Notice to Respondent

Warning: Any statement you make may be used against you in removal proceedings.

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are in removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to 8 CFR 1003.16. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents that you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing. At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear, including that you are inadmissible or removable. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge. You will be advised by the immigration judge before whom you appear of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible including the privilege of voluntary departure. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

One-Year Asylum Application Deadline: If you believe you may be eligible for asylum, you must file a Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal. The Form I-589, Instructions, and information on where to file the Form can be found at www.uscis.gov/I-589. Failure to file the Form I-589 within one year of arrival may bar you from eligibility to apply for asylum pursuant to section 208(a)(2)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

Failure to appear: You are required to provide the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), in writing, with your full mailing address and telephone number. You must notify the Immigration Court and the DHS immediately by using Form EOIR-33 whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding. You will be provided with a copy of this form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you do not submit Form EOIR-33 and do not otherwise provide an address at which you may be reached during proceedings, then the Government shall not be required to provide you with written notice of your hearing. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, or any date and time later directed by the Immigration Court, a removal order may be made by the immigration judge in your absence, and you may be arrested and detained by the DHS.

Mandatory Duty to Surrender for Removal: If you become subject to a final order of removal, you must surrender for removal to your local DHS office, listed on the Internet at <http://www.ice.gov/contact/ero>, as directed by the DHS and required by statute and regulation. Immigration regulations at 8 CFR 1241.1 define when the removal order becomes administratively final. If you are granted voluntary departure and fail to depart the United States as required, fail to post a bond in connection with voluntary departure, or fail to comply with any other condition or term in connection with voluntary departure, you must surrender for removal on the next business day thereafter. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you will be ineligible for all forms of discretionary relief for as long as you remain in the United States and for ten years after your departure or removal. This means you will be ineligible for asylum, cancellation of removal, voluntary departure, adjustment of status, change of nonimmigrant status, registry, and related waivers for this period. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you may also be criminally prosecuted under section 243 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

U.S. Citizenship Claims: If you believe you are a United States citizen, please advise the DHS by calling the ICE Law Enforcement Support Center toll free at (855) 448-6903.

Sensitive locations: To the extent that an enforcement action leading to a removal proceeding was taken against Respondent at a location described in 8 U.S.C. § 1229(e)(1), such action complied with 8 U.S.C. § 1367.

Privacy Act Statement

Authority:

The Department of Homeland Security through U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) are authorized to collect the information requested on this form pursuant to Sections 103, 237, 239, 240, and 290 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended (8 U.S.C. 1103, 1229, 1229a, and 1360), and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

Purpose:

You are being asked to sign and date this Notice to Appear (NTA) as an acknowledgement of personal receipt of this notice. This notice, when filed with the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), initiates removal proceedings. The NTA contains information regarding the nature of the proceedings against you, the legal authority under which proceedings are conducted, the acts or conduct alleged against you to be in violation of law, the charges against you, and the statutory provisions alleged to have been violated. The NTA also includes information about the conduct of the removal hearing, your right to representation at no expense to the government, the requirement to inform EOIR of any change in address, the consequences for failing to appear, and that generally, if you wish to apply for asylum, you must do so within one year of your arrival in the United States. If you choose to sign and date the NTA, that information will be used to confirm that you received it, and for recordkeeping.

Routine Uses:

For United States Citizens, Lawful Permanent Residents, or individuals whose records are covered by the Judicial Redress Act of 2015 (5 U.S.C. § 552a note), your information may be disclosed in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b), including pursuant to the routine uses published in the following DHS systems of records notices (SORN): DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records, DHS/USCIS-007 Benefit Information System, DHS/ICE-011 Criminal Arrest Records and Immigration Enforcement Records (CARIER), and DHS/ICE-003 General Counsel Electronic Management System (GEMS), and DHS/CBP-023 Border Patrol Enforcement Records (BPER). These SORNs can be viewed at <https://www.dhs.gov/system-records-notices-sorn>. When disclosed to the DOJ's EOIR for immigration proceedings, this information that is maintained and used by DOJ is covered by the following DOJ SORN: EOIR-001, Records and Management Information System, or any updated or successor SORN, which can be viewed at <https://www.justice.gov/opcl/doj-systems-records>. Further, your information may be disclosed pursuant to routine uses described in the abovementioned DHS SORNs or DOJ EOIR SORN to federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement agencies for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

For all others, as appropriate under United States law and DHS policy, the information you provide may be shared internally within DHS, as well as with federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement; other government agencies; and other parties for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

Disclosure:

Providing your signature and the date of your signature is voluntary. There are no effects on you for not providing your signature and date; however, removal proceedings may continue notwithstanding the failure or refusal to provide this information.

FILE NO. A [REDACTED]

RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR BOND/CUSTODY
REDETERMINATION HEARING

LUIS DAVID PORTILLO-BEJARANO, the respondent, through undersigned counsel, and pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19, requests that a bond/custody redetermination hearing be scheduled, and in support would show:

I.
RELEVANT FACTS

1. The respondent is detained at the El Paso Processing Center in El Paso, Texas and is not ineligible for bond under INA § 236(c).
2. The respondent is a native and citizen of Mexico who entered the United States on or about January 1, 2021. See NTA.
3. The respondent's fiancée, Andrea Villareal Alarcon, a U.S. citizen, intends to marry the respondent, and an I-130 petition may be filed on his behalf so that he can later pursue consular processing to obtain lawful permanent resident status.
4. The respondent has a fixed U.S. address.
5. The respondent has strong ties to the United States, including his fiancée, who is approximately five months pregnant with their first child.
6. The respondent has committed no immoral acts, nor has been convicted of any dangerous or violent offenses.

7. The respondent has a well-qualified sponsor who possesses the financial ability to post a bond. See Matter of Patel, 15 I&N Dec. 666 (BIA 1976); see also 8 C.F.R. §§ 236(c), 1236.1 (c)(8).

II. CONCLUSION

The respondent is not ineligible for bond under INA § 236(c). He is neither a flight risk nor a danger to the community. He has strong ties to the United States, including his U.S. citizen fiancée, who intends to marry him upon his release from custody and is approximately five months pregnant with their first child, a potential pathway to lawful permanent resident status through an I-130 petition, and a fixed U.S. residence. Accordingly, he requests a bond in an amount to be determined by the Court.

Subject: Letter of sponsorship for Luis Portillo

To whom it may concern:

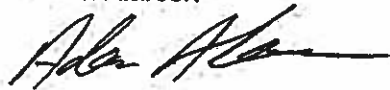

I am writing this letter to provide support for Luis Portillo in support of their application to immigration to the United States. I have had the pleasure of knowing Luis Portillo for 5+ years. He is a great friend to the family. Luis is a great person, he's always helpful to the people around him and a Very hardworking man and also takes care of his family before himself. He has come into my life and made me a better person and father by the words of advice he has given me. He is wise beyond his age. He carries himself very well. He is my son in law and if you know from a dads point of view it is a big deal to accept a man to take your daughter's hand in marriage and give her away. With Luis the decision was easy, he is a hardworking, honest, reliable, selfless, loving, and most of all respectful person. So with that I hope you can help us reunite with him so he can be here for his baby. He and my daughter are 5 months pregnant. I firmly and whole heartedly believe that Luis will make a significant contribution to the United States if given the opportunity to reside here.

As his sponsor, I am willing to provide Luis Portillo with necessary financial and emotional support during the transition and settlement period in the United States. I have financial means and support their basic needs including food, housing, transportation, and essential expenses.

I am a small business owner. I run a trucking company and a body shop. I was born and raised in the United States. I am financially stable and capable of supporting Luis Portillo. I have attached the following financial documents to demonstrate my ability to support Luis Portillo. Please contact me for any information needed.

Sincerely,

Adam Alarcon

The Department of Homeland Security through U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) are authorized to collect the information requested on this form pursuant to Sections 103, 237, 239, 240, and 280 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended (8 U.S.C. 1103, 1229, 1229a, and 1380), and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

Purpose:

You are being asked to sign and date this Notice to Appear (NTA) as an acknowledgement of personal receipt of this notice. This notice, when filed with the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), initiates removal proceedings. The NTA contains information regarding the nature of the proceedings against you, the legal authority under which proceedings are conducted, the acts or conduct alleged against you to be in violation of law, the charges against you, and the statutory provisions alleged to have been violated. The NTA also includes information about the conduct of the removal hearing, your right to representation at no expense to the government, the requirement to inform EOIR of any change in address, the consequences for failing to appear, and that generally, if you wish to apply for asylum, you must do so within one year of your arrival in the United States. If you choose to sign and date the NTA, that information will be used to confirm that you received it, and for recordkeeping.

Routine Uses:

For United States Citizens, Lawful Permanent Residents, or individuals whose records are covered by the Judicial Redress Act of 2015 (5 U.S.C. § 552a note), your information may be disclosed in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b), including pursuant to the routine uses published in the following DHS systems of records notices (SORN): DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records, DHS/USCIS-007 Benefit Information System, DHS/ICE-011 Criminal Arrest Records and Immigration Enforcement Records (CARIER), and DHS/ICE-003 General Counsel Electronic Management System (GEMS), and DHS/CBP-023 Border Patrol Enforcement Records (BPER). These SORNs can be viewed at <https://www.dhs.gov/system-records-notices-sorn>. When disclosed to the DOJ's EOIR for immigration proceedings, this information that is maintained and used by DOJ is covered by the following DOJ SORN: EOIR-001, Records and Management Information System, or any updated or successor SORN, which can be viewed at <https://www.justice.gov/opcl/doj-systems-records>. Further, your information may be disclosed pursuant to routine uses described in the abovementioned DHS SORNs or DOJ EOIR SORN to federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement agencies for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

For all others, as appropriate under United States law and DHS policy, the information you provide may be shared internally within DHS, as well as with federal, state, local, tribal, territorial, and foreign law enforcement; other government agencies; and other parties for enforcement, investigatory, litigation, or other similar purposes.

Disclosure:

Providing your signature and the date of your signature is voluntary. There are no effects on you for not providing your signature and date; however, removal proceedings may continue notwithstanding the failure or refusal to provide this information.

Dear honorable judge,
Subject: letter of employment of immigration

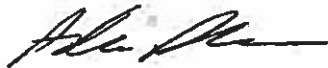

I am writing this letter to confirm the employment of Luis David Portillo Bejarano as the Lead body technician with vision body works since 2021.

Luis is a vital part of our team. He holds himself to a standard that in all my years of running businesses is extremely hard to find! Since he's come into the shop we have been able to grow to now have 7 full time employees and known as the go to in our town and surrounding areas for professional and quality repairs and he has a hand in all repairs. He's a very key part to the companies success. He goes above and beyond his duties that he is asked of at the shop and is always helping the other guys learn and grow in there knowledge and commitment to quality work.

In his role as lead body technician, Luis David Portillo Bejarano is responsible for complete repair of vehicle from start to finish to get ready for painter to paint. He tears down vehicle diagnoses problems makes a detailed list of parts and repairs needed for estimator to get it all into system. The things he does day in and day out is a reason our shop can handle the workload we can and achieve our monthly goals the dedication he puts into his job is commendable.

Luis David Portillo Bejarano is currently on as a full time employee. He is paid 20 an hour plus ot. We understand that Luis David Portillo Bejarano is in the process of immigration, and we are more than willing to provide and necessary support to aid in this process.

Affidavit

I Andrea Villarreal Alarcon, residing at [REDACTED], Seminole Texas 79360, I do hereby swear and affirm as follows:

I was born [REDACTED] in Seminole Texas. I am the Fiance of Luis David Portillo Bejarano.

I have known Luis Portillo for three years, we met through a mutual friend in 2023 and started officially dating March 3rd 2024. We had made plans to then get married in the upcoming year and on November 16, 2025 Luis and I found out we are expecting a baby due July 21st of 2026. Our life was planned out until Luis was detained Tuesday February 3rd and transferred to the processing center in El Paso, Texas on Friday February 6th. Since then Luis and I have been stressing on what will be next for me and our child and worried about how my pregnancy health will be affected and how I will provide for us without Luis. I work a part time job and do not make enough money to be financially stable as Luis is our main provider. Luis has been a great significant other in my life. He is a hard worker and has always been very grateful for the smallest things that life has brought to us. However, just thinking that our baby could be born without a father sends me into a lot of different emotions that surely are not good for my pregnancy at the moment. I have been to the doctor and was currently put on depression medication. Luis has been involved in my pregnancy since we discovered it back in November and these last few weeks have been the hardest without him. The phone and video calls have made it extremely hard for me and it is not the same as him being here and involved in our everyday life. Luis has been nothing but good to me he strives to be better everyday for the baby and I. Luis is beyond excited about becoming a father and gets very sad to think that our child will grow up without him present we have talked about the options about going back and forth to Mexico but I know it will do no good for the baby and I as I have never been and don't want to risk putting mine and our baby's life in danger with all the stories that we hear about Mexico not being a good place. Also when our baby is born I don't know how it will affect our child traveling back and forth. Please consider for Luis to stay and build our family in the U.S for a better living for us and a better future for our child.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Andrea Alarcon

Subject: Letter of sponsorship for Luis Portillo

To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter to provide support for Luis Portillo in support of their application to immigration to the United States. I have had the pleasure of knowing Luis Portillo for 5+ years. He is a great friend to the family. Luis is a great person, he's always helpful to the people around him and a Very hardworking man and also takes care of his family before himself. He has come into my life and made me a better person and father by the words of advice he has given me. He is wise beyond his age. He carries himself very well. He is my son in law and if you know from a dads point of view it is a big deal to accept a man to take your daughter's hand in marriage and give her away. With Luis the decision was easy, he is a hardworking, honest, reliable, selfless, loving, and most of all respectful person. So with that I hope you can help us reunite with him so he can be here for his baby. He and my daughter are 5 months pregnant. I firmly and whole heartedly believe that Luis will make a significant contribution to the United States if given the opportunity to reside here.

As his sponsor, I am willing to provide Luis Portillo with necessary financial and emotional support during the transition and settlement period in the United States. I have financial means and support their basic needs including food, housing, transportation, and essential expenses.

I am a small business owner. I run a trucking company and a body shop. I was born and raised in the United States. I am financially stable and capable of supporting Luis Portillo. I have attached the following financial documents to demonstrate my ability to support Luis Portillo. Please contact me for any information needed.

Sincerely,

Adam Alarcon

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Margarita Villarreal, and my husband Manuel Villarreal are writing this letter in support of Luis Portillo, the boyfriend of our niece, as they are currently expecting their first child together. We respectfully submit this letter to share our personal knowledge of Luis's character, values, and the important role he plays in our family.

We have known Luis for a significant amount of time and have had the opportunity to observe his character and the way he carries himself. Luis is a respectful, hardworking, and responsible young man who takes his obligations seriously. He consistently shows kindness, maturity, and a strong sense of responsibility toward my niece and their growing family.

As an expectant father, Luis has shown commitment, emotional support, and genuine care for my niece during her pregnancy. He is involved, attentive, and focused on preparing for the arrival of their child. He understands the importance of providing stability, love, and guidance, and he has demonstrated that he is willing to work hard to be present and supportive as a partner and father.

Luis is family-oriented and has earned the trust and respect of those around him. He is dependable and willing to help whenever needed. His presence provides emotional and practical support not only to my niece but also to our extended family. His absence would cause significant emotional and financial hardship, especially during such a critical time as the birth of their first child.

Based on our personal experiences with Luis, we can confidently say that he is a person of good moral character who strives to do the right thing and contribute positively to those around him. I respectfully ask that you consider his strong family ties, his commitment as an expectant father, and his positive character when reviewing his immigration matter.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

To whom it may concern:

Today I find myself writing this letter to serve as a character witness letter for Luis Portillo who I have personally known for the past 3 years. During this time I have had the pleasure of getting to know Luis on a personal level which has led me to understand Luis's moral character and also his integrity and I am more than happy to share these observations.

Luis has not only been a close friend but has also become a close and strong family friend for myself as well as many others. During the time I have known Luis I have come to realize he is nothing else but one of us and what I mean by that is Luis is just like myself writing this letter as he is to anyone else in this world and no matter how others portray him he will not stop being human. One of his favorite things to do was make others laugh (which he did very well) and not to mention the enormous love for his career that he is very passionate about and does better than anyone i know. Given the circumstances I write this letter I acknowledge the mistakes Luis has made has led to this but I cannot help and think about all the good he has done and will continue to do given he is granted a second chance to remain in the USA and get to experience the "American Dream" such as many others and himself have and are chasing for so long.

Luis's absence has been felt greatly by people who rely on him socially , financially and most importantly emotionally. Luis has strong family ties here therefore I find myself genuinely concerned for Luis and his future which is why I am hoping this letter finds whoever it may be making the final decision in the most respectful and kind manner. I am here to support Luis and I stand behind every single word I have said about him.

Sincerely,
Dagoberto Esquivel.

The Honorable Judge

Dear Honorable Judge

I am writing this letter to provide a character reference for Luis Portillo. My name is Jace Hall, and I have known Luis for about a year now as his friend. During the time I have known him, Luis has proven himself to be a respectful, responsible, and genuinely good young man.

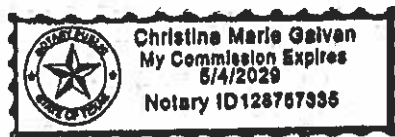

Luis has always shown a strong interest in cars and enjoys learning how they work. His passion for automobiles keeps him focused on positive interests and goals, and he often spends his time learning, talking about, or working around vehicles rather than getting involved in negative activities. This interest reflects his curiosity, motivation, and desire to build skills for his future.

In my personal experience with Luis, he has never caused problems or shown disrespect toward me or others. He has always been polite, dependable, and willing to help when asked. He treats people with kindness and demonstrates good character in the way he carries himself and interacts with those around him.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Jace Hall.

The Honorable Judge

Dear Honorable Judge

I am writing this letter to provide a character reference for Mr. Luis Portillo who is scheduled to appear before your court May 5, 2026. My name is Josue Portillo and I have known Luis Portillo ever since I can remember. Luis and I have been really close cousins from childhood and have impacted my life in many positive ways. He has taught me everything I know about cars and created my now favorite hobby. Luis has taught me responsibility and accountability in every situation life puts me in. Luis as a human being has created many mistakes as we all do, however learns from them, not only that but helps people in similar situations and not make the same mistakes. Luis also likes to help out those in need, one funny occasion. Luis and I made our way to Lubbock Tx to go out to eat on a weekend not too long ago and heading back we stopped at a gas station, as I was filling up my car he stepped inside to grab a snack, leaving us to spot two homeless with dogs. Luis made me stop and pulled out five dollars and I pulled out twenty to give to them, then he told me "The good thing about helping others is that God sees everything and rewards the good" and he proceeded to pull out my favorite road snack from the bag and said "Like this" as we proceeded to have a laugh. Dear Honor Luis has not only impacted my life but everyone who has had an encounter with him. Everywhere Luis goes he tries to make a positive impact even if it's as simple as five dollars.

This concludes my relationship and encounter with Mr Portillo, Thank you Your Honor.

To whom it may concern, I am writing this Good Moral Character Letter in support of an applicant who is of the highest ethical standards. Over the past 4 years, I have known the applicant to be an honest, responsible, and very respectful person. He has shown everyone he's around the utmost respect and help in any way he can. There have been numerous times I've asked for help on projects of my own, and without hesitation he's dropped everything he's doing to help me. Without a doubt he is a big hearted person and does his very best for himself and everyone around him. He has shown great commitment and is very passionate about his job displaying his hard work and great work ethic. He always strives to help all his co-workers complete certain tasks that they are uncertain of.

In conclusion, I firmly believe the applicant will be a good candidate for immigration. His good moral character will positively benefit society and honor obligations set by the government.

Thank you very much for considering my GMI letter. If you have any other questions or information needed by me, please do not hesitate to contact me.

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this Good Character Immigration Letter in support of an applicant who I have known for the past few years and have learned that he is an individual of respect, responsible, very compassionate and kind to others.

Luis has shown to be very hard working and of good moral character. His admirable traits have shown through how serious he takes his adulthood and now moving into fatherhood.

In conclusion, I strongly believe that the Luis will be a good candidate for immigration bond. He will respect the law, fulfill commitments, meet responsibilities, and contribute positively to ensure that the opportunity given to him is greatly appreciated and positively life altering.

Thank you for considering my letter. If further information is needed, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Dear Sir or Madam,

My name is Sahra Camila Corte. I am a United States citizen, born on [REDACTED], and currently residing at [REDACTED]. I am writing this letter in support of Luis David Portillo Bejarano.

I have known Luis David for a long time, and throughout the years he has proven to be a genuinely good and noble person. He is respectful, responsible, and always willing to help those around him. He carries himself with strong values and a sincere sense of integrity.

Luis David is about to become a father, and this moment in his life is extremely important. A newborn child needs the presence, care, and love of their father, especially during the earliest stages of life. His role is essential not only for emotional bonding, but also for providing stability, support, and protection for his family.

He has consistently shown dedication to his family and a strong commitment to stepping into his responsibilities. Luis David understands the importance of being present, supportive, and emotionally available as a father and partner. He is someone who truly prioritizes his family's well-being.

If his case were to be denied, the consequences would extend beyond him and deeply affect his newborn child and family. Separation would cause emotional hardship and could negatively impact the healthy development of his child, who needs his father close during this critical time.

I respectfully ask that you consider the positive character and human value that Luis David Portillo Bejarano represents. Allowing him to remain with his family would help preserve a united home and ensure that his child grows up with the love and guidance of both parents.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

I am the sister in law of Luis Portillo. I have known Luis for three years and throughout the time he has lived with my family and I, I can confidently say that he has strived to do great things in the time he has been here. Luis is compassionate towards others and expects nothing in return, he is full of love and never hesitates to show the love he has for others especially my sister Andrea and their baby on the way, he is involved and provides stability in every way he possibly can. Luis shows appreciation for everything his hard work has given him in return and what he receives from others without asking. In my nineteen years of life on this earth I have never met a man as hard working as Luis, he has never given up to be the man he yearns to be. In difficult times rather than giving up he tries again and again until he makes it happen. He has never asked anyone for anything, not help, money or support even if he is afraid or has doubt he makes it happen for himself. When anyone in our family has needed something, Luis never hesitates to offer his helping hand to help figure out the best solution to the problem that will best benefit everyone. Luis may have only entered our lives a few years ago but he has been the most positive impact my family and I never knew we needed. Luis Portillo positively changed all of our lives and in this time we respectfully ask that you take his character into consideration and let him come home, where he belongs.

Thank you, Sincerely

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Alfredo Portillo Fierro, a resident of the United States. I was born on [REDACTED], and I currently live at [REDACTED] Seminole, TX 79360.

I am writing to express my support for my grandson, Luis David Portillo Bejarano, whom I have known his entire life. I have had the opportunity to witness his growth and personal development, and I would also like to emphasize that Luis has never had any problems either within or outside the United States.

He is an exceptional person with unique qualities and abilities. He is always willing to help others without hesitation. He is a good grandson, a good friend, and above all, a good son.

I would also like to highlight that I have personally witnessed his dedication and commitment as a husband. He is loving and has a big heart. His passion for life and for his family is admirable. He is an example to everyone around him. In his personal life, Luis is a man of integrity and strong principles. His sense of humor brings joy to those around him and always manages to make us smile.

In a few months, my grandson Luis will become a father for the first time. I cannot express the happiness and pride I feel for him. I know he will be an excellent father. Nothing would make me happier than seeing my great-grandchild grow up with both of his parents together.

I believe it is very important for Luis to remain close to his family, especially for the upbringing of his child.

It is my sincere hope that Luis will be able to stay here with his family. I hope you will take my words into consideration.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Magdalena S. Portillo. I am a resident of the United States, born on [REDACTED] and I currently reside at [REDACTED], TX 79360.

I am writing this letter to express my sincere support for my grandson, Luis David Portillo Bejarano, and to share my perspective about the kind of person he is.

Throughout his life, I have had the privilege of watching Luis grow up in a family environment filled with love, respect, and strong values. Because of this, I know the kind of man he has become. Luis has always been a caring, respectful, and responsible person who deeply values his family and the people around him.

One of the qualities that stands out the most about my grandson is his gratitude and dedication to his family. Over the years, he has made great efforts to support his parents and remain close to his loved ones. He has always been a loving, hardworking, and honest person who truly cares about the well-being of his family.

Luis is about to become a father, and this is one of the most important moments in a person's life. His presence during this time is very important for both his partner and their child. As a woman and as a mother, I understand how important it is for a father to be present during pregnancy and the early stages of a child's life. A child deserves the love, protection, and guidance of both parents from the very beginning.

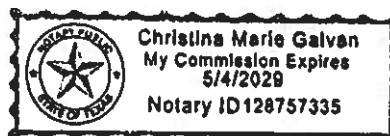

Luis has always shown a strong desire to build a loving and stable family. I truly believe he will be a wonderful father and a supportive partner. His presence in his child's life will provide emotional support, stability, and love that every child deserves.

For these reasons, I respectfully ask that you take my words into consideration when reviewing the case of my grandson, Luis David Portillo Bejarano. I sincerely hope that he will be given the opportunity to remain with his family and be present in the life of his child.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Bianca Portillo, and I am writing this letter to express my support for my cousin, Luis David Portillo Bejarano. I have known Luis David my entire life, and as his cousin I have been able to see the kind of person he truly is.

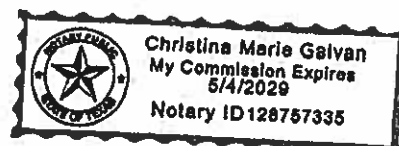

Luis David has always been someone who cares deeply about his family. Growing up, he has always been there for us as the older cousin, looking out for us, protecting us, and making sure we were okay. He has always taken that role seriously, and it shows the kind of caring and responsible person he is. He has always treated everyone around him with respect and kindness, and he is someone our family truly values and depends on.

Right now, Luis David is preparing to be a father, which is a very important moment in his life. I know he wants to be present for his child and provide the love, support, and guidance that every child deserves. Knowing the way he has always cared for our family, I truly believe he will be a loving and dedicated father.

Luis David works hard and wants to build a stable future for his family. He is someone who puts the people he loves first and always tries to do the right thing. He is very important to our family, and we truly need him in our lives. If he were separated from us, it would have a very deep emotional impact on all of us, especially on his child who deserves to grow up with their father present.

For all these reasons, I respectfully ask that you consider Luis David character and his dedication to his family. Allowing him to remain with his loved ones would give him the opportunity to continue supporting his family and being present for his child.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to share my thoughts on David Luis, a person I have had the privilege of knowing for some time. David is one of the hardest working individuals I know. His dedication evident in everything he does. Whether it's at work or in his personal life, David consistently goes above and beyond. His commitment, reliability, and strong work ethic make him someone you can always count on. He takes pride in giving his best, and it's this same determination that he will undoubtedly bring into his role as a father. In addition to his work ethic, David is also an incredibly kind and thoughtful person. He approaches life with a sense of integrity and compassion, always seeking to help others and make a positive impact. His generosity and willingness to support his family and friends are qualities that set him apart. It's clear to anyone who knows him that David is someone who values relationships and takes responsibility seriously. These traits will serve him well as he embarks on the journey of fatherhood.

As David prepares for the arrival of his baby, it is essential for him to be present in the life of his child. The love, guidance, and support that he has to offer will play a vital role in shaping his baby's future. His strong character and determination will undoubtedly make him a great father, and it is important that he continues to prioritize being an active, loving presence in his child's life. I have no doubt that David will embrace this new chapter with the same dedication and care that he brings to everything he does.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Dear Sir or Madam.

My name is Magdalena Portillo, and I am a close cousin of Luis Portillo. I am a United State: citizen born on [REDACTED] in Phoenix Arizona. I am currently living at [REDACTED] Texas Tech University where I study. I am writing this letter in support of my cousin, Luis David Portillo Bejarano.

I have known Luis all my life, and he is truly one of hardest working people I know. Over the past four years that he has lived in the United States, he has consistently worked hard for a better future. For most of that time, he worked at Vision Body Works in Seminole Texas, where he dedicated himself to his job and took pride in the work he did. Luis has always believed in earning things through honest effort.

Throughout the years, I have come to know him as a kind, genuine and noble person. His efforts are always demonstrated through his actions. His character is not only reflected in his words but also in his actions. Luis is the kind of person who always tries to make others feel welcomed and included. He has a natural charisma to make people laugh and bring positivity to those around him.

Luis has always been deeply committed to his family, even the ones he hasn't seen in years. He cares strongly about the people in his life and consistently shows that through his dedication and support. He is someone who takes responsibility seriously and strives to do the right thing.

Luis is about to become a first-time father to a baby he has not had the chance to meet yet but already loves dearly. He understands the importance of having a present father in the life of a child, especially in the early stages of development. Separating him from his child and wife would mean separating a family before it has even had the opportunity to grow and flourish together.

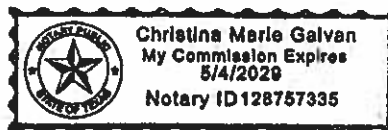

I sincerely hope that you will take into consideration Luis's character, his commitment to his family, and the positive role he plays in the lives of those around him. He deserves the opportunity to continue supporting and building a future with his family.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter and consider my perspective.

Sincerely,

Magdalena Portillo

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Luis Portillo. I have had the opportunity to know him for the past five years, and during that time I have come to greatly respect his character and integrity.

Luis consistently demonstrates honesty, responsibility, and respect toward others. He approaches tasks with dedication and takes pride in doing things the right way. Whether working independently or with others, Luis shows reliability and a strong sense of accountability.

One of Luis's most admirable qualities is his genuine care for others. He treats people with kindness and fairness and is someone others naturally trust and feel comfortable around. These qualities make Luis not only dependable but also a positive influence in any environment.

Based on my experience with Luis, I can confidently recommend him as a person of excellent character. I believe he will continue to be a responsible and positive member of the community as he pursues citizenship in the United States.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Jacob Santellana

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Jesús Domínguez Miranda, a United States citizen. I was born on [REDACTED], and I currently live at [REDACTED] Seminole, TX 79360.

The purpose of this letter is to express my support and appreciation for my great friend Luis David Portillo Bejarano.

I have known Luis for quite some time, and during these years I can confidently say that he is one of the few people I consider a truly loyal friend. He has always been there for me whenever I needed him. He is very intelligent and always shares his knowledge with his friends. Whenever I need help, he is always willing to lend a hand without expecting anything in return.

He is also a very good advisor. His advice is always based on encouraging others to become better people. During gatherings with friends, he always has something funny to say that lifts everyone's spirits.

In a few months, my friend will become a father for the first time in his life. This is one of the most important moments in a family's life. He should be present for his wife during the pregnancy and on the day their child is born. A baby needs the presence and guidance of his father from the very beginning of life through his first steps, his first words, and from the very moment he enters the world.

I strongly believe that Luis's presence will be very important for the emotional and healthy development of his child. If he were separated from his family, it could negatively affect his child emotionally. Raising a child is a partnership between both parents, and that is how a child grows up in a loving home.

Over the years, Luis has only shown how dedicated he is to becoming a better person and how deeply he loves his family. He has always shown kindness and earned the respect and affection of everyone around him. Honestly, I am certain that he will be an excellent and admirable father.

For this reason, I sincerely hope he is allowed to be present in his child's life from the very beginning. Through my words, I hope you can see a small part of the incredible person my friend truly is someone I consider like a brother.

With all respect, I kindly ask that you take my words into consideration regarding Luis David Portillo Bejarano.

Sincerely,

Jesús DM

Dear Sir or Madam,

My name is Tranquilino Gonzalez Lopez. I'm a resident of the United States, born on [REDACTED] and I live at [REDACTED]. I'm writing because I want to share my strong support for Luis David Portillo Bejarano and to talk about who he is as a person.

I've known Luis David for quite a few years, and along the way, he's become a really good friend to me. I've seen firsthand the kind of person he is he's always respectful, responsible, and he goes out of his way to help others. He lives by strong values, and he genuinely cares about the people in his life.

Right now, Luis David is about to become a father, and this is a huge moment for him. I know how important a father's presence is, especially in the early years. He will offer so much emotional support, stability, and guidance things that every child needs to thrive.

From what I've seen, Luis David takes his role in his family seriously. He really values them and I know he will be a devoted father, always working hard to protect and care for his child. His dedication to his loved ones really says a lot about him.

If he were taken away from his family, it would be devastating for both him and his child. Kids do best when both parents are present, and his steady, loving presence is exactly what his child needs.

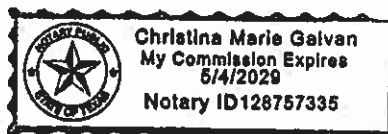

For all these reasons, I truly hope you will take Luis David Portillo Bejarano's character into account and let him stay with his family. I'm certain he will continue to be a responsible, positive force in his home and in his community.

Thank you so much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Tranquilino Gonzalez Lopez

Dear Sir or Madam,

My name is Eneftali Portillo, a citizen of the United States. I was born on [REDACTED] and I currently reside at [REDACTED] Seminole, TX 79360.

I am writing this letter to share my support and appreciation for my cousin Luis David Portillo Bejarano.

I have known Luis since we were children. We grew up together, and it brings me great joy and gratitude to have shared so many stages of my life with him. Luis has always been an excellent person with a kind heart and strong values.

From a young age, Luis showed many talents. One thing that always stood out about him is his ability to fix things that others believed had no solution. He always finds a way to repair what seems broken. In many ways, Luis is the type of person who sees light where others see darkness. He is truly intelligent, and he has always shared that knowledge with the people around him.

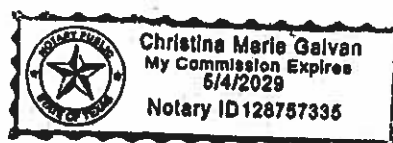

I work as a truck driver, and my truck often needs mechanical work. Luis has always been there to help me maintain and repair it. Many times he would choose not to rest until he was completely sure that my truck was safe and ready for me to use the next day. What makes this even more meaningful is that he never expected any payment in return. He simply helped because he cares about the safety and well-being of his family.

Another important thing I want to share is that Luis has never done anything against the laws of the United States or Mexico.

Luis has also been an excellent son and brother. Even though he is the middle child, he has always taken care of his three sisters as if he were the oldest. He is loving, respectful, and protective toward them. With his parents, he is always grateful for the life and opportunities they worked so hard to provide for him and his sisters.

Luis David Portillo Bejarano is a very responsible man. Everything he does comes from love for his family. He always puts the safety and well being of his family before his own, and that is something I deeply admire about him.

I would also like to share that Luis will soon become a father. In a few months he will welcome a beautiful baby into the world. Being present in his child's life is something very important. As a father myself, I know that the moment you learn you will become a parent changes the way you see the world. I saw that same feeling in Luis when he found out he was going to be a father. He is truly grateful and excited about the blessing of having a child, and I know he will love and protect his baby with all his heart.

Christina Marie Galvan

For this reason, I respectfully ask you to consider my words. I hope this letter helps you understand a small part of the kind of man my cousin Luis David Portillo Bejarano truly is.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Eneftali Portillo
