HOMELAND SECURITY; Pamela BONDI,
U.S. Attorney General; EXECUTIVE OFFICE
FOR IMMIGRATION REVIEW;

Respondents,

Case No. 5:26-cv-547

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

INTRODUCTION

1. Petitioner, A#  Sulennis Wilson-Del Pozo brings this petition for a writ of habeas corpus to seek enforcement of their rights as members of the Bond Denial Class certified in Maldonado Bautista v. Santacruz, No. 5:25-CV-01873-SSS-BFM (C.D. Cal.) Petitioner is in the physical custody of Respondents at the Karnes County Immigration Processing Center in Karnes County, Texas. She now faces unlawful detention because the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) have refused to abide by the declaratory judgment issued on behalf of the certified class in Maldonado Bautista v. Santacruz.

2. On November 20, 2025, the district court granted partial summary judgment on behalf of individual plaintiffs and on November 25, 2025, certified a nationwide class and extended declaratory judgment to the certified class. Maldonado Bautista v. Santacruz, No. 5:25-CV-01873-SSS-BFM, --- F. Supp. 3d ----, 2025 WL 3289861, at *11 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 20, 2025) (order granting partial summary judgment to named Plaintiffs-Petitioners); Maldonado Bautista v. Santacruz, No. 5:25-CV-01873-SSS-BFM, --- F. Supp. 3d ----, 2025 WL 3288403, at *9 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 25, 2025) (order certifying Plaintiffs-Petitioners' proposed nationwide Bond Eligible Class, incorporating and extending declaratory judgment from Order Granting Petitioners' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment).

3. The declaratory judgment held that the Bond Denial Class members are detained under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), and thus may not be denied consideration for release on bond under § 1225(b)(2)(A). Maldonado Bautista, 2025 WL 3289861, at *11.

4. Nonetheless, the Executive Office for Immigration Review and its subagency the Immigration Court and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) have blatantly refused to abide by the declaratory relief and have unlawfully ordered that Petitioner be denied the opportunity to be released on bond.

5. Petitioner Sulennis Wilson-Del Pozo is a member of the Bond Eligible Class, as she:

- a. does not have lawful status in the United States and is currently detained at the Karnes County Immigration Processing Center. She was apprehended by immigration authorities on November 13, 2025.
- b. entered the United States without inspection over 3 years ago and was not apprehended upon arrival, cf. id.; and
- c. is not detained under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c), § 1225(b)(1), or § 1231.

6. After apprehending Petitioner on November 13, 2025, the DHS placed her in removal proceedings pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1229a. DHS has charged Petitioner as being inadmissible under 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(A)(i), as someone who entered the United States without inspection.

7. The Court should expeditiously grant this petition.

8. Respondents are bound by the judgment in Maldonado Bautista, as it has the full “force and effect of a final judgment.” 28 U.S.C. § 2201(a). Nevertheless, Respondents continue to flagrantly defy the judgment in that case and continue to subject Petitioner to unlawful detention despite her clear entitlement to consideration for release on bond as a Bond Eligible Class member.

9. Immigration judges have informed class members in bond hearings that they have been instructed by “leadership” that the declaratory judgment in Maldonado Bautista is not controlling, even with respect to class members, and that instead IJs remain bound to follow the agency’s prior decision in Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I. & N. Dec. 216 (BIA 2025).

10. Because Respondents are detaining Petitioner in violation of the declaratory judgment issued in Maldonado Bautista, the Court should accordingly order that within one day, Respondent DHS must release Petitioner.

11. Alternatively, the Court should order Petitioner’s release unless Respondents provide a bond hearing under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a) within seven days.

JURISDICTION

12. Petitioner is in the physical custody of Respondents. Petitioner is detained at the Karnes County Immigration Processing Center in Karnes County, Texas. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241(c)(5) (habeas corpus), 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question), and Article I, section 9, clause 2 of the United States Constitution (the Suspension Clause).

13. This Court may grant relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241, the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2201 et seq., and the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651.

VENUE

14. Pursuant to Braden v. 30th Judicial Circuit Court of Kentucky, 410 U.S. 484, 493-500 (1973), venue lies in the United States District Court for the Western District, the judicial district in which Petitioner currently is detained.

15. Venue is also properly in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e) because Respondents are employees, officers, and agencies of the United States, and because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in the Western District.

REQUIREMENTS OF 28 U.S.C. § 2243

16. The Court should grant the petition for writ of habeas corpus “forthwith,” as the legal issues have already been resolved for class members in Maldonado Bautista.

17. Habeas corpus is “perhaps the most important writ known to the constitutional law . . . affording as it does a swift and imperative remedy in all cases of illegal restraint or confinement.” Fay v. Noia, 372 U.S. 391, 400 (1963) (emphasis added). “The application for the writ usurps the attention and displaces the calendar of the judge or justice who entertains it and receives prompt action from him within the four corners of the application.” Yong v. I.N.S., 208 F.3d 1116, 1120 (9th Cir. 2000) (citation omitted).

PARTIES

18. Petitioner, Sulennis Wilson-Del Pozo is a citizen of Cuba who has been in immigration detention since November 13, 2025. After Petitioner was arrested in San Antonio, ICE did not set bond, and Petitioner requested review of her custody by an IJ. Petitioner has resided in the United States since July 2022.

19. Respondent Rose Thompson is employed by the U.S. Government as Warden of the Karnes County Immigration Processing Center, where Petitioner is detained. She has immediate physical custody of Petitioner. She is sued in her official capacity.

20. Respondent Miguel Vergara is the Director of the San Antonio Field Office of ICE's Enforcement and Removal Operations division. As such, Miguel Vergara is Petitioner's immediate custodian and is responsible for Petitioner's detention and removal. He is named in his official capacity.

21. Respondent Kristi Noem is the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. She is responsible for the implementation and enforcement of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), and oversees ICE, which is responsible for Petitioner's detention. Ms. Noem has ultimate custodial authority over Petitioner and is sued in her official capacity.

22. Respondent Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is the federal agency responsible for implementing and enforcing the INA, including the detention and removal of noncitizens.

23. Respondent Pamela Bondi is the Attorney General of the United States. She is responsible for the Department of Justice, of which the Executive Office for Immigration Review and the immigration court system it operates is a component agency. She is sued in her official capacity.

24. Respondent Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) is the federal agency responsible for implementing and enforcing the INA in removal proceedings, including for custody redeterminations in bond hearings.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

25. Petitioner, Sulennis Wilson-Del Pozo, is a 40-year-old native and citizen of Cuba. She entered the United States on or about July 2022, together with her husband, and has remained in the United States continuously since that date. Petitioner has no criminal record and no prior immigration violations. Her record reflects that she poses no danger to the community and has consistently complied with all immigration requirements.

26. On November 21, 2022, Petitioner and her husband timely submitted an application for asylum with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”), which remains pending. In addition, she filed an I-914, Application for T Non-immigrant Status, on December 16, 2024, which is currently pending. She was subsequently issued a Form I-797C Notice of Action, valid through 2029, and was also issued a Social Security card, further evidencing her compliance with the immigration process and intent to pursue lawful relief.

27. Petitioner submitted the T Visa application due to her and her husband’s employer not paying them for their labor. This demonstrates Petitioner’s courage in standing up against exploitation, her commitment to seeking lawful protection, and her diligence in pursuing legal remedies to protect herself and her family.

28. Petitioner is currently detained at the Karnes County Immigration Processing Center in Karnes County, Texas, where she remains in the custody of the Department of Homeland Security. She was detained on November 13, 2025, while appearing for a scheduled ICE appointment. As of January 22, 2026, Petitioner has been detained for approximately 70 days without a bond hearing, despite her eligibility for release under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a).

29. Prior to her detention, Petitioner worked as a carpenter for two years, contributing to her family's financial stability. She sends money weekly to her 16-year-old child in Cuba to ensure his stability and proper care. Her child depends on her for financial support, further demonstrating Petitioner's responsibility and commitment to her family, and highlighting the hardship caused by her continued detention.

30. Petitioner's husband also depends on her financially, as they rent a residence together and both of their incomes are necessary to cover household bills. Petitioner and her husband both send money to their child in Cuba to provide for his basic needs. Petitioner has consistently met her financial and legal obligations, further demonstrating her reliability, responsibility, and compliance with the law.

31. During her detention, Petitioner has suffered from various medical conditions due to neglect and the lack of proper medical care. No medical staff has provided comprehensive treatment, and when she has received medications, they have been selective and insufficient, failing to specifically address the affected areas due to lack of proper attention and resources. Prior to her detention, Petitioner was undergoing dental treatment for an infected tooth, which was expected to last approximately two months. Since being detained, she has been forced to self-treat, resulting in swelling of her jaw and gums. In addition, Petitioner has developed a kidney infection, causing her legs to swell and severe, painful jabs in her abdomen.

32. Petitioner's ongoing detention has caused significant hardship and uncertainty for her and her family and continues despite her lack of criminal history, her demonstrated compliance with immigration proceedings, her pending asylum and T Visa applications, and her eligibility for a bond hearing under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a). Releasing Petitioner on bond would allow her to obtain necessary medical care, continue providing financial support for her minor child, care for her family, pursue lawful immigration relief, and ensure her appearance at all future immigration proceedings.

33. Petitioner's continued detention has caused significant hardship and uncertainty for her and her family, including her minor son, and continues despite her lack of criminal history, her demonstrated compliance with immigration proceedings, and her eligibility for a bond hearing under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a).

.ARGUMENT

34. Petitioner filed this habeas petition challenging her detention without a bond hearing.

35. Petitioner advances two principal arguments. First, she contends that her continued detention without a bond hearing violates the Due Process Clause. Second, she argues that 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2) does not authorize her detention.

36. Respondents, however, assert detention authority under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1), not § 1225(b)(2). See ECF No. 5 at 2. Section 1225(b)(1) governs expedited removal and applies only to certain "arriving" aliens and to noncitizens who have not "been physically present in the United States continuously for the 2-year period immediately prior to the date" they were determined inadmissible under that provision. 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1)(A)(i).

37. Section 1225(b)(1) further mandates detention only for a limited subset of such individuals. See 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(1)(B)(iii)(IV). Petitioner does not fall within the categories of noncitizens subject to mandatory detention under § 1225(b)(1).

38. Nonetheless, Petitioner reasonably anticipates Respondents' reliance on 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2). Respondents have repeatedly invoked § 1225(b)(2) in nearly identical cases before this Court. See, e.g., Urquiza-Orozco v. Bondi et al., No. 5:25-cv-01428-XR (W.D. Tex. Nov. 20, 2025); Vega v. Thompson et al., No. 5:25-cv-01439-XR (W.D. Tex. Nov. 21, 2025).

39. Respondents further assert in this case that “[e]ven if this Court were to order [Petitioner’s] release from custody, she would be subject to re-arrest as an alien present within the United States without having been admitted.” ECF No. 5 at 2. This assertion reflects Respondents’ anticipated reliance on arrest and detention authority under § 1225(b)(2).

40. Accordingly, both § 1225(b)(1) and § 1225(b)(2) are at issue. The dispositive statutory question is whether either provision applies to Petitioner. If neither § 1225(b)(1) nor § 1225(b)(2) governs Petitioner’s detention, Respondents may detain her only under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), which entitles her to a bond hearing. See, e.g., Belsai D.S. v. Bondi, No. 25-CV-3682 (KMM/EMB), 2025 WL 2802947, at *5 (D. Minn. Oct. 1, 2025).

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

Violation of the INA: Request for Relief Pursuant to Maldonado Bautista

41. Petitioner repeats, re-alleges, and incorporates by reference each and every allegation in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

42. As a member of the Bond Eligible Class, Petitioner is entitled to consideration for release on bond under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a).

43. The order granting partial summary judgment in Maldonado Bautista holds that Respondents violate the INA in applying the mandatory detention statute at § 1225(b)(2) to class members.

44. The order granting class certification in Maldonado Bautista further orders that “[w]hen considering this determination with the MSJ Order, the Court extends the same declaratory relief granted to Petitioners to the Bond Eligible Class as a whole.”

45. Respondents are parties to Maldonado Bautista and bound by the Court's declaratory judgment, which has the full "force and effect of a final judgment." 28 U.S.C. § 2201(a).

Violation of Due Process Rights

46. The government may not deprive a person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. U.S. Const. amend. V. "Freedom from imprisonment—from government custody, detention, or other forms of physical restraint—lies at the heart of the liberty that the Clause protects." Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 690 (2001).
47. Petitioner has a fundamental interest in liberty and being free from official restraint.
48. The government's detention of Petitioner without a bond redetermination hearing to determine whether he is a flight risk or danger to others violates his right to due process.
49. The government has shown no reason, whatsoever, that there are either changed circumstances or any other reasons for the re-detention of Petitioner, nor was the Petitioner given any notice prior to his re-detention, thus violating his due process rights.
50. By denying Petitioner a bond hearing under § 1226(a) and asserting that she is subject to mandatory detention under § 1225(b)(2), Respondents violate Petitioner's statutory rights under the INA and the Court's judgment in Maldonado Bautista.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that this Court grant the following relief:

- a. Assume jurisdiction over this matter;
- b. Issue a writ of habeas corpus requiring that within one day, Respondents release Petitioner;
- c. Alternatively, issue a writ of habeas corpus requiring Respondents to release Petitioner unless they provide a bond hearing under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a) within seven days;

- d. Award Petitioner attorney's fees and costs under the Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA), as amended, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, and on any other basis justified under law; and
- e. Grant any other and further relief that this Court deems just and proper.

DATED this 29th of January, 2026.
