Re: Eguizbal-Martinez v. Bondi, 26-cv-626 (Brown, J.)

Dear Judge Brown:

Petitioner submits the instant letter in response to the Court's order that Petitioner inform the Court of cases where Petitioners, following release on bond or in habeas cases have been ordered to wear GPS location monitoring equipment. Petitioner Hector Edgardo Lagos-Bonilla was released on January 9, 2016 pursuant to this Court's order in Lagos-Bonilla v. Bondi et al. 2:26-cv-00088-GRB. He was given a GPS ankle monitor, but once he was able to get his phone back from ICE, he was given an application on his phone and the ankle monitor was removed. At this time undersigned counsel is not sure whether that application had GPS tracking, but he is no longer required to wear a GPS monitor on his body.

Petitioner in Alas-Rivera v. Bondi et al, 2:26-cv-00571-CCC (D.N.J. 1/23/2026) was also placed on a GPS ankle monitor. The District of New Jersey in that case ordered a bond hearing be held before an Immigration Judge. The Immigration Judge granted bond in the amount of $20,000. Upon payment of the full $20,000, Petitioner was released from detention and placed on a GPS monitor, which he continues to wear. Similarly, Petitioner in Mendoza v. Noem, 2:26-cv-00069-JJT—DMF (D. Ariz. 1/23/2026) filed a habeas petition, in which Judge John J Tuchi of the District of Arizona ordered that a bond hearing be held before an Immigration Judge. The Immigration Judge ordered bond in the amount of $20,000. Upon payment of the full $20,000, Petitioner was released with a GPS ankle monitor, which has since been removed.

Undersigned counsel has additional clients who were granted bond by Immigration Judges and placed on GPS ankle monitors, but not pursuant to habeas grants.
