

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
SAN ANTONIO DIVISION

Bessy Liliana Milla Mejia,
Petitioner,

v.

No.: 5:26-CV-0442-XR

Field Office Director, et. al.,
Respondents.

_____ /

PETITIONER'S NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY

Petitioner respectfully submits the following recent decisions for the Court's consideration addressing the constitutional limits on immigration detention following the Fifth Circuit's decision in Buenrostro-Mendez v. Bondi, 166 F.4th 494 (5th Cir. 2026), including cases granting habeas relief on Fifth Amendment due process grounds where individuals arrested in the interior of the United States were detained without a meaningful opportunity for individualized custody review.

Juarez-Aguilar v. Noem, 2026 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 50103, at *1–3 (W.D. Tex. Mar. 10, 2026) (granting petition for writ of habeas corpus and ordering petitioner released from immigration custody; recognizing federal courts' authority under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 to remedy immigration detention that violates the Constitution and concluding that continued detention without lawful procedures cannot stand).

Sanchez v. Noem, 2026 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 47222, at *1–4 (W.D. Tex. Mar. 2, 2026) (granting habeas relief on Fifth Amendment due process grounds where petitioner was detained without a meaningful opportunity to challenge his custody; ordering the government to provide a bond hearing or release petitioner).

Villegas Angel v. Noem, 2026 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 44930, at *1–3 (W.D. Tex. Mar. 3, 2026) (granting habeas relief and concluding that detention without an individualized determination of flight risk or danger violates constitutional due process protections).

Carabantes v. Bondi, 2026 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 49821, at *1–4 (W.D. Tex. Mar. 5, 2026) (granting habeas petition where the government asserted mandatory detention without providing a bond hearing and recognizing petitioner's due process challenge to continued immigration detention).

Azua-Zuniga v. Bondi, 2026 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 38171, at *1–3 (W.D. Tex. Feb. 20, 2026) (granting habeas relief and recognizing petitioner’s Fifth Amendment due process challenge to detention without a meaningful opportunity for individualized custody review).

Petitioner submits these authorities for the Court’s consideration.

DATED 17th day of March 2026.
