Grounds for Your Challenge in This Petition

13. State every ground (reason) that supports your claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Attach additional pages if you have more than four grounds. State the facts supporting each ground. Any legal arguments must be submitted in a separate memorandum.

GROUND ONE: Detention Violates Substantive due Process

"Violation of the Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination," "Violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1983")

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

The Fifth Amendment protects against government action that "Shocks the conscience or violates fundamental principles of liberty and justice. Detaining a person with no criminal record, strong family ties, valid work authorization and a pending asylum application based solely on a minor traffic violation shocks the conscience and violates. Petitioner detention serves no legitimate governmental interest and is arbitrary and capricious.

(b) Did you present Ground One in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes

☒ No

GROUND TWO: DETENTION IS NOT JUSTIFIED UNDER 8 U.S.C. § 1226

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

Petitioner is detained pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), which authorizes the detention of certain non-citizens pending. Section 1226(a) provides that the Attorney General may release a non-citizen on bond or conditional parole. Petitioner poses no flight risk because, He has a pending asylum application and strong incentive to appear for all immigration proceedings.

(b) Did you present Ground Two in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes

☒ No

GROUND THREE: PROLONGED DETENTION WITHOUT BOND HEARING VIOLATES DUE PROCESS

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

The Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution guarantees that no person shall be deprived of liberty without due process of law. Petitioner has been detained for 4 days without a bond hearing. Petitioner is entitled to a bond hearing before an Immigration Judge at which the government bears the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that Petitioner's detention is justified.

(b) Did you present Ground Three in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes

☐ No

AO 242 (Rev. 09/17) Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus Under 28 U.S.C. § 2241

GROUND FOUR:

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

(b) Did you present Ground Four in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes

☐ No

14. If there are any grounds that you did not present in all appeals that were available to you, explain why you did not:

Request for Relief

15. State exactly what you want the court to do: PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus ordering Respondents to immediately release Petitioner from custody;

In the alternative, order Respondents to provide Petitioner with a bond hearing before an Immigration Judge within seven at which hearing the government shall bear the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that petitioner poses risk or danger to the community. To Release him ASAP.

Instructions

1. Who Should Use This Form. You should use this form if
 - you are a federal prisoner and you wish to challenge the way your sentence is being carried out (for example, you claim that the Bureau of Prisons miscalculated your sentence or failed to properly award good time credits);
 - you are in federal or state custody because of something other than a judgment of conviction (for example, you are in pretrial detention or are awaiting extradition); or
 - you are alleging that you are illegally detained in immigration custody.
2. Who Should Not Use This Form. You should not use this form if
 - you are challenging the validity of a federal judgment of conviction and sentence (these challenges are generally raised in a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255);
 - you are challenging the validity of a state judgment of conviction and sentence (these challenges are generally raised in a petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254); or
 - you are challenging a final order of removal in an immigration case (these challenges are generally raised in a petition for review directly with a United States Court of Appeals).
3. Preparing the Petition. The petition must be typed or neatly written, and you must sign and date it under penalty of perjury. A false statement may lead to prosecution.
4. Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite law. You may submit additional pages if necessary. If you do not fill out the form properly, you will be asked to submit additional or correct information. If you want to submit any legal arguments, you must submit them in a separate memorandum. Be aware that any such memorandum may be subject to page limits set forth in the local rules of the court where you file this petition. If you attach additional pages, number the pages and identify which section of the petition is being continued. All filings must be submitted on paper sized 8½ by 11 inches. Do not use the back of any page.
5. Supporting Documents. In addition to your petition, you must send to the court a copy of the decisions you are challenging and a copy of any briefs or administrative remedy forms filed in your case.
6. Required Filing Fee. You must include the $5 filing fee required by 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). If you are unable to pay the filing fee, you must ask the court for permission to proceed in forma pauperis – that is, as a person who cannot pay the filing fee – by submitting the documents that the court requires.
7. Submitting Documents to the Court. Mail your petition and _____ copies to the clerk of the United States District Court for the district and division in which you are confined. For a list of districts and divisions, see 28 U.S.C. §§ 81-131. All copies must be identical to the original. Copies may be legibly handwritten.

If you want a file-stamped copy of the petition, you must enclose an additional copy of the petition and ask the court to file-stamp it and return it to you.
8. Change of Address. You must immediately notify the court in writing of any change of address. If you do not, the court may dismiss your case.

CIVIL ACTION NO. _____

SA 26 CA 0302 OG

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS
PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 2241

Petitioner Jairo Jose Guzman Centeno, by and through undersigned counsel [or “proceeding pro se”], respectfully petitions this Honorable Court for a Writ of Habeas Corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241, and in support thereof states as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION Petitioner Jairo Guzman is currently detained by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (“ICE”) at the South Texas Detention Complex, located at 566 Veterans Drive, Pearsall, Texas 78061.

1. Petitioner's detention is unlawful and violates his constitutional rights to due process under the Fifth Amendment of the United States Constitution.
2. Petitioner seeks immediate release from custody or, in the alternative, a bond hearing before an Immigration Judge with the burden placed on the government to prove by clear and convincing evidence that Petitioner poses a flight risk or danger to the community.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has jurisdiction over this petition pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241, which provides federal courts with jurisdiction to issue writs of habeas corpus to persons held in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States.
5. Venue is proper in the Western District of Texas pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241(d) because Petitioner is detained within this judicial district at the South Texas Detention Complex in Pearsall, Texas.
6. Respondents are proper parties because they have custody and control over Petitioner and the authority to release him.

III. PARTIES

7. Petitioner Jairo Jose Guzman Centeno is a national of Nicaragua, currently detained by ICE at the South Texas Detention Complex in Pearsall, Texas.
8. Respondent Alejandro Mayorkas is the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and is sued in his official capacity.
9. Respondent Patrick J. Lechleitner is the Acting Director of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement and is sued in his official capacity.
10. Respondent Daniel Bible is the Field Office Director of the ICE San Antonio Field Office and is sued in his official capacity.
11. Respondent Warden of South Texas Detention Complex is the custodian of Petitioner and is sued in his official capacity.

IV. STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. Petitioner's Immigration History

12. Petitioner Jairo Jose Guzman Centeno entered the United States on April 1, 2021, pursuant to a grant Interim parole for a period of two (2) years.
13. On April 1, 2023, Petitioner timely filed an application for asylum with U.S. San Antonio Immigration Court before the expiration of his parole period.

14. Petitioner's asylum application remains pending before Immigration Court in San Antonio, TX with Judge: Santander, Daniel J.
15. Petitioner was granted employment authorization by USCIS and possesses a valid Employment Authorization Document ("EAD") with Alien Registration Number [REDACTED], valid through November 6, 2029.
16. Petitioner has maintained lawful work authorization and has been working legally in the United States to support himself and his family.
17. Petitioner has complied with all immigration requirements and has appeared for all scheduled appointments and hearings with immigration authorities.

B. Petitioner's Family Ties and Community Connections

18. Petitioner is married and has two (2) minor children who reside in the United States.
19. Petitioner's wife is Jocelyn Isamar Moncada de Guzman: asylum applicant.
20. Petitioner's children are [REDACTED]: U.S. citizens., [REDACTED]: asylum applicant.
21. Petitioner is the primary financial provider for his family and his detention has caused severe financial hardship and emotional distress to his wife and children.
22. Petitioner has established significant ties to the community, including : employment, church membership, community involvement, etc.].

C. Arrest and Detention

23. On January 17, 2026, Petitioner was arrested by the San Antonio Police Department for a minor traffic violation, specifically driving a vehicle with expired insurance.
24. Petitioner had purchased the vehicle in December 2025 and the insurance was not expired.
25. This traffic violation is a minor civil infraction and does not constitute a crime of moral turpitude or an aggravated felony under immigration law.
26. Petitioner has no criminal record and has never been convicted of any crime.
27. Following his arrest by local police, Petitioner was transferred to ICE custody and is currently detained at the South Texas Detention Complex in Pearsall, Texas.
28. Petitioner has been detained since approximately January 17, 2026, without a bond hearing or determination of whether his continued detention is necessary.
29. ICE has not provided Petitioner with a bond hearing or an opportunity to demonstrate that he does not pose a flight risk or danger to the community.

V. LEGAL CLAIMS

COUNT I: PROLONGED DETENTION WITHOUT BOND HEARING VIOLATES DUE PROCESS

30. Petitioners incorporate by reference all preceding paragraphs.

31. The Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution guarantees that no person shall be deprived of liberty without due process of law.
32. The Supreme Court has held that prolonged immigration detention without a bond hearing violates due process. Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678 (2001); Demore v. Kim, 538 U.S. 510 (2003).
33. In Rodriguez v. Robbins, 715 F.3d 1127 (9th Cir. 2013), the Ninth Circuit held that immigration detainees held for more than six months are entitled to a bond hearing at which the government must prove by clear and convincing evidence that the detainee poses a flight risk or danger to the community.
34. Although Rodriguez is a Ninth Circuit case, its reasoning has been adopted by numerous district courts, including courts within the Fifth Circuit.
35. Petitioner has been detained for 4 days without a bond hearing.
36. Petitioner's continued detention without a bond hearing violates his constitutional right to due process under the Fifth Amendment.
37. Petitioner is entitled to a bond hearing before an Immigration Judge at which the government bears the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that Petitioner's detention is justified.

COUNT II: DETENTION IS NOT JUSTIFIED UNDER 8 U.S.C. § 1226

38. Petitioner incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs.
39. Petitioner is detained pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), which authorizes the detention of certain non-citizens pending removal proceedings.
40. Section 1226(a) provides that the Attorney General may release a non-citizen on bond or conditional parole.
41. Petitioner does not fall within the mandatory detention provisions of 8 U.S.C. § 1226© because:
 - He has not been convicted of any crime enumerated in § 1226©;
 - He has no criminal record whatsoever;
 - His arrest was for a minor traffic violation that does not constitute a removable offense.
42. Petitioner poses no flight risk because:
 - He has a pending asylum application and strong incentive to appear for all immigration proceedings.
 - He has significant family ties in the United States, including a wife and two minor children.
 - He has maintained continuous residence in the United States since April 1, 2021.
 - He has complied with all immigration requirements and appeared for all scheduled appointments.
 - He possesses valid employment authorization and has been gainfully employed.
43. Petitioners pose no danger to the community because:
 - He has no criminal record.
 - His only contact with law enforcement was a minor traffic violation.
 - He has been a law-abiding member of the community.

- o There is no evidence suggesting he poses any threat to public safety.
- 44. Petitioner's continued detention is not justified under § 1226(a) and violates the statute's requirement that detention decisions be individualized and based on legitimate governmental interests.

COUNT III: DETENTION VIOLATES SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS

- 45. Petitioner incorporates by reference all preceding paragraphs.
- 46. The Fifth Amendment protects against government action that "shocks the conscience" or violates fundamental principles of liberty and justice.
- 47. Detaining a person with no criminal record, strong family ties, valid work authorization, and a pending asylum application based solely on a minor traffic violation shocks the conscience and violates substantive due process.
- 48. Petitioner's detention serves no legitimate governmental interest and is arbitrary and capricious.
- 49. Less restrictive alternatives to detention are available, including release on bond, electronic monitoring, or regular check-ins with ICE.
- 50. Petitioner's continued detention violates his substantive due process rights under the Fifth Amendment.

VI. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court:

- A. Issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus ordering Respondents to immediately release Petitioner from custody;
 - B. In the alternative, order Respondents to provide Petitioner with a bond hearing before an Immigration Judge within seven (7) days, at which hearing the government shall bear the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that Petitioner poses a flight risk or danger to the community;
 - C. Order that Petitioner be released on reasonable bond or on his own recognizance pending the outcome of his immigration proceedings;
 - D. Declare that Petitioner's detention violates his rights under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution and 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a);
 - E. Award Petitioner his costs and attorneys' fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, and any other applicable law;
 - F. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

INTERIM NOTICE AUTHORIZING PAROLE

This letter is to inform you that U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has decided to parole you from its custody pursuant to its authority under section 212(d)(5)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. This notice is being issued to you in lieu of Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, see 8 C.F.R. § 235.1(h)(2), and you should maintain a copy of this letter in your possession at all times.

Your parole authorization is valid for one year beginning from the date on this notice and will automatically terminate upon your departure or removal from the United States or at the end of the one-year period unless ICE provides you with an extension at its discretion. ICE may also terminate parole on notice prior to the automatic termination date. Parole is entirely within the discretion of ICE and can be terminated at any time and for any reason. Your parole is not valid for work authorization and is not an admission in lawful status.

Parole is conditioned on you complying with the terms and conditions of your release. You must notify ICE and the immigration judge of any address correction or address change. You must report for every scheduled hearing before the immigration court and every appointment as directed by ICE (including for removal from the United States should you become subject to a final removal order). You must not violate any local, State or Federal laws or ordinances. You must comply with any other specified conditions if identified separately.

I certify that I received a copy of this notice.
