UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
EXECUTIVE OFFICE FOR IMMIGRATION REVIEW
IMPERIAL IMMIGRATION COURT

Respondent Name:

KOUR, YASSINE

To:

LOPEZ, ELIZABETH ANN
2534 State St. Suite 208
SAN DIEGO, CA 92101

A-Number:

Riders:

In Custody Redetermination Proceedings

Date:

05/01/2026

ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

The respondent requested a custody redetermination pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 1236. After full consideration of the evidence presented, the respondent's request for a change in custody status is hereby ordered:

☐ Denied, because

☒ Granted. It is ordered that Respondent be:

☐ released from custody on his own recognizance.

☒ released from custody under bond of $ 3,000.00

☒ other:

Failure to Appear Warning: You must appear at all immigration court hearings in your case. If you fail to appear at any of your immigration court hearings, an immigration judge may issue a removal order against you in your absence. That removal order will result in you being sent back to your home country.

To find out information about your case, visit this website:

<https://acis.eoir.justice.gov/en/> or call 1-800-898-7180.

Requirement to Notify Immigration Court of Address/Telephone Number Change: During your immigration proceedings if you change your address or telephone number, you must notify the immigration court within 5 days of such change using the blue change of address forms [Form EOIR-33/IC]. Changing your address with DHS or ICE does not change your address with the Immigration Court. If you do not change your address with the Immigration Court, you will not get notices of future court dates. If you don't get notices of court dates, you might fail to appear in court. If you fail to appear in court, you may get a removal order sending you back to your home country. Again, it is your personal responsibility to ensure your address is changed with the immigration court.

If you are released from detention, do not assume your case will automatically be transferred to a different immigration court. YOUR CASE WILL NOT AUTOMATICALLY BE TRANSFERRED TO A DIFFERENT IMMIGRATION COURT. Assume your case stays with the Imperial Immigration Court for all future hearings in your case. You may file a request with this court to transfer your case to a different court. Your case stays with this court until an immigration judge approves your request in writing to transfer your case to a different court. YOU MUST CONTINUE TO COME BACK TO THE IMPERIAL IMMIGRATION COURT FOR ALL FUTURE HEARINGS UNLESS AN IMMIGRATION JUDGE HAS APPROVED YOUR WRITTEN REQUEST TO TRANSFER YOUR CASE TO A DIFFERENT IMMIGRATION COURT.

Alternatives to Detention (ATD) at DHS discretion are authorized.

Respondent must surrender his passport to DHS prior to release from detention. If DHS already has his passport in their possession, Respondent agrees that DHS may keep his passport until his immigration removal proceedings have been completed. Even if DHS does not currently have Respondent's passport, Respondent agrees that DHS may keep his passport until removal proceedings have been completed once he surrenders his passport to DHS.

Respondent must live with his sponsor [REDACTED] at the following address: [REDACTED]

Respondent may not move away from that address without FIRST receiving WRITTEN PERMISSION from DHS.

☐ Other:

Immigration Judge: Munoz, Jeffrey V. 05/01/2026

Appeal: Department of Homeland Security: ☐ waived ☒ reserved
Respondent: ☒ waived ☐ reserved
