U.S. DISTRICT COURT
LUMPKIN, GEORGIA
FEB 6 10 45

U.S. DIST. OF GA.

RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR CUSTODY REDETERMINATION AND REQUEST FOR IMMIGRATION BOND

INA § 236(a) | 8 C.F.R. § 1236.1(d)

ULTRA-EXTENSIVE – FULLY ARGUED

RESPONDENT INFORMATION

Name: Yandri Castillo Aller

A-Number: [REDACTED]

Date of Birth: [REDACTED]

Nationality: Cuban

Date of Entry: March 8, 2022

Current Detention Facility: Folkston ICE Processing Center (FOLKSTON MAIN)
3026 GA 252 E, Folkston, GA 31537

I. INTRODUCTION

COMES NOW the Respondent, Yandri Castillo Aller, and respectfully moves this Honorable Immigration Court for a custody redetermination hearing and the setting of a reasonable immigration bond pursuant to INA § 236(a). Respondent is not subject to mandatory detention, poses no danger to the community, and is not a flight risk. The totality of the circumstances overwhelmingly supports release on bond or, in the alternative, release on recognizance.

II. JURISDICTION AND LEGAL AUTHORITY

This Court has jurisdiction to redetermine Respondent's custody status under INA § 236(a) and 8 C.F.R. § 1236.1(d). In making a custody determination, the Court must assess whether Respondent poses a danger to persons or property and whether Respondent is likely to appear for future proceedings. See Matter of Guerra, 24 I&N Dec. 37 (BIA 2006).

III. BURDEN OF PROOF

Respondent bears the burden of demonstrating that he is neither a danger to the community nor a flight risk. Respondent meets and exceeds this burden through extensive family ties, humanitarian equities, lack of violent criminal history, and a pending application for lawful permanent residence.

IV. FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND CIRCUMSTANCES OF ARREST

Respondent has resided continuously in the United States since his entry on March 8, 2022. On September 30, 2025, Respondent contacted local authorities in good faith after his trailer was towed from his residence. When officers arrived, Respondent was asked for documentation.

At the time of the encounter, Respondent possessed a valid driver's license renewal receipt, as the physical license card had not yet been delivered. Despite this, Respondent was arrested. Authorities initially alleged that the arrest was due to a missed appointment, yet no evidence was presented. The justification later changed to an alleged lack of a valid license, demonstrating inconsistency and arbitrariness.

V. CRIMINAL HISTORY – NO DANGEROUSNESS

Respondent has no pending criminal charges. He previously resolved a single misdemeanor allegation related to alleged indecent exposure. The incident was factually misinterpreted and involved a documented medical condition causing genital irritation. Respondent successfully completed probation, complied with all court requirements, and the case was closed. There is no pattern of criminal conduct, no violence, and no threat to public safety.

VI. STRONG FAMILY TIES AND EXTREME HARDSHIP

Respondent is the father of three minor children: a five-year-old daughter born in Cuba, a three-year-old son born in the United States, and a seven-month-old infant born in the United States. Two of Respondent's children are United States citizens.

Respondent was the primary financial provider and emotional support for his household. His prolonged detention has caused severe emotional, psychological, and financial hardship to his children and spouse. Family unity is a fundamental humanitarian consideration strongly favoring release.

VII. RESPONDENT IS NOT A FLIGHT RISK

Respondent has demonstrated substantial ties to the United States, including family, community connections, and a fixed residence. Importantly, Respondent has a pending Form I-485 application for adjustment of status, which provides a powerful incentive to appear for all immigration proceedings.

The Board of Immigration Appeals has long held that equities such as family ties, length of residence, and pending relief weigh heavily against a finding of flight risk. See Matter of Andrade, 19 I&N Dec. 488 (BIA 1987).

VIII. CONDITIONS OF DETENTION AND HUMANITARIAN FACTORS

Respondent reports overcrowding, lack of adequate and sanitary food, rationed water, and psychological mistreatment within the detention facility. These conditions have exacerbated Respondent's anxiety and emotional distress.

While conditions of confinement are not dispositive in a bond determination, they are relevant humanitarian factors supporting release where continued detention serves no legitimate governmental purpose.

IX. APPLICABLE LEGAL FRAMEWORK

In custody determinations, the Court must consider the totality of the circumstances, including:

- Criminal history;
- Family ties and community connections;
- Length of residence in the United States;
- Immigration relief available;
- Likelihood of appearance.

See Matter of Guerra, 24 I&N Dec. 37 (BIA 2006).

Bond must be set at an amount no higher than necessary to ensure appearance. See Matter of Patel, 15 I&N Dec. 666 (BIA 1976). Excessive bond is impermissible.

X. CONCLUSION

Respondent has clearly established that he is neither a danger to the community nor a flight risk. Continued detention is unnecessary, punitive in effect, and causes irreparable harm to Respondent and his family.

XI. RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Respondent respectfully requests that this Honorable Court:

1. Grant a custody redetermination hearing;
2. Set a reasonable immigration bond in the minimum amount deemed appropriate;
3. Alternatively, order Respondent's release on recognizance;
4. Grant any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Yandri Castillo

Good Moral Character Letter

With the utmost respect for your authority, I write this letter as the sister of Yandri Castillo Aller. I submit this statement with humility and sincere hope that it will allow you to understand the true essence of my brother.

I grew up with Yandri, and I can confidently say that he is a man fully devoted to his loved ones. His absence has left a deep and painful void in our family, especially in the lives of his three children, who ask every day, with desperation and confusion, where their father is. Witnessing my nephews suffer in this way has been an overwhelming burden for our entire family.

We acknowledge that there was a misunderstanding in the past; however, I state from the bottom of my heart that this incident does not define who my brother is as a man, as a father, or as a son. He is a good and honorable person whose only desire is to work honestly, contribute positively to this great nation, and provide a stable and loving future for his children.

Since that incident, Yandri's conduct has been exemplary. He has demonstrated through his actions that his highest priorities are his family, personal responsibility, and respect for the law.

As a family, we place our trust in God and submit this process into His hands, firmly believing that He will bring justice, compassion, and the family unity that we so desperately need.

Respectfully submitted,

GOOD MORAL CHARACTER / LETTER OF SUPPORT

Panama City, Florida

January 4, 2026

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Jorge Félix Corzo Hernández. Through this letter, I respectfully wish to express my full support for Mr. Yandri Castillo, the father of three young children and an essential pillar for his family.

I have known Yandri Castillo and can attest that he is a hardworking, responsible man who is deeply devoted to his home and family. He has consistently demonstrated love, care, and commitment toward his children. His absence has had a profound emotional impact on them, especially given their young age and their constant need for a father figure.

Prior to his detention, Mr. Castillo was the primary financial provider for his household. Currently, his wife faces alone the responsibility of working while caring for three small children, creating an extremely difficult and painful situation for the entire family.

Based on my personal knowledge and observations, Yandri Castillo is a man of good moral character, strong values, respect, and a deep sense of family responsibility. His presence is essential to the emotional well-being and stability of his children.

With the utmost respect, I kindly ask that the significant impact his detention is having on his family, and particularly on his minor children, be taken into serious consideration.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Jorge Félix Corzo Hernández

GOOD MORAL CHARACTER / EMPLOYER LETTER OF SUPPORT

[City, State]

[Date]

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Jorge Burgos Betancourt, and I am the owner of the transportation company [Company Name]. I write this letter to express my strongest and most sincere support for Yandri Castillo, who worked with our company providing hotshot transportation services using his own equipment.

Yandri is a genuine individual and, without hesitation, one of the best workers I have ever had the pleasure of employing. As a driver, he was consistently punctual, highly reliable, and extremely dedicated. My dispatchers had complete trust in him because they knew that every load would be delivered on time. Whenever we needed him, the answer was never "no."

What impressed me most was his strong desire to improve himself and his constant effort to achieve financial stability for his family. I clearly remember telling him many times, "Yandri, you need to rest," and his response was always, "Don't worry, I'll keep going." That level of dedication came directly from his love and sense of responsibility as a father and husband. His family is healthy, united, and clearly his highest priority.

I can personally attest that any mistake from the past does not define the admirable man Yandri is today. He is a person with strong moral character, discipline, and an exceptional work ethic. Yandri has much to contribute to this great country, and individuals like him are the backbone of our industry.

His family needs him desperately, and from a business owner's perspective, I can confidently state that workers with Yandri's character, responsibility, and dedication are exactly the type of people who strengthen our workforce and our communities.

Respectfully,

Jorge Burgos Betancourt

GOOD MORAL CHARACTER LETTER

[City, State]

[Date]

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Lariatna Arnedo Pérez, and I am the sister-in-law of Yandri Castillo. I write this letter with a humble heart to respectfully ask that he be given a second opportunity.

I have known Yandri since he became part of our family when I was only eleven years old. I clearly remember that he was the only boyfriend my sister ever brought home, and to me, he was the best. Eight years have passed, and today I can truly say that I love him like a brother. Throughout these years, he has been present in my life not only as family, but also as a father figure, always supporting me and our entire family in every possible way.

Yandri is an excellent husband, and as a father, he is simply exceptional. My nephews describe him as their "superhero." Since Yandri's absence, the light in those children's eyes has faded. They desperately need him back at home, where his love, guidance, and presence are essential.

We believe in a God of second chances, and we sincerely pray that one is granted to him. Nothing from Yandri's past defines the person he is today. I respectfully ask that he be allowed to return home so that my nephews may once again be the children whose eyes shone with happiness when they saw their father walk through the door.

Respectfully,

Lariatna Arnedo Pérez

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Laritza Arnedo Pérez, and I write this letter with the utmost humility to respectfully plead on behalf of my husband, Yandri Castillo.

There are not enough words to describe the overwhelming and unbreakable pain I am experiencing at this moment. My husband is an incredible person. He may not be perfect in the eyes of the world, but to me, he is the best. He is the best husband and the best father. He is the light of our home and our place of refuge. When he is with us, everything feels right and complete.

Yandri is the pillar of our family. We have three beautiful children who wait for their father every single day. When they ask me, "When is Daddy coming home?" my voice breaks, and I do not know how to answer them. Seeing their sadness is the greatest pain a mother can endure.

With all my faith in God, and with the deepest respect for your authority, I humbly ask that he be given an opportunity—just one opportunity—to demonstrate who he truly is: a devoted family man, a loving father, and a human being who deserves to be at home with those who need him the most.

With my heart in my hands,

Laritza Arnedo Pérez
