MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
FORT MYERS DIVISION

Jorge Diaz Escandon,
Petitioner,

v. Case No. 2:26-cv-646-KCD-NPM

U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, et al.,
Respondents.

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE REGARDING LENGTH OF DETENTION

Petitioner, Jorge Diaz Escandon, respectfully submits this Supplemental Notice regarding the length of his continued immigration detention.

In Respondents' prior response, Respondents acknowledged that Petitioner was taken into ICE custody on November 12, 2025. Respondents further argued that Petitioner's detention remained "presumptively reasonable" under Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678 (2001), because Petitioner had then been detained for "just shy of five months."

Petitioners have now exceeded six months in ICE custody. Under Zadvydas, detention beyond the six-month presumptively reasonable period requires sufficient evidence that removal is significantly likely in the reasonably foreseeable future. See Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678, 701 (2001); Akinwale v. Ashcroft, 287 F.3d 1050, 1052 (11th Cir. 2002).

Despite the passage of time, Petitioner remains detained. Petitioners respectfully submit that continued detention without a demonstrated significant likelihood of removal in the reasonably foreseeable future raises serious constitutional concerns under the Fifth Amendment and the standards established in Zadvydas.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Honorable Court consider the expiration of the six-month presumptively reasonable detention period and grant such relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Jorge Diaz Escandon
Petitioner, Pro Se
