

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
FORT MYERS DIVISION

STEPHEN OLUSEGUN BANJOKO,

Petitioner,

v.

SECRETARY, UNITED STATES
DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND
SECURITY, et al. (all official capacity),

Respondents.

Case No. 2:26-cv-58-KCD-DNF

A No.

Nigeria

Response to Motion to Enforce Judgment

The Federal Respondents oppose Petitioner's Motion seeking enforcement and immediate release. (Doc. 18). This Motion misunderstands the facts.

Where relevant, the Court granted habeas in part and Ordered ICE to provide Petitioner with an informal interview by April 3. (Doc. 13 at 23). ICE did that—providing Petitioner with a § 241.13(i) informal interview on April 2. (Ex. 1). As a result of that interview, ICE chose to continue detention. Because ICE complied with the Order by providing Petitioner with the only relief granted, the Motion fails.

ICE believes the only documentation of that interview is the document provided—which is the typical form provided in all OSUP revocation cases (at least on the Fort Myers habeas docket). So at this time, there is no documentation apart from what ICE provided. That said, ICE is attempting to contact the relevant deportation officer to provide a declaration in the event that it would assist the Court. If the US Attorney's Office receives that declaration, it will supplement this Response.

Because ICE already complied with the Order, the Court should deny the Motion.
