

SETON HALL UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
CENTER FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE
IMMIGRANTS' RIGHTS/INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS CLINIC

Lori Nessel, Esq., Professor of Law
Lori.Nessel@shu.edu

Dr. Glykeria Teji, Esq., Associate Clinical Professor
Glykeria.Teji@shu.edu

Susan G. Roy, Esq., Managing Attorney
Susan.Roy@shu.edu

Sabrina F. Mirza, Esq. Practitioner in Residence
sabrina.mirza@shu.edu

Estefani Rodriguez, Esq., Senior Practitioner
Estefani.rodriguez@shu.edu

Valeria Barcia, Paralegal
Valeria.Barcial@shu.edu

Brenda N Araniva-Garces, Paralegal
Brenda.araniva@shu.edu

January 16, 2026

Via ECF

Honorable Renee Marie Bumb, U.S.D.J.
U.S. District Court of the District of New Jersey
4th & Cooper Streets
Camden, NJ 08101

Re: Juan David Martinez Torres v. Warden, et. Al., No. 26-00349

Dear Chief Judge Bumb:

I represent Petitioner, Juan David Martinez Torres, in the above-mentioned matter. We agree with the Respondents' status report dated January 16, 2026. We also write to notify the court that the Petitioner has decided to return to his home county as soon as possible.

Accordingly, Petitioner asks this Court to close this case as the habeas petition is now moot.

Petitioner thanks the Court for its time and attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan G. Roy, Esq.
Center for Social Justice
Seton Hall University School of Law
833 McCarter Highway
Newark, NJ 07102
Phone: 973-642-8700
Susan.Roy@shu.edu