Respondents.

Civil Action No. 5:26-cv-00060

PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR IMMEDIATE RULING

Petitioner, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for immediate adjudication of the pending Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and states as follows:

1. Petitioner is currently detained under the authority of Respondents without any individualized determination of necessity and without any constitutionally sufficient process.
2. Petitioner has filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus challenging the legality of that detention under the Fifth Amendment and 28 U.S.C. § 2241.
3. Respondents have filed their response to the petition, and the issues presented are now fully briefed.
4. The material facts relevant to the legality of detention are not in dispute.
5. The question before the Court is a pure question of law: whether Respondents may continue to detain Petitioner without any individualized determination and without any meaningful opportunity to challenge that detention.
6. No further factual development is necessary for the Court to resolve this issue.
7. Habeas corpus proceedings are intended to provide a prompt and effective remedy for unlawful detention. See Preiser v. Rodriguez.
8. Continued delay in adjudicating the petition results in ongoing deprivation of liberty and constitutes irreparable harm.
9. Respondents have had a full opportunity to present their arguments and have not identified any factual dispute requiring additional proceedings.
10. Further briefing would serve no purpose and would only prolong unconstitutional detention.
11. The Court is therefore in a position to resolve the petition based on the existing record and governing law.
12. Because detention is unlawful as a matter of law, immediate adjudication is required.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court:

- a. Immediately adjudicate the pending Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus;
- b. Grant the petition and order Petitioner's immediate release from custody;
- c. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Wilder Borge Tellez
