DETAINED

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

ENRIQUEZ-GUERRA, ENRIQUE

Petitioner,

v.

FIELD OFFICE DIRECTOR, RIPA GARRET,
U.S. IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT,

Respondent.

Case No. 1:26cv20828

PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Introduction

Petitioner, Enrique Enriquez-Guerra, respectfully submits this Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241, seeking immediate release from detention by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Petitioner has been detained since October 16, 2025, following the Immigration Judges decision granting DHSs ore tenus motion to dismiss removal proceedings without prejudice. Petitioner asserts that his continued detention violates his constitutional rights under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment.

Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this Petition pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241, as Petitioner is in custody under the authority of the United States, and his detention violates the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States.
2. Venue is proper in the Southern District of Florida because Petitioner is detained within this district at a facility under the jurisdiction of DHS in Broward Transitional Center Located At 3900 N. Powerline Rd., Pompano Beach, Fl 33073.

Parties

3. Petitioner, Enrique Enriquez-Guerra, is a native and citizen of Cuba who has been detained by DHS since October 16, 2025. A true and correct copy of Petitioner's Cuban passport is hereby attached as Exhibit A.
4. Respondent, the Department of Homeland Security, is the federal agency responsible for Petitioner's detention, corresponding Field Office Director, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement are also involved in the detention of Mr. Guerra.

Factual Background

5. Petitioner entered the United States on or about March 5, 2022, near Ysleta, Texas, and was subsequently placed in removal proceedings under Section 240 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. A true and correct copy of Petitioner's Notice to Appear is hereby attached as Exhibit AB.

6. On October 16, 2025, during the second Master Calendar Hearing, the Immigration Judge granted DHSs ore tenus motion to dismiss the removal proceedings without prejudice, despite Petitioners objection and stated intent to pursue asylum relief. A true and correct copy of the Order of Dismissal is hereby attached as Exhibit C.
7. Petitioner timely filed an appeal of the Immigration Judges decision with the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) on October 22, 2025, asserting that the dismissal violated his procedural and substantive due process rights. A true and correct copy of Petitioner's E-26 is hereby attached as Exhibit D.
8. Specifically, Respondent contends there was a violation of Due Process, as he was not provided with a reasonable and adequate opportunity to oppose the DHS Motion to Dismiss, thus impairing his right to a fair hearing. Id.
9. Petitioner has been detained since October 16, 2025, and remains in custody without a bond determination, as his pre-Notice to Appear (NTA) bond request was not accepted. A true and correct copy of the order rejecting bond is hereby attached as Exhibit E.
9. Petitioner has not been afforded a meaningful opportunity to challenge the legality of his detention or to seek release on bond.

Legal Basis

10. Petitioners continued detention violates the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment, as it is arbitrary, punitive, and not reasonably related to any legitimate government purpose.
11. Under Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 121 S. Ct. 2491 (2001), detention of noncitizens is permissible only for a period reasonably necessary to secure removal. In this case, removal proceedings have been dismissed without prejudice, and there is no imminent prospect of removal.

12. Petitioners detention is further unlawful under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a), which provides for the possibility of release on bond pending the resolution of removal proceedings. Petitioner has been denied this opportunity.
13. The Immigration Judges decision to grant DHSs motion to dismiss without affording Petitioner a fair opportunity to present his asylum claim or seek other relief constitutes a violation of procedural due process.

Relief Requested

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus directing Respondent to immediately release Petitioner from custody;
2. Declare that Petitioners continued detention violates the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment;
3. Order Respondent to provide Petitioner with a bond hearing before an Immigration Judge within seven (7) days;
4. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Leslie Cabrera

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are in removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to 8 CFR 1003.16. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents that you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing. At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear, including that you are inadmissible or removable. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

One-Year Asylum Application Deadline: If you believe you may be eligible for asylum, you must file a Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal. The Form I-589, Instructions, and information on where to file the Form can be found at www.uscis.gov/i-589. AMENDED ORDER ON MOTION TO DISMISS

The Respondent the Department of Homeland Security the parties jointly has/have filed a motion to dismiss these proceedings under 8 CFR 1239.2(c). The moving party has given notice of the motion to the non-moving party and the court has provided the non-moving party with an opportunity to respond. The motion is opposed unopposed.

After considering the facts and circumstances, the immigration court orders that the motion to dismiss is:

- Granted without prejudice
- Denied

Further explanation:

The Department of Homeland Security has orally motioned to dismiss these removal proceedings. DHS has the authority to move to dismiss a case where “[c]ircumstances in the case have changed after the notice to appear was issued to such an extent that continuation is no longer in the best interest of the government,” 8 C.F.R. § 239.2(a)(7), see also 8 C.F.R. §§ 239.2(c), and 1239.2(c). DHS, however, does not have unilateral authority to cancel a Notice to Appear once removal proceedings have commenced. See Matter of Ferreira, 28 I&N Dec. 765, 767 (BIA 2023).

The Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) has consistently held that a Respondent does not have a due process right to be in, and remain in, removal proceedings. Matter of Andrade, 27 I&N 557, 559 (BIA 2019); Matter of H.N. Ferreira, 28 I&N 765, 768 n. 2 (BIA 2023). The judge should consider the imminency of the respondent’s removal and whether the respondent can seek relief from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). See Matter of Santos, 19 I&N 105, 107 (BIA 1984).

In the instant case, this is the second Master Calendar Hearing before the court. Here, the Respondent objects because he wishes to pursue asylum before the court. He has not applied for any other relief before the court or USCIS which would warrant the denial of DHS's motion to dismiss.

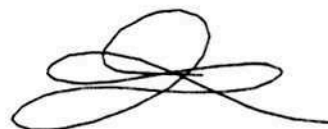

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that DHS's Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED.

IT IS ORDERED that these removal proceedings be DISMISSED without prejudice.

Appeal reserved by Respondent November 17, 2025.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Enrique Enriquez Guerra, 240565644

The Respondent respectfully appeals the Immigration Judge's decision granting the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) oral Motion to Dismiss the proceedings. The Respondent asserts that DHS's Motion to Dismiss was improperly and untimely made. The Respondent was not afforded the opportunity to obtain counsel to respond to the complex legal motion. By granting the DHS Motion to Dismiss, the Respondent was effectively prohibited from having his asylum application and other relief such as adjustment of status fully considered and heard by the Immigration Court, contrary to established procedural rights. The Respondent further argues that the DHS Motion to Dismiss represents an improper exercise of prosecutorial discretion, as it was based on selective prosecution or arbitrary criteria rather than objective and equitable standards. Finally, the Respondent contends there was a violation of Due Process, as he was not provided with a reasonable and adequate opportunity to oppose the DHS Motion to Dismiss, thus impairing his right to a fair hearing. For these reasons, the Respondent respectfully requests that the Immigration Judge's decision granting the DHS Motion to Dismiss be reversed, and that proceedings be reinstated to ensure a fair hearing on the merits of the asylum application and other relief.

(Attach additional sheets if necessary)
