

in their entirety for two reasons.

First, Petitioner is pending criminal charges in Lehi Justice Court. Contrary to the information provided in Petitioner's Motion, the court docketing system has flagged his case as one involving domestic violence. (See Exhibit 1 – Docket Report from Utah Xchange). Additionally, Exhibit 1 shows that on or about January 28, 2026, an amended information was filed. Also on January 28, 2026, at a pretrial conference, the court ordered the defendant to remain detained. (See Exhibit 2 – Minutes of Pretrial Conference). The undersigned attorney also called and spoke to a representative from Utah County Jail to confirm this reading of Exhibit 2. The representative indicated that Petitioner was initially granted bond but is now to be held without bail. Therefore, Respondent's claim for habeus corpus is not ripe before this Court. He is currently being detained and held for his charging pending before the Lehi Justice Court and not based on any actions taken by the above-listed respondents.

Second, based on information provided by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Petitioner's detainer has been lifted. (See Exhibit 3 – Detainer Lifted Notice Sent to Utah County Jail). Therefore, Petitioner's claim is moot.

Notwithstanding the above, the United States reserves the right to address any and all substantive arguments raised by Petitioner in his Motions. However, based on the foregoing, the above-listed Respondents pray this Court deny Petitioner's Motions in their entirety.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED on this 6th day of February, 2026.
