III. EXHAUSTION OF REMEDIES

13. Petitioner has exhausted his administrative remedies to the extent required by law, and his only remedy is by way of this judicial action.

IV. STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. Petitioner was a 16-year-old unaccompanied minor at the time of his entry and did not encounter immigration authorities. However, on or about December 2024, he filed form I-589 Application for Asylum, Withholding of Removal, and Protection under the Convention Against Torture with USCIS United States Citizenship and Immigration Services. He has resided in the United States for nearly the past three years and has complied with all immigration requirements. See Exhibit 1, Copy of Petitioner's passport and I-589 Application ASC Appointment Notice.

15. On or about December 10, 2025, Petitioner was stopped by Clayton County Police due to the following traffic offenses: speeding and driving without a license. Petitioner was arrested by Clayton County Police on this same date.
16. On or about December 11, 2025, Petitioner's family paid his criminal bond. However, he was, in turn, placed on an ICE hold and detained by immigration authorities on or about December 13, 2025. He was then transported from Clayton County to the Stewart Detention Center in Lumpkin, Georgia.
17. Petitioner has a pending Form I-589, Application for Asylum, Withholding of Removal, and Protection under the Convention Against Torture, which remains pending with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. See Exhibit 1.
18. On September 5, 2025, the Board of Immigration Appeals ("BIA") issued a decision which proposes that, "[b]ased on the plain language of section 235(b)(2)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(A) (2018), Immigration Judges lack authority to hear bond requests or to grant bond to aliens who are present in the United States without admission." See Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025).
19. As of January 14, 2026, Petitioner has been detained for about 31 days and denied the opportunity to request bond before an Immigration Judge.
20. Petitioner's continued detention is causing irreparable harm, as he has been separated from his family and continues to suffer trauma as a result of this unlawful restraint on his liberty.

V. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

21. The INA prescribes three basic forms of detention for most noncitizens in removal proceedings.

22. First, 8 U.S.C. § 1226 authorizes the detention of noncitizens in standard removal proceedings before an Immigration Judge. See 8 U.S.C. § 1229a. This provision applies to “applicants for admission,” defined as those “present in the United States who has not been admitted.” § 1225(a)(1). Individuals in §1226(a) detention are generally entitled to a bond hearing at the outset of their detention, see 8 C.F.R. §§ 1003.19(a), 1236.1(d), while noncitizens who have been arrested, charged with, or convicted of certain crimes are subject to mandatory detention until their removal proceedings are concluded, see 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c).
23. Second, the INA provides for mandatory detention of noncitizens subject to expedited removal under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1) and for other recent arrivals “seeking admission” referred to under § 1225(b)(2).
24. Third, the INA provides for detention of noncitizens who have received a final order of removal from the United States, including individuals in withholding-only proceedings, see 8 U.S.C. § 1231 (a)-(b).
25. This case concerns the detention provisions at § 1226(a) and § 1225(b)(2).

VI. CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I

Violation of 8 U.S.C. 1226(a) Unlawful Denial of Release on Bond

26. Petitioner incorporates by reference the allegations and facts set forth in paragraphs 1-19.
27. At the time of his arrest, Petitioner was a noncitizen present in the United States who had not been admitted, and thus he falls within the broad definition of “applicant for admission,” which is distinct from an “alien seeking admission,” and his detention is therefore governed by § 1226(a)(2).

28. The BIA has wrongfully construed § 1225(b)(2) as applying to all noncitizens who are found in the United States unlawfully, such as the Petitioner. See Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I&N Dec. 216 (BIA 2025).
29. The BIA's decision in Yajure Hurtado erroneously synonymizes the terms "applicant for admission" and "alien seeking admission" in order to apply mandatory detention under § 1225(b)(2) to an entire class of noncitizens for whom it was never intended by Congress.
30. The unlawful application of § 1225(b)(2) to Petitioner unlawfully mandates his continued detention without a discretionary bond hearing and violates the INA.

COUNT II

Violation of the Bond Regulations, 8 C.F.R. §§ 236.1 and 1003.19 Unlawful Denial of Release on Bond

31. Petitioner incorporates by reference the allegations and facts set forth in paragraphs 1-19.
32. In 1997, after Congress amended the INA through IIRIRA, EOIR and the then-Immigration and Naturalization Service issued an interim rule to interpret and apply IIRIRA. Specifically, under the headings of "Apprehension, Custody, and Detention of [Noncitizens]," the agencies explained that "[d]espite being applicants for admission, [noncitizens] who are present without having been admitted or paroled (formerly referred to as [noncitizens] who entered without inspection) will be eligible for bond and bond redetermination." 62 Fed. Reg. at 10323 (emphasis added). The agencies thus made clear that individuals who had entered without inspection were eligible for consideration for bond and bond hearings before Immigration Judge's under 8 U.S.C. § 1226 and its implementing regulations.
33. Nonetheless, the BIA has asserted that, instead, § 1225(b)(2) should apply to those noncitizens "present without having been admitted or paroled."

34. The application of § 1225(b)(2) to Petitioner unlawfully mandates his continued detention and violates 8 C.F.R. §§ 236.1, 1236.1, and 1003.19.

COUNT III

Violation of Fifth Amendment Due Process Clause

35. Petitioner incorporates by reference the allegations and facts set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.
36. The Fifth Amendment provides that “[n]o person” shall “be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law.”
37. “Freedom from imprisonment – from government custody, detention, or other forms of physical restraint – lies at the heart of the liberty that Clause protects.” Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 690 (2001).
38. Moreover, “[t]he Due Process Clause applies to all ‘persons’ within the United States, including aliens, whether their presence here is lawful, unlawful, temporary, or permanent.” Id. at 693.
39. Respondents’ mandatory detention of Petitioner without consideration for release on bond or access to a bond hearing violates his due process rights.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that this Court grant the following relief:

- 1) Assume jurisdiction over this matter;
- 2) Grant Petitioner a writ of habeas corpus directing Respondents to immediately provide Petitioner with a bond hearing to determine if he may be released on bond under § 1226(a)(2) and the applicable regulations. See 8 C.F.R. §§ 236.1, 1236.1.

- 3) Order Respondents to refrain from transferring Petitioner out of the jurisdiction of this court during the pendency of these proceedings and while the Petitioner remains in Respondents' custody;
- 4) Order Respondents to file a response within 3 days of the filing of this petition;
- 5) Award attorneys' fees to Petitioner; and
- 6) Grant any other and further relief which this Court deems just and proper.

I affirm, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct. Respectfully submitted this January 15, 2026.
