CAUSE NO. EP-26-CV-346-KC

MOTION TO REOPEN

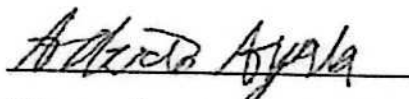

The Petitioner, Alberto Wenceslao Ayala Aguirre, is respectfully submitting this "Motion To Reopen" because he has not been given the opportunity to post the bond that the Respondents have informed this Court the Immigration Judge granted him.

On February 24th, 2026 the Petitioner was granted a bond hearing as this Court ordered the Respondents to provide. The Immigration Judge granted the Petitioner a $3,000 bond but the Petitioner is not able to pay the bond because the Respondents reserved the right to appeal for 30 days. During these 30 days the granted bond does not show up in the system and the Petitioner can not pay the bond.

It seems that the Respondents are doing everything possible to withhold the Petitioner's right to pay the bond that the Immigration Judge granted him.

The Petitioner prays this Court can order the Respondents to allow the Petitioner to post bond and if the Respondents will choose to appeal the bond they may do so while the Petitioner is out of custody.

I, Alberto Wenceslao Ayala Aguirre, Petitioner, respectfully submit this on March 6th, 2026.
