PETITIONER'S APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Pursuant to Rule 65(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Petitioner hereby moves the Court for emergency relief in the form of a temporary restraining order directing Respondents not to transfer the Petitioner outside the jurisdiction of the Northern District of Georgia pending final resolution of this case. Petitioner is currently detained at 180 Ted Turner Drive, SW Atlanta, GA

Petitioner resides in the Northern District of Georgia. Respondents Markwayne Mullin, Todd Lyons, Ladeon Francis, and Todd Blanche have the ability to transfer her to any detention center in ICE's vast network, removing her from her husband, four US citizen children, 1 of which is still a minor, and her counsel. She asks that she remain here in her community, where she has resided since her arrival in the United States more than 27 years ago pending the adjudication of her writ of habeas corpus.

Petitioner further moves that the order direct Respondents to release Petitioner from their custody with no conditions of release, such as GPS monitoring, that would constitute de facto custody, or to provide Petitioner with an individualized bond hearing before an immigration judge pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a) with the burden of proof on the Government to prove by clear and convincing evidence that she is a flight risk or danger to the community.

Petitioner further moves for the issuance of an order to show cause as to why a preliminary injunction should not issue.

This application is supported by the writ of habeas and attached exhibits that may be considered by the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

This 8th Day of May, 2026.
