1236.1(d)(1); 62 Fed. Reg. 10312, 10323 (Mar. 6, 1997).
7 Congress further described § 1226(a) as merely a “restatement” of prior detention authority
8 under former INA § 242(a), confirming its application to interior arrests pending removal. H.R.
9 Rep. No. 104-469, pt. 1, at 229 (1996).

10 21. For decades, individuals who entered without inspection but resided in the United 11 States and were later arrested in the interior were consistently treated as subject to § 1226(a)’s 12 discretionary detention framework. This included those who could not lawfully be placed in 13 expedited removal because they had been continuously present in the United States for more than 14 two years, as required by § 1225(b)(1)(A)(iii)(II).

15 22. Only in 2025 did DHS and the BIA begin advancing, in certain proceedings, a 16 contrary interpretation—asserting that noncitizens who entered without inspection must be 17 treated as subject to detention under § 1225(b)(2). This interpretation represented a departure
18 from decades of agency practice and contradicted settled expectations regarding custody
19 jurisdiction.

20 23. On July 8, 2025, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”), in 21 coordination with the Department of Justice, issued Interim Guidance Regarding Detention
22 Authority for Applicants for Admission. The guidance asserted that noncitizens who entered 23 without inspection were subject to mandatory detention under INA § 235(b)(2)(A), regardless of 24 when or where they were apprehended, including individuals who had resided in the United 25 States for many years.

1 24. The Board of Immigration Appeals later adopted a similar statutory interpretation in 2 Matter of Yajure-Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025).

3 25. In January 2025, Congress reaffirmed that 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), not § 1225(b), governs
4 custody for noncitizens apprehended in the interior. Through the Laken Riley Act of 2025,
5 Congress amended § 1226(c) to add subparagraph (E), extending mandatory detention only to a
6 narrow category of individuals who (i) are inadmissible under § 1182(a)(6)–(7) and (ii) also meet
7 specific criminal-conduct criteria. By creating this limited carve-out, Congress confirmed that §
8 1226(a) remains the general detention framework for interior arrests, and that mandatory
9 detention applies only to the narrow class defined in new § 1226(c)(E). If, as DHS and the BIA
10 now contend, all such individuals were already subject to mandatory detention under § 1225(b)
11 (2), Congress’s amendment would have been superfluous.

12 FACTS

13 26. Petitioner Miguel Angel Soria Salinas is a Mexican national who entered the United 14 States without inspection in or about 1999 and has resided continuously in the United States
15 since that time.

16 27. He is the father of four children who were born in the United States and are United 17 States citizens, three of whom are under the age of twenty-one

18 28. On or about November 4, 2025, Petitioner was arrested by U.S. Immigration and 19 Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) officers in West Valley City, Utah, in the interior of the United 20 States, long after his entry. Petitioner and his brother-in-law had gone to a 7-Eleven store, from 21 which they were followed for approximately two blocks by ICE officers in an unmarked vehicle
22 before initiating a stop.

23 29. Petitioner was thereafter transferred to the Otay Mesa Detention Center and is 24 currently detained pending removal proceedings before the Otay Mesa Immigration Court.

25 30. On September 5, 2025, the Board of Immigration Appeals issued its precedential
26 decision in Matter of Yajure-Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025). In that decision, the Board 27 concluded that noncitizens who entered the United States without inspection are “applicants for 28

1 admission” subject to detention under INA § 235, regardless of the length of time since entry or
2 the presence of family and community ties.

3 31. Following Matter of Yajure-Hurtado, as DHS applies that decision, Immigration
4 Judges lack jurisdiction to conduct custody redetermination hearings for individuals whom DHS
5 classifies as subject to detention under INA § 235.

6 32. On November 25, 2025, the United States District Court for the Central District of 7 California issued an order granting class certification in Lazaro Maldonado Bautista et al. v.
8 Santacruz et al., No. 5:25-cv-01873 (C.D. Cal.). The court certified a class of noncitizens
9 detained by DHS who are classified as subject to detention without bond based on DHS’s
10 application of INA § 235(b) and related agency policy.

11 33. On December 10, 2025, Petitioner, through his immigration attorney, requested an 12 individualized custody redetermination hearing. Immigration Judge Robinson denied the request
13 for lack of jurisdiction pursuant to Matter of Yajure-Hurtado.

14 34. On December 18, 2025, a federal district court vacated DHS’s July 8, 2025 Interim
15 Guidance under the Administrative Procedure Act. See Maldonado-Bautista v. Santacruz, No.
16 5:25-cv-01873-SSS-BFM (C.D. Cal. Dec. 18, 2025).

17 35. Prior to the entry of final judgment in Maldonado-Bautista, Respondents expressly
18 maintained—in other federal habeas proceedings challenging detention under INA § 235(b)—
19 that district court rulings rejecting such detention were interlocutory, non-final, and afforded no
20 relief. See Respondents’ Return to Habeas Petition at 2–4, Perez Martinez v. LaRose, No. 25-cv-
21 3492-DMS-AHG (S.D. Cal. filed Dec. 15, 2025). DHS continued to rely on its interpretation of § 22 235(b) pending the entry of final judgment.

23 36. Petitioner remains detained at the Otay Mesa Detention Center without having 24 received an individualized custody hearing.

25 37. Absent relief from this Court, Petitioner faces continued and potentially prolonged
26 immigration detention despite having been apprehended in the interior of the United States more 27 than a decade after his entry.

1 38. Absent judicial intervention, Petitioner will remain subject to detention without any 2 meaningful opportunity for an individualized custody determination, despite the absence of any
3 statutory bar to discretionary detention under INA § 236(a).

4 CLAIM FOR RELIEF

5 COUNT 1

6 Violation of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA)

7 39. Petitioner incorporates by reference the allegations of fact set forth in the preceding 8 paragraphs.

9 40. The mandatory detention provision at 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2) does not apply to all
10 noncitizens residing in the United States who are subject to grounds of inadmissibility. It does 11 not extend to individuals who entered and remained in the country beyond the two-year
12 limitation Congress established for expedited removal. See 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1)(A)(iii)(II) 13 (authorizing expedited removal only for those “who have not been physically present in the 14 United States continuously for the 2-year period immediately prior to the date of the 15 determination of inadmissibility”). Petitioner entered the United States in or about 1999 and has 16 resided continuously in the United States since that time. He is therefore not lawfully detained
17 under INA § 235(b); to the extent he remains in custody, detention must proceed under INA §
18 236(a) (8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)), which authorizes release on bond or conditional parole.

19 41. The application of INA § 235(b)(2) (8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)) to Petitioner unlawfully
20 mandates his continued detention in violation of the INA. Section 235(b)(2) applies only to 21 “applicants for admission” encountered at or near the border—not to individuals who, like 22 Petitioner, entered the United States years ago and were later arrested in the interior of the 23 United States. See Jennings v. Rodriguez, 583 U.S. 281, 297 (2018); Dep’t of Homeland Sec. v.
24 Thuraissigiam, 591 U.S. 103, 113 (2020). By treating Petitioner as an applicant for admission
25 rather than as a noncitizen subject to detention under INA § 236(a) (8 U.S.C. § 1226(a)), DHS
26 and EOIR have acted contrary to the statutory text, the structure of the INA, and the limits
27 Congress reaffirmed in the Laken Riley Act of 2025.

COUNT 2

Violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment

42. Petitioner realleges and incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

43. The Fifth Amendment provides that “[n]o person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law.”

44. “Freedom from imprisonment—from government custody, detention, or other form of physical restraint—lies at the heart of the liberty that Clause protects.” Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 690 (2001).

45. Civil immigration detention is constitutionally permissible only when it bears a reasonable relation to a legitimate governmental objective, such as ensuring appearance at proceedings or protecting the community. Detention that lacks adequate procedural safeguards or is imposed without an individualized determination violates due process. See Zadvydas, 533 U.S. at 690.

46. By continuing to detain Petitioner based on an unlawful classification of his custody as governed by INA § 235(b), and by thereby depriving him of any meaningful opportunity for an individualized custody determination before a neutral decisionmaker—at which the Government must justify continued detention—Respondents have violated Petitioner’s rights under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court:

- A) Assume jurisdiction over this matter;
- B) Direct Respondents to refrain from transferring Petitioner outside the jurisdiction of this District while these proceedings are pending;
- C) Issue an Order to Show Cause within three (3) days pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2243, requiring Respondents to explain the legal basis for Petitioner’s continued detention;

1 D) Declare that Petitioner is not lawfully detained under INA § 235(b), and that, to the extent
2 Petitioner remains in custody, such detention must proceed under INA § 236(a).

3 E) Declare that, by depriving Petitioner of any meaningful opportunity to seek release, his 4 continued detention violates the Immigration and Nationality Act and the Due Process Clause of 5 the Fifth Amendment.

6 F) Issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus ordering Respondents to release Petitioner immediately from 7 custody, or, in the alternative, order a constitutionally adequate bond hearing before a neutral
8 decisionmaker at which the Government must justify his continued detention by clear and 9 convincing evidence;

10 G) Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
