EMERGENCY MOTION
FOR CONTEMPT

Agency #

EMERGENCY MOTION FOR CONTEMPT

Petitioner Luis Martin Tellez Aguilar hereby moves on an immediate and emergency basis for a motion for contempt of the Court's order entered at ECF Doc. 4, consistent with Rule 70. The Court specifically ordered that "on or before February 17, 2026, Respondents shall either: (1) provide Tellez-Aguilar with a bond hearing before an IJ, at which the Government shall bear the burden of justifying, by clear and convincing evidence of dangerousness or flight risk, Tellez-Aguilar's continued detention; or (2) release Tellez-Aguilar from custody, under reasonable conditions of supervision." ECF Doc. 4, at 2 (emphasis in original).

A bond hearing was scheduled for February 11, 2026, at 10:30 a.m. MST in El Paso, Texas. See Declaration of David Wilson & Exh. A. Petitioner is currently detained in El Paso, Texas. On February 11, 2026, the El Paso SPC Immigration Court denied Petitioner's request for custody redetermination based on lack of jurisdiction. See Exh. B. Thus, the scheduled bond hearing did not proceed. Petitioner has no new bond hearing scheduled. Petitioner now moves to order his immediate release.

Respondents violated this Court's clear order to provide Petitioner a bond hearing in which the government has the burden to prove danger and flight risk by clear and convincing evidence. Immigration Judge Stephen Ruhle violated the Court's order by claiming he had no jurisdiction over bond despite the partial grant of Petitioner's Petition for Habeas Corpus on procedural due process grounds. Respondents refused to proceed with a bond hearing despite this Court's order to do so because he does not think the federal court can tell him what to do. The presiding immigration judge placed no burden whatsoever on the government. This bald-faced defiance to this Court's order cannot stand.

Petitioner accordingly is seeking an order to hold Respondents in contempt and to order Petitioner's immediate release from Respondents' custody. Petitioner hereby moves as follows:

1. Petitioner seeks an order consistent with Fed. R. Civ. P. 70 holding Respondents in contempt for denying Petitioner a bond hearing in violation of this Court's order.
2. Petitioner seeks immediate release from Respondents' custody.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests this Court:

- A. Hold Respondents in contempt for violating this Court's order;
- B. Order Petitioner's immediate release from Respondents' custody; and,
- C. Grant such other and further relief as justice may require.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ David L. Wilson
