MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE FIRST AMENDED PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Petitioner, Antonio Sandekli Yatim, by and through undersigned counsel, respectfully moves this Court for leave to file a First Amended Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2). In support of this Motion, Petitioner states as follows:

1. On or about January 16, 2026, Petitioner initiated this action by filing a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 challenging his continued detention by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

2. The initial filing was signed by Attorney Andreana Paz, of Samper Law LLC. Attorney Paz is barred in Ohio. For unknown reasons, the Ohio Bar Association has delayed issuing a Certificate of Good Standing to Attorney Paz preventing her from filing her Appearance and Application for Pro Hac Vice Admission. In order to avoid further delay in this case, Attorney Lidice Samper, also of Samper Law LLC, seeks to enter her appearance and apply for Pro Hac Vice Admission.

3. Petitioner seeks leave to file a First Amended Petition for the limited and narrow purpose of:

a) Changing the attorney from Samper Law LLC who will represent the Petitioner in his proceedings.

4. The proposed amendment does not alter the substantive habeas claims, does not introduce new causes of action, and does not prejudice Respondents.

5. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2) provides that leave to amend should be freely granted when justice so requires. Courts routinely permit amendment to correct respondent identification in habeas proceedings, particularly where, as it is here, the amendment is unopposed and sought promptly.

6. A copy of the proposed First Amended Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that the Court grant this Unopposed Motion for Leave to File First Amended Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus and permit the First Amended Petition attached as Exhibit A to be filed as the operative pleading in this case.

Respectfully submitted,

INTRODUCTION

1. Petitioner, Antonio Sandekli Yatim, has been in the custody of Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") since November 7, 2025, approximately 2 months. Petitioner's continued detention is unconstitutional and unlawful because his removal is not reasonably foreseeable. Petitioner has been pursuing relief from removal and has requested a custody redetermination hearing, which was denied on December 15, 2025. See Exh 1. Accordingly, to vindicate Petitioner's constitutional rights, this Court should grant the instant petition for a writ of habeas corpus.
2. Absent an order from this Court, Petitioner will continue to be detained for an unknown and unreasonable amount of time by ICE.
3. Petitioner asks this Court to find that his continued detention is unconstitutional and order the Petitioner released pending his immigration proceedings.

JURISDICTION

4. This action arises under the Constitution of the United States and the Immigration and Nationality Act (“INA”), 8 U.S.C § 1101 et seq.
5. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 (habeas corpus), 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question, and Article I, §9, cl. 2 of the United States Constitution (suspension clause).
6. This Court may grant relief under the habeas corpus statutes, 28 U.S.C. § 2241 et seq., the Declaratory Judgement Act, 28, U.S.C. § 2201 et seq. and the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C § 1651.

VENUE

7. Venue is proper because Petitioner is detained at Prairieland Detention Center in Alvarado, Texas, which lies within the jurisdiction of the Northern District of Texas.
8. Venue is also proper because Respondent is an officer, employee, or agent of the United States and a substantial part of the events giving rise to this petition occurred in this District. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e).

REQUIREMENTS OF 28 U.S.C § 2243

9. The Court must grant the petition for writ of habeas corpus or issue an order to show cause (OSC) to the respondents “forthwith,” unless the petitioner is not entitled to relief. 28 U.S.C. § 2243. If an order to show cause is issued, the Court must require respondents to file a return “within three days unless for good cause additional time, not exceeding twenty days, is allowed” Id. (emphasis added).
10. Courts have long recognized the significance of the habeas statute in protecting individuals from unlawful detention. The Great Wit has been referred to as “perhaps the most important writ known to the constitutional law of England, affording as it does a swift and imperative remedy in all cases of illegal restraint or confinement.” Fay v. Noia, 372 U.S. 391, 400 (1963) (emphasis added).

PARTIES

11. Petitioner is a 41 year old native and citizen of Venezuela. Petitioner has resided in the United States since on or about November 18, 2021. See Exh 2. Petitioner is currently being held at the Prairieland Detention Center in Alvarado, Texas and is in the custody and direct control of Respondent and Respondent’s agents.
12. Respondent is the Facility Administrator of Prairieland Detention Center, Jimmy Johnson, and they have immediate physical custody of Petitioner pursuant to the facility’s contract with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement to detain noncitizens and is a legal custodian of Petitioner. Respondent is a legal custodian of Petitioner.

13. Respondent Todd Lyons is the Acting Director of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). As such, Lyons is Petitioner's immediate custodian and is responsible for Petitioner's detention and removal. He is named in his official capacity.
14. Respondent Kristi Noem is the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. She is responsible for the implementation and enforcement of the Immigration and Nationality Act ("INA"), and oversees ICE, which is responsible for Petitioner's detention. Ms. Noem has ultimate custodial authority over Petitioner and is sued in her official capacity.
15. Respondent Pamela Bondi is the Attorney General of the United States. She is responsible for the Department of Justice, of which the Executive Office for Immigration Review and the immigration court system it operates is a component agency. She is sued in her official capacity.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

16. Petitioner is a native and citizen of Venezuela. Petitioner is forty-one (41) years old. Petitioner has resided in the United States since approximately November 2021, a period of more than four (4) years, and has established deep community ties and a long-standing presence in this country.
17. Petitioner entered the United States without inspection on or about November 2021. Petitioner has no criminal convictions and has lived a peaceful, law-abiding life during his more than four (4) years in this country. Petitioner has significant equities and strong incentive to appear for all future immigration proceedings. After entering the United States, Petitioner applied for and was approved for Temporary Protected Status. Petitioner also previously applied for Asylum, Withholding of Removal, and Protection under the Convention Against Torture however the Immigration Judge terminated removal proceedings due to a failure to prosecute. See Exh. 3. On or about December 30, 2025, Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") re-filed a Notice to Appear. See Exh. 4. Respondent is currently scheduled for a master hearing on January 16, 2026 before the Houston Greenpoint Park Immigration Court.
18. On or about November 7, Petitioner was detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") and has remained in continuous detention since that date. On or about December 15, 2025, Petitioner appeared before the Immigration Court and requested a Custody Redetermination Hearing ("Bond Hearing"). Despite Petitioner's eligibility for bond, the Immigration Judge refused to grant Petitioner a bond hearing, effectively depriving him of the opportunity to demonstrate that he is neither a danger to the community nor a flight risk. Petitioner's request for bond was therefore denied without the procedural protections required by the Due Process Clause and federal case law.
19. Petitioner remains in detention at Prairieland Detention Center in Alvarado, Texas. Petitioner has been working with Samper Law, LLC, located in Woburn, Massachusetts, since on or about November 13, 2025. Petitioner's family resides in Texas.

20. Petitioner's family and close community contacts have suffered undue emotional and financial hardship due to his continued detention. Petitioner's prolonged detention, coupled with the refusal to provide him with a bond hearing, has caused significant instability for those who rely on him.

21. Petitioner is eligible for relief from removal and intends to pursue all available avenues of protection. Petitioner and his spouse, Rolandy Frankenberger, are [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Petitioner's longstanding residence in the United States, absence of criminal history, and substantial community ties weigh heavily against his continued detention and demonstrate that release on reasonable conditions is appropriate.

Notice to Respondent

Warning: Any statement you make may be used against you in removal proceedings.

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are in removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to 8 CFR 1003.16. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents that you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing. At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear, including that you are inadmissible or removable. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge. You will be advised by the immigration judge before whom you appear of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible including the privilege of voluntary departure. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

One-Year Asylum Application Deadline: If you believe you may be eligible for asylum, you must file a Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal, The Form I-589 Instructions, and information on where to file the Form can be found at www.uscis.gov/i-589. If you do not submit Form EOIR-33 and do not otherwise provide an address at which you may be reached during proceedings, then the Government shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, or any date and time later directed by the Immigration Court, a removal order may be made by the immigration judge in your absence, and you may be arrested and detained by the DHS.

Mandatory Duty to Surrender for Removal: If you become subject to a final order of removal, you must surrender for removal to your local DHS office, listed on the internet at http://www.ice.gov/contact/ero, as directed by the DHS and required by statute and regulation. Immigration regulations at 8 CFR 1241.1 define when the removal order becomes administratively final. If you are granted voluntary departure and fail to depart the United States as required, fail to post a bond in connection with voluntary departure, or fail to comply with any other condition or term in connection with voluntary departure, you must surrender for removal on the next business day thereafter. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you will be ineligible for all forms of discretionary relief for as long as you remain in the United States and for ten years after your departure or removal. This means you will be ineligible for asylum, cancellation of removal, voluntary departure, adjustment of status, change of nonimmigrant status, registry, and related waivers for this period. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you may also be criminally prosecuted under section 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.
