Grounds for Your Challenge in This Petition

13. State every ground (reason) that supports your claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Attach additional pages if you have more than four grounds. State the facts supporting each ground. Any legal arguments must be submitted in a separate memorandum.

GROUND ONE: I had a federal case open and that's how I ended up in custody of immigration. My federal case has been dropped and I have no criminal record, yet I am still being held in immigration detention center without the chance to get a bond.

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

I had a federal case open. My case number was 5:25CB6-1. That case has now been dropped. The action of immigration detaining me was not done properly. I am being held without bond.

(b) Did you present Ground One in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes

☒ No

GROUND TWO: I am in process of obtaining my residency, I am married to a U.S. Citizen and am the father of a 18 month old child that is a U.S. citizen. They both count on me for support and being detained here is causing them distress.

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

I been married with a U.S. citizen since August 2025. I been in process with immigration since 2023 to obtain legal status. I have a valid social security number, drivers license and work authorization.

(b) Did you present Ground Two in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes

☒ No

GROUND THREE: Due to the fact that I have been detained unlawfully, my family and my life have been deeply affected. I have lost precious time with my family and this has caused me much distress.

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

I was arrested on a federal charge even though I was innocent. My federal case has been dismissed, yet immigration still took custody of me and holds me without bond. My mental and physical health here has gone down and so has my family's.

(b) Did you present Ground Three in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes

☒ No

AO 242 (Rev. 09/17) Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus Under 28 U.S.C. § 2241

GROUND FOUR: Due to me being detained my family and I have lost our home and now rely on others for support. If I were not detained I would be able to be supporting my family outside of here.

(a) Supporting facts (Be brief. Do not cite cases or law.):

We lost our home and my family is struggling to live a normal life. I am falling into deeper debt due to the fact of being detained without a chance for bond.

(b) Did you present Ground Four in all appeals that were available to you?

☐ Yes

☒ No

14. If there are any grounds that you did not present in all appeals that were available to you, explain why you did not:

Request for Relief

15. State exactly what you want the court to do: I would like the court to approve my petition for Habeas corpus so then the immigration court here at the detention center can have jurisdiction to approve me for a bond so I can return to my family and continue my process to obtain legal status.

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 2241

Instructions

1. Who Should Use This Form. You should use this form if
 - you are a federal prisoner and you wish to challenge the way your sentence is being carried out (for example, you claim that the Bureau of Prisons miscalculated your sentence or failed to properly award good time credits);
 - you are in federal or state custody because of something other than a judgment of conviction (for example, you are in pretrial detention or are awaiting extradition); or
 - you are alleging that you are illegally detained in immigration custody.
2. Who Should Not Use This Form. You should not use this form if
 - you are challenging the validity of a federal judgment of conviction and sentence (these challenges are generally raised in a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255);
 - you are challenging the validity of a state judgment of conviction and sentence (these challenges are generally raised in a petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254); or
 - you are challenging a final order of removal in an immigration case (these challenges are generally raised in a petition for review directly with a United States Court of Appeals).
3. Preparing the Petition. The petition must be typed or neatly written, and you must sign and date it under penalty of perjury. A false statement may lead to prosecution.
4. Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite law. You may submit additional pages if necessary. If you do not fill out the form properly, you will be asked to submit additional or correct information. If you want to submit any legal arguments, you must submit them in a separate memorandum. Be aware that any such memorandum may be subject to page limits set forth in the local rules of the court where you file this petition. If you attach additional pages, number the pages and identify which section of the petition is being continued. All filings must be submitted on paper sized 8½ by 11 inches. Do not use the back of any page.
5. Supporting Documents. In addition to your petition, you must send to the court a copy of the decisions you are challenging and a copy of any briefs or administrative remedy forms filed in your case.
6. Required Filing Fee. You must include the $5 filing fee required by 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). If you are unable to pay the filing fee, you must ask the court for permission to proceed in forma pauperis – that is, as a person who cannot pay the filing fee – by submitting the documents that the court requires.
7. Submitting Documents to the Court. Mail your petition and _____ copies to the clerk of the United States District Court for the district and division in which you are confined. For a list of districts and divisions, see 28 U.S.C. §§ 81-131. All copies must be identical to the original. Copies may be legibly handwritten.

If you want a file-stamped copy of the petition, you must enclose an additional copy of the petition and ask the court to file-stamp it and return it to you.
8. Change of Address. You must immediately notify the court in writing of any change of address. If you do not, the court may dismiss your case.
