14. _____

15. To date, however, ICE has been unable to remove Petitioner to Yemen or any other country. I was not offered to remove to other country and I have been in detention ever since, and no one has come to speak to me about my deportation. I'm still waiting. Six months after my deportation order, I applied for temporary protection (TPS) on 01/27/2025, since then I have been waiting for a decision or response from USCIS (TPS) and it has now been about a year and a month, and no one is helping me or following up on my case, and I am tired of being detained here. LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR RELIEF SOUGHT

19. In Zadvydas v. Davis, 533 U.S. 678 (2001), the Supreme Court held that six months is the presumptively reasonable period during which ICE may detain aliens in order to effectuate their removal. Id. at 702. In Clark v. Martinez, 543 U.S. 371 (2005), the Supreme Court held that its ruling in Zadvydas applies equally to inadmissible aliens. Department of Homeland Security Administrative regulations also recognize that the HQPDU has a six month period for determining whether there is a significant likelihood of an alien's removal in the reasonably foreseeable future. 8 U.F.R. Section 241.13(b)(ii).

20. Petitioner was ordered removal on 07/25/2024, and the removal order became final on 07/25/2024. Therefore, the six-month presumptively reasonable removal period for Petitioner ended on 01/25/2025.

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF
COUNT ONE
STATUTORY VIOLATION

21. Petitioner's re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 20 above.

22. Petitioner's continued detention by Respondents is unlawful and contravenes 8 U.S.C. Section 1231(a)(6) as interpreted by the Supreme Court in Zadvydas. The six-month presumptively reasonable period for removal efforts has expired. Petitioner still has not been removed, and Petitioner continues to languish in detention. Petitioner's removal to Yemen or any other country is not significant likely to occur in the reasonably foreseeable future. The Supreme Court held in Zadvydas and Martinez that ICE's continued detention of someone like Petitioner under such circumstances is unlawful.

COUNT TWO SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS VIOLATION

23. Petitioner re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 22 above.

24. Petitioner's continued detention violates Petitioner's right to substantive due process through a deprivation of the core liberty interest in freedom from bodily restraint.

25. The Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment requires that the deprivation of Petitioner's liberty be narrowly tailored to serve a compelling government interest. While Respondents would have an interest in detaining Petitioner in order to effectuate removal, that interest does not justify the indefinite detention of Petitioner, who is not significantly likely to be removed in the reasonably foreseeable future. Zadvydas recognized that ICE may continue to detain aliens only for a period reasonably necessary to secure the alien's removal. The presumptively reasonable period during which ICE may detain an alien is only six months. Petitioner has already been detained in excess of six months and Petitioner's removal is not significant likely to occur in the reasonably foreseeable future.

COUNT THREE
PROCEDURAL DUE PROCESS VIOLATION

26. Petitioner re-alleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 25 above.

27. Under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment, an alien is entitled to a timely and meaningful opportunity to demonstrate that he should not be detained. Petitioner in this case had been denied that opportunity. ICE does not make decisions concerning aliens' custody status in a neutral and impartial manner. The failure of Respondents to provide a neutral decision-maker to review the continued custody of Petitioner violates Petitioner's right to procedural due process. _____

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that this Court grant the following relief:

- 1) Assume jurisdiction over this matter;
- 2) Grant Petitioner a Writ of Habeas Corpus directing the Respondents to immediately release Petitioner from custody;
- 3) Enter preliminary in permanent injunctive relief enjoining Respondents from further unlawful detention of Petitioner;

- 4) Award Petitioner Attorney's fees and cost under the Equal Access to Justice Act ("EAJA"), as amended, 5 U.S.C. Section 504 and 28 U.S.C. Section 2412, and on any other basis justified under law; and
- 5) Grant any other and further relief that this Court deems just and proper.

I affirm, under penalty of perjury, that foregoing is true and correct.
