PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

INTRODUCTION

1. Petitioner Ranji Singh is in the physical custody of Respondents at the Cimarron Correctional Facility in Cushing, Oklahoma. He now faces unlawful detention because the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the Executive Office of Immigration Review (EOIR) have concluded Petitioner is subject to mandatory detention.

2. Petitioner was charged with having entered the United States without admission or inspection. See 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(A)(i).

3. The Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") issued a new policy on July 8, 2025, instructing all Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") employees to consider anyone inadmissible under § 1182(a)(6)(A)(i)-i.e., those who entered the United States without admission or inspection-to be subject to detention under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(A) and therefore ineligible to be released on bond. According to one court, DHS "revisited its legal position on detention and release authorities" and "determined that [section 1225]..., rather than [section 1226], is the applicable immigration detention authority for all applicants for admission," meaning all non-citizens who were "present in the United States [without having] been admitted," 8 U.S.C. § 1225(a)(1). See Diaz Martinez v. Hyde, 792 F. Supp. 3d 211, 217–18 & n.10 (D. Mass. 2025) (quoting the same internal ICE memorandum issued by Acting Director Todd M. Lyons).

4. Thereafter, on September 5, 2025, the Board of Immigration Appeals ("BIA") issued a precedent decision, binding on all immigration judges, holding that an immigration judge has no authority to consider bond requests for any person who entered the United States without admission. See Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I. & N. Dec. 216 (BIA 2025). The BIA determined that such individuals are subject to detention under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2)(A) and are therefore ineligible to be released on bond.

5. Respondents' abrupt and unexplained departure from settled practice is plainly contrary to the statutory framework, contrary to decades of agency practice and violates the Due Process Clause.

6. Accordingly, Petitioner seeks a writ of habeas corpus requiring that he be released or in the alternative require Respondents to provide a bond hearing within five days.

JURISDICTION

7. Petitioner is in the physical custody of Respondents. Petitioner is detained at the Cimarron Correctional Facility in Cushing, Oklahoma.

8. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241(c)(1), (3) (habeas corpus), 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question), Article I, section 9, clause 2 of the U.S. Constitution (the Suspension Clause), U.S. Const. amend. V (the Due Process Clause) and the common law writ as preserved by the Suspension Clause.

9. This Court may grant relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241 et seq., the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2201 et seq., and the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651.

VENUE

10. Pursuant to Braden v. 30th Judicial Circuit Court of Kentucky, 410 U.S. 484, 493-500 (1973), venue lies in the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma, the judicial district in which Petitioner currently is detained. Respondent Scarlet Grant, Warden of the Cimarron Correctional Facility, the immediate custodian of Petitioner, is in the Western District of Oklahoma.

11. Venue is also properly in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e) because Respondents are employees, officers, and agencies of the United States, and because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in the Western District of Oklahoma.

REQUIREMENTS OF 28 U.S.C. § 2243

12. The Court must grant the petition for writ of habeas corpus or order Respondents to show cause "forthwith," unless the petitioner is not entitled to relief. 28 U.S.C. § 2243. If an order to show cause is issued, Respondents must file a return "within three days unless for good cause additional time, not exceeding twenty days, is allowed." Id.

13. Habeas corpus is "perhaps the most important writ known to the constitutional law... affording as it does a swift and imperative remedy in all cases of illegal restraint or confinement." Fay v. Noia, 372 U.S. 391,400 (1963). "The application for the writ usurps the attention and displaces the calendar of the judge or justice who entertains it and receives prompt action from him within the four comers of the application." Yong v. I.N.S., 208 F.3d 1116, 1120 (9th Cir. 2000) (citation omitted).

PARTIES

14. Petitioner Ranjit Singh is a citizen of India who has been in immigration detention since December 2025. He was taken into custody in Oklahoma while driving on a public road by the Oklahoma Highway Patrol. After taking custody of Petitioner, Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") did not set bond. Petitioner did not apply for a bond with the Immigration Court due to the Lyons memo and the binding decision of the BIA in Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I. & N. Dec. 216 (BIA 2025).

15. Respondent Kristi Noem is the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. She is responsible for the implementation and enforcement of the Immigration and Nationality Act ("INA"), and oversees ICE, which is responsible for Petitioner's detention. Ms. Noem has ultimate custodial authority over Petitioner and is sued in her official capacity.

16. Respondent Pamela Bondi is the Attorney General of the United States. She is responsible for the Department of Justice, of which the Executive Office for Immigration Review and the immigration court system it operates is a component agency. She is sued in her official capacity.

17. Respondent Todd Lyons is the Acting Director for Immigration and Customs Enforcement. As such, he is responsible for custody decisions affecting Petitioner. He is named in his official capacity.

18. Respondent Joshua Johnson is the Field Office Director of Enforcement and Removal Operations of the Dallas ICE Field Office. As such, he is responsible for custody decisions affecting Petitioner. He is named in his official capacity.

19. Respondent Daren Margolin is the Director of EOIR with the Department of Justice. EOIR (the Executive Office for Immigration Review) includes the immigration court system. He is sued in his official capacity.

20. Respondent Scarlet Grant is employed by the Cimarron Correctional Facility as warden of the facility where Petitioner is detained. She has immediate physical custody of Petitioner. She is sued in her official capacity.

FACTS

21. Petitioner entered the United States of America without inspection or admission on March 23, 2019.

22. Petitioner was released on an immigration bond of $35,000 on or about September 6, 2019, such bond issued pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a).

23. An Immigration Judge denied Petitioner's asylum application on September 25, 2025, in Concord, California.

24. The Immigration Judge ordered Petitioner to be removed from the country.

25. Petitioner timely appealed that order and that appeal is pending before the Board of Immigration Appeals. Such an appeal automatically stays the removal order.

26. Petitioner was taken into custody on January 21, 2026, by the Oklahoma Highway Patrol after having attended a court hearing in Custer County, Oklahoma.

27. Earlier that day, the state court deferred adjudication of sentence for six months on charges of reckless driving and leaving the scene of an accident causing property damage.

28. He has resided with family in Wisconsin and California since his entry into the United States.

29. Petitioner resided without detention in the United States continuously since September 6, 2019.

30. Following Petitioner's arrest, ICE issued a custody determination to continue Petitioner's detention without an opportunity to post bond or be released on other conditions.

31. Petitioner could not request an immigration bond given that all immigration judges are subject to the binding precedent that those who entered the country without admission or parole are ineligible for a bond hearing. Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I. & N. Dec. 216 (BIA 2025). Any attempt to seek bond from the Immigration Court would have been futile because immigration judges are bound by Matter of Yajure Hurtado and lack authority to grant relief.

32. As a result, Petitioner remains in detention. Without relief from this Court, he faces the prospect of months, or even years, in immigration custody, separated from his family and community.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT I

Violation of the INA

33. Petitioner incorporates by reference the allegations of fact set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

34. The mandatory detention provision at 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b)(2) does not apply to all noncitizens residing in the United States who are subject to the grounds of inadmissibility. As relevant here, it does not apply to those released under 8 U.S.C. § 1226. Section 1226 governs a separate (non-mandatory) detention scheme applicable when an individual is “already in the country.” Jennings v. Rodriguez, 583 U.S. 281, 289 (2018).

35. The application of § 1225(b)(2) to Petitioner unlawfully mandates his continued detention and violates the INA.

36. Once DHS affirmatively exercised discretion to release Petitioner under § 1226, the government cannot retroactively reclassify him as an “arriving alien” subject to § 1225(b).

COUNT II
Violation of Due Process

37. Petitioner repeats, re-alleges, and incorporates by reference every allegation in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

38. The government may not deprive a person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. U.S. Const. amend. V. "Freedom from imprisonment-from government custody, detention, or other forms of physical restraint-lies at the heart of the liberty that the Clause protects." Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 690 (2001).

39. Petitioner has a fundamental interest in liberty and being free from official restraint.

40. Petitioner's detention is not only prolonged, but categorically immune from individualized review, rendering it constitutionally more suspect than detention subject to periodic bond redetermination.

41. The government's detention of Petitioner without a bond redetermination hearing to determine whether he is a flight risk or danger to others violates his right to due process.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that this Court grant the following relief:

- a. Assume jurisdiction over this matter;
- b. Order that Petitioner shall not be transferred outside the Western District of Oklahoma while this habeas petition is pending;
- c. Issue an Order to Show Cause ordering Respondents to show cause why this Petition should not be granted within three days;

- d. Issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus requiring that Respondents release Petitioner under the terms of his prior release or, in the alternative, provide Petitioner with a bond hearing pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a) within five days;
- e. Enter injunctive relief necessary to preserve jurisdiction and prevent irreparable harm, including an order barring transfer, upon the Court's finding that the Winter factors are satisfied. See Winter v. NRDC, 555 U.S. 7 (2008).
- f. Declare that Petitioner's detention is unlawful;
- g. Award Petitioner attorney's fees and costs under the Equal Access to Justice Act ("EAJA"), as amended, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, and on any other basis justified under law; and
- h. Grant any other and further relief that this Court deems just and proper.

DATED this 2nd day of February 2026.
