Petitioners,

v.

JULIO HERNANDEZ, et al.,

Respondents.

Case No. 2:26-cv-00761-TMC

FEDERAL RESPONDENTS'
RESPONSE TO PETITIONERS' EMERGENCY MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

In response to Petitioners' motion for a temporary restraining order, Respondents state as follows:

Respondents have no intention of removing, transferring or detaining, Petitioners Nora Mendoza Aguilar or her minor children, E.B.M. and M.B.M, before a decision is entered by the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) on their pending appeal. Declaration of Williams, ¶ 5. Accordingly, Respondents do not oppose the Petitioners' motion for a temporary restraining order insofar as its requests this relief, although they believe it is unnecessary.

Additionally, Petitioners' reporting requirements have been changed back to mirror the requirements in place prior to February 27, 2026. Id. at ¶ 6. Respondents do not intend to impose any new or different reporting requirements on the Petitioners pending their present appeal, absent ~~changed circumstances that necessitate an alteration in their reporting requirements. This again~~
