PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS
28 U.S.C. § 2241
(ULTRA-EXTENSIVE – FEDERAL JUDGE LEVEL)

PETITIONER (DETAINEE): Yandri Castillo Aller

A-Number: [REDACTED]

Date of Birth: [REDACTED]

Nationality: Cuban

Date of Entry: March 8, 2022

Date of Detention: September 30, 2025

Current Detention Facility: FOLKSTON MAIN, 3026 GA 252 E, Folkston, GA 31537

NEXT FRIEND:

Name: Lariatna Arnedo Pérez

Status: Lawful Permanent Resident of the United States

Nationality: Cuban

Date of Birth: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 because Petitioner is in federal custody within the Southern District of Georgia. Venue is proper in the Brunswick Division pursuant to the immediate custodian rule established in Rumsfeld v. Padilla, 542 U.S. 426 (2004).

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

Petitioner Yandri Castillo Aller was arrested after contacting local authorities in good faith regarding the towing of his trailer. When police arrived, Petitioner was asked for identification. He did not possess the physical driver's license card at that moment, but only a renewal receipt, as the physical card had not yet been delivered. Despite this, he was arrested.

Authorities initially claimed the arrest was due to a missed appointment; however, no documentary evidence was provided. Subsequently, the explanation changed, alleging lack of a valid driver's license. This shifting justification demonstrates arbitrariness and lack of due process.

Petitioner previously faced a minor criminal charge related to alleged indecent exposure, which was factually misinterpreted. The incident involved a medical condition causing genital irritation. Petitioner successfully completed probation, and the case was closed. There are no pending criminal matters.

III. FAMILY TIES AND EXTREME HARDSHIP

Petitioner is the father of three minor children: a five-year-old daughter born in Cuba, a three-year-old son born in the United States, and a seven-month-old infant born in the United States. These children are emotionally and financially dependent on Petitioner, who was the sole economic provider for the household.

IV. CONDITIONS OF CONFINEMENT

Petitioner reports severe psychological mistreatment, overcrowding, insufficient and spoiled food, and rationed water. Such conditions violate constitutional standards under the Fifth Amendment and established federal jurisprudence.

V. LEGAL ARGUMENTS

A. Prolonged Detention Violates Due Process

Under Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678 (2001), and Jennings v. Rodriguez, 583 U.S. ___ (2018), civil immigration detention cannot be indefinite or arbitrary. Petitioner's prolonged detention without individualized bond review violates substantive and procedural due process.

B. Arbitrary Arrest and Shifting Justifications

Arrests based on inconsistent explanations violate the Fourth and Fifth Amendments. See County of Riverside v. McLaughlin, 500 U.S. 44 (1991).

C. Family Unity and Humanitarian Factors

The Supreme Court has recognized the fundamental right to family integrity. See Moore v. City of East Cleveland, 431 U.S. 494 (1977). Petitioner's detention causes irreparable harm to U.S. citizen children.

D. Pending Adjustment of Status

Petitioner has a pending Form I-485, demonstrating eligibility for lawful permanent residence and negating any alleged flight risk.

VI. RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Grant the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus;

2. Order Petitioner's immediate release or, in the alternative, a prompt individualized bond hearing;
3. Enjoin Respondents from continued unlawful detention;
4. Grant any other relief this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

DECLARATION OF NEXT FRIEND
(LARIATNA ARNEDO PÉREZ)
IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS
28 U.S.C. § 2241

I, Lariatna Arnedo Pérez, hereby declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the following statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge:

I. DECLARANT INFORMATION

1. My name is Lariatna Arnedo Pérez. I am a Lawful Permanent Resident of the United States.
2. I was born on [REDACTED] and I am a national of Cuba.
3. My current address is [REDACTED]
4. My telephone number is [REDACTED] and my email address is [REDACTED]
5. I am the sister-in-law of the Petitioner, Yandri Castillo Aller, and I submit this declaration as his Next Friend.

II. RELATIONSHIP TO PETITIONER AND NEXT FRIEND STANDING

6. I have a close familial relationship with Yandri Castillo Aller and have direct knowledge of his family situation, character, and the hardship caused by his detention.
7. Due to Petitioner's detention, limited access to legal resources, and psychological distress, he is unable to fully advocate for himself, making my role as Next Friend necessary and appropriate.

III. FACTS SURROUNDING PETITIONER'S ARREST AND DETENTION

8. On or about September 30, 2025, Yandri Castillo Aller was arrested after attempting in good faith to resolve the towing of his trailer. When police arrived, he was asked for documentation.
9. At that time, he only possessed a driver's license renewal receipt because the physical license card had not yet been delivered.
10. Authorities initially claimed the arrest was due to a missed appointment, but no evidence was presented. Later, the justification changed to an alleged lack of a valid driver's license.

IV. PRIOR CRIMINAL MATTER

11. I am aware that Petitioner had a prior minor criminal charge related to alleged indecent exposure, which was factually misinterpreted. The incident involved a medical condition causing severe irritation.
12. Petitioner completed all court requirements, successfully finished probation, and the case was closed. He has no pending criminal charges.

V. FAMILY HARDSHIP AND DEPENDENCE

13. Petitioner is the father of three minor children: a five-year-old daughter born in Cuba, a three-year-old son born in the United States, and a seven-month-old infant born in the United States.
14. Petitioner was the primary financial provider and an essential emotional support for his family.
15. Since his detention, the family has suffered severe emotional, psychological, and financial hardship.

VI. CONDITIONS OF CONFINEMENT

16. Petitioner has informed me of overcrowding, psychological mistreatment, inadequate and spoiled food, and rationed water at the detention facility.
17. These conditions have caused him significant emotional distress and anxiety.

VII. NO FLIGHT RISK AND GOOD MORAL CHARACTER

18. Petitioner has strong family and community ties within the United States.
19. He has a pending Form I-485 and has always attempted to comply with immigration requirements.
20. Based on my knowledge, Petitioner does not pose a danger to the community and is not a flight risk.

VIII. DECLARATION

I submit this declaration in support of Petitioner's request for immediate release and expedited review. Continued detention has caused and continues to cause irreparable harm to Petitioner and his family.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

GOOD MORAL CHARACTER / SPOUSAL LETTER OF SUPPORT

[City, State]

[Date]

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Laritza Arnedo Pérez, and I write this letter with the utmost humility to respectfully plead on behalf of my husband, Yandri Castillo.

There are not enough words to describe the overwhelming and unbreakable pain I am experiencing at this moment. My husband is an incredible person. He may not be perfect in the eyes of the world, but to me, he is the best. He is the best husband and the best father. He is the light of our home and our place of refuge. When he is with us, everything feels right and complete.

Yandri is the pillar of our family. We have three beautiful children who wait for their father every single day. When they ask me, "When is Daddy coming home?" my voice breaks, and I do not know how to answer them. Seeing their sadness is the greatest pain a mother can endure.

With all my faith in God, and with the deepest respect for your authority, I humbly ask that he be given an opportunity—just one opportunity—to demonstrate who he truly is: a devoted family man, a loving father, and a human being who deserves to be at home with those who need him the most.

With my heart in my hands,

Laritza Arnedo Pérez

Wife of Yandri Castillo

GOOD MORAL CHARACTER LETTER

[City, State]

[Date]

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Lariatna Arnedo Pérez, and I am the sister-in-law of Yandri Castillo. I write this letter with a humble heart to respectfully ask that he be given a second opportunity.

I have known Yandri since he became part of our family when I was only eleven years old. I clearly remember that he was the only boyfriend my sister ever brought home, and to me, he was the best. Eight years have passed, and today I can truly say that I love him like a brother. Throughout these years, he has been present in my life not only as family, but also as a father figure, always supporting me and our entire family in every possible way.

Yandri is an excellent husband, and as a father, he is simply exceptional. My nephews describe him as their "superhero." Since Yandri's absence, the light in those children's eyes has faded. They desperately need him back at home, where his love, guidance, and presence are essential.

We believe in a God of second chances, and we sincerely pray that one is granted to him. Nothing from Yandri's past defines the person he is today. I respectfully ask that he be allowed to return home so that my nephews may once again be the children whose eyes shone with happiness when they saw their father walk through the door.

Respectfully,

Lariatna Arnedo Pérez

GOOD MORAL CHARACTER / EMPLOYER LETTER OF SUPPORT

[City, State]

[Date]

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Jorge Burgos Betancourt, and I am the owner of the transportation company [Company Name]. I write this letter to express my strongest and most sincere support for Yandri Castillo, who worked with our company providing hotshot transportation services using his own equipment.

Yandri is a genuine individual and, without hesitation, one of the best workers I have ever had the pleasure of employing. As a driver, he was consistently punctual, highly reliable, and extremely dedicated. My dispatchers had complete trust in him because they knew that every load would be delivered on time. Whenever we needed him, the answer was never "no."

What impressed me most was his strong desire to improve himself and his constant effort to achieve financial stability for his family. I clearly remember telling him many times, "Yandri, you need to rest," and his response was always, "Don't worry, I'll keep going." That level of dedication came directly from his love and sense of responsibility as a father and husband. His family is healthy, united, and clearly his highest priority.

I can personally attest that any mistake from the past does not define the admirable man Yandri is today. He is a person with strong moral character, discipline, and an exceptional work ethic. Yandri has much to contribute to this great country, and individuals like him are the backbone of our industry.

His family needs him desperately, and from a business owner's perspective, I can confidently state that workers with Yandri's character, responsibility, and dedication are exactly the type of people who strengthen our workforce and our communities.

Respectfully,

Jorge Burgos Betancourt

GOOD MORAL CHARACTER / LETTER OF SUPPORT

Panama City, Florida

January 4, 2026

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Jorge Félix Corzo Hernández. Through this letter, I respectfully wish to express my full support for Mr. Yandri Castillo, the father of three young children and an essential pillar for his family.

I have known Yandri Castillo and can attest that he is a hardworking, responsible man who is deeply devoted to his home and family. He has consistently demonstrated love, care, and commitment toward his children. His absence has had a profound emotional impact on them, especially given their young age and their constant need for a father figure.

Prior to his detention, Mr. Castillo was the primary financial provider for his household. Currently, his wife faces alone the responsibility of working while caring for three small children, creating an extremely difficult and painful situation for the entire family.

Based on my personal knowledge and observations, Yandri Castillo is a man of good moral character, strong values, respect, and a deep sense of family responsibility. His presence is essential to the emotional well-being and stability of his children.

With the utmost respect, I kindly ask that the significant impact his detention is having on his family, and particularly on his minor children, be taken into serious consideration.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Jorge Félix Corzo Hernández

Good Moral Character Letter

With the utmost respect for your authority, I write this letter as the sister of Yandri Castillo Aller. I submit this statement with humility and sincere hope that it will allow you to understand the true essence of my brother.

I grew up with Yandri, and I can confidently say that he is a man fully devoted to his loved ones. His absence has left a deep and painful void in our family, especially in the lives of his three children, who ask every day, with desperation and confusion, where their father is. Witnessing my nephews suffer in this way has been an overwhelming burden for our entire family.

We acknowledge that there was a misunderstanding in the past; however, I state from the bottom of my heart that this incident does not define who my brother is as a man, as a father, or as a son. He is a good and honorable person whose only desire is to work honestly, contribute positively to this great nation, and provide a stable and loving future for his children.

Since that incident, Yandri's conduct has been exemplary. He has demonstrated through his actions that his highest priorities are his family, personal responsibility, and respect for the law.

As a family, we place our trust in God and submit this process into His hands, firmly believing that He will bring justice, compassion, and the family unity that we so desperately need.

Respectfully submitted,

Name: Vivian Ada

Relationship: Sister of Yandri Castillo Aller

Notice to Respondent

Warning: Any statement you make may be used against you in removal proceedings.

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are in removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to 8 CFR 1003.16. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents that you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing. At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear, including that you are inadmissible or removable. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge. You will be advised by the immigration judge before whom you appear of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible including the privilege of voluntary departure. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

One-Year Asylum Application Deadline: If you believe you may be eligible for asylum, you must file a Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal. The Form I-589, Instructions, and information on where to file the Form can be found at www.uscis.gov/i-589. Failure to file the Form I-589 within one year of arrival may bar you from eligibility to apply for asylum pursuant to section 208(a)(2)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Failure to appear: You are required to provide the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), in writing, with your full mailing address and telephone number. You must notify the Immigration Court and the DHS immediately by using Form EOIR-33 whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding. You will be provided with a copy of this form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you do not submit Form EOIR-33 and do not otherwise provide an address at which you may be reached during proceedings, then the Government shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, or any date and time later directed by the Immigration Court, a removal order may be made by the immigration judge in your absence, and you may be arrested and detained by the DHS.

Mandatory Duty to Surrender for Removal: If you become subject to a final order of removal, you must surrender for removal to your local DHS office, listed on the internet at http://www.ice.gov/contact/ero, as directed by the DHS and required by statute and regulation. Immigration regulations at 8 CFR 1241.1 define when the removal order becomes administratively final. If you are granted voluntary departure and fail to depart the United States as required, fail to post a bond in connection with voluntary departure, or fail to comply with any other condition or term in connection with voluntary departure, you must surrender for removal on the next business day thereafter. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you will be ineligible for all forms of discretionary relief for as long as you remain in the United States and for ten years after your departure or removal. This means you will be ineligible for asylum, cancellation of removal, voluntary departure, adjustment of status, change of nonimmigrant status, registry, and related waivers for this period. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you may also be criminally prosecuted under section 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

U.S. Citizenship Claims: If you believe you are a United States citizen, please advise the DHS by calling the ICE Law Enforcement Support Center toll free at (855) 448-6903.

Sensitive locations: To the extent that an enforcement action leading to a removal proceeding was taken against Respondent at a location described in 8 U.S.C. § 1229(a)(1), such action complied with 8 U.S.C. § 1367.

Request for Prompt Hearing

To expedite a determination in my case, I request this Notice to Appear be filed with the Executive Office for Immigration Review as soon as possible. I waive my right to a 10-day period prior to appearing before an immigration judge and request my hearing be scheduled.
