CASE NO.: 3:26-cv-02918-RSH-SBC

NOTICE TO THE COURT
MOTION TO ENFORCE

I would like to respectfully motion the court to enforce on the previous ruling in the matter of my Writ of Habeas Corpus Petition regarding me challenging the legality of my detention (case no.: 3:26-cv-02918-RSH-SBC.) I do have actual and current legal status in the United States and have given The Department of Homeland Security no reason to hold me in detention. The District Court ordered The Immigration court to set a custody determination (bond) hearing for my detention, placing the burden of proof on the government to prove with clear and convincing evidence that I am a danger to the community and a flight risk. The Department of Homeland Security utilized charges against me that were never convictions and were dropped. The charges mentioned by the department were given full weight and credit by the IJ which is a violation of discretion and constitutional laws/ rights. The IJ also abused his discretion by not fact checking the charges lodged against me and holding the government to the burden of proof as he stated in his decision when denying me a bond and or considering an alternative to detention. Attached are court documents stating that the accusations against me resulted in being dismissed due to failure to prosecute.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration.
