Case No: 5:26-cv-135

Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus
Under 28 U.S.C. § 2241

INTRODUCTION

Petitioner Sabajh Afif Chaaban Aguilar is an asylum seeker from Venezuela who was unlawfully detained by Respondents on October 24, 2025. Respondents detained her without due process or warrant. Her detention violates the Immigration and Nationality Act as well as her Fifth Amendment Due Process rights. See 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a). Without intervention by this Court, Petitioner will be subject to indefinite detention. She has been deemed ineligible for bond under recent precedent of the Board of Immigration Appeals. There is no other avenue for Petitioner to be released from her unlawful detention. For these reasons, she prays that this Court will grant her release.

4. The jurisdiction of this Court is also invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201-02 which authorizes the issuance of declaratory judgments.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

13. Petitioner entered the United States seeking asylum on July 29, 2021 and was assigned alien number  See Exhibit A.
14. Petitioner entered the United States without inspection or admission and was immediately detained by US Customs and Border Patrol agents. See id. She was released on her own recognizance three days after she entered the United States. See Exhibit B. Respondents asserted that her release was pursuant to Section 236, 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a). See id.
15. Rather than being detained for expedited removal proceedings, Petitioner was released and placed into full removal proceedings under Section 240 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. § 1255). See Exhibit A. This permits her to pursue any applications for relief that might entitle her to remain in the United States.
16. Petitioner's immigration proceedings take place within the immigration courts administered by EOIR. Petitioner has applied for asylum and is permitted to remain in the United States until a final determination has been made on her application.
17. Despite her pending relief and order of release on her own recognizance, Petitioner was detained by US Immigration and Customs Enforcement officers on or around October 24, 2025. She was unlawfully arrested without a warrant in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a). Her detention also violated the conditions of her release because Respondents did not revoke their previous decision. Respondents did not undertake any legal process before detaining her.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT I

Violation of Fifth Amendment Right to Due Process

19. The above paragraphs are realleged and incorporated herein.
20. The Department of Homeland Security has unlawfully detained Petitioner under “mandatory detention” authority reserved for aliens who are in the process of entering the United States, 8 U.S.C. § 1225.
21. This section of the Immigration and Nationality Act is reserved for individuals arriving in the United States. Petitioner was not arriving in the United States at the time of her detention; she had been in the United States for more than four years.
22. Petitioner’s detention violated the Immigration and Nationality Act and her due process rights because she was detained without “a warrant issued by the Attorney General” as required by Section 236(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.
23. Having been unlawfully detained, Petitioner requests the only appropriate relief from this Court: “release from unlawful detention”. Dep’t of Homeland Sec. v. Thuraissigiam, 591 U.S. 103, 107 (2020).
24. There is no other avenue for release that Petitioner can seek. Respondents have determined that all individuals like Petitioner are ineligible for bond and must be detained. The Executive Office for Immigration Review has issued precedential decisions holding that immigration judges unequivocally have no jurisdiction to entertain granting bond in Petitioner’s exact circumstances. See, e.g., Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025).

25. Petitioner's warrantless arrest and continued detention are violations of her rights under the Fifth Amendment of the US Constitution.

26. The allegations in the above paragraphs are realleged and incorporated herein.
27. Regulations at 8 CFR § 236.1(c)(9) and (g) require specific procedures to release or revoke the release of an individual. This regulation also limits the authority to make these decisions to specific enumerated officers.
28. At the time Petitioner was detained, Petitioner's release on her own recognizance had not been lawfully revoked.
29. Respondents violated the provisions at 8 CFR § 236.1(c)(9) because they did not make individualized findings specific to Petitioner's circumstances.
30. Respondents violated the provisions at 8 CFR § 236.1(c)(9) because Petitioner's custody determination was not rendered by one of the specified officers.
31. Petitioner's detention is unlawful because the Department of Homeland Security violated the regulations and procedures at 8 CFR § 236.1(c)(9).
32. This unlawful detention and violation of existing regulations also violates the Administrative Procedure Act. See 5 U.S.C. § 706(2).
33. Petitioner requests release from detention because she has a valid order of release on her own recognizance which has not been revoked.
