Your honner

I was forced to leave my wife and daughter because of fear of prison and torture. just when my daughter was 5 months old and needed her father the most. She is now 22 months old and doesn't recognize me any more. Imagine how painful this is for a father.

Over the course of 2 months, I passed through 8 dangerous countries to reach America, because it was the only country I trusted and could imagine a safe future for myself and my family.

But from the day I arrived in America, i was in humiliated, imprisoned, and tortured. Exactly the reasons i fled Iran.

I have been under severe psychological pressure during these 15 months, because from day one, I was threatened with deportation to Iran.

I was transported from an arizona prison to california many times, shackled hands and feet, for hours on buses with iron seats in extremely cold weather.

Along the way, they wouldn't even give us water so we wouldn't have to ask to use bathroom. They would tightly shackle my hands and feet and silence me with their looks if I protested.

During this time, I became strangely broken. My hair has turned white and I have lost more than 20 kilograms.

I have nightmares every night and life has become hell for me, because my wife and daughter are in Iran and in very difficult conditions and there is no one to support them and I am very worried about them.

They are now living in secret because of my case, and are deprived of medical services. My wife is severely anemic and my daughter has severe digestive problems. Now a lump has been found in my wife throat and I know the reason is fear, stress, and worry.

I am the cause of all of them. I wish I hade never opposed the Islamic Republic so that these things would not have happend.

The only reason my asylum application was denied was because I crossed the border, as I tried to enter twice through the port of entry before crossing the border, but was stopped by US agents, and I couldn't prove this in court. How could I?

Now my immigration lawyer has filed a motion for reconsideration, stating that crossing the border can no longer be an obstacle to my asylum, and I hope my asylum application will be approved soon.

Your honner, I do not know the provisions of the law, but I believe that my circumstances have changed now compared to before.

Considering that I send the first Petition when I was in detention for 11 months and the last one when I was in detention for 15 months that is over 1-year mark. (26-cv-03105-BAS-BJW)

The second reason is that my Merit was not heard at that time, but now it has been heard, my background check has been completed and the judge believed me and Judge granted me Withholding of Removal under CAT.

The third reason is that the appeal was from the government attorney, not me, and this will cause me to remain in detention for more than a year, and it can put my health in greater and more serious danger that it will be impossible to compensate for.

Your honner, considering all these reasons, I humbly request you for the sake of God and humanity and in the name of the law, to order a bond hearing for me so that my health is not further endangered and i can help my family.

Finally, I would like to mention people who have been granted bond hearing in similar cases.

26-cv-03105-BAS-BJW

26-v-0008-LL-DEB

2:26-cv-00550-MIS-LF

Thank you so much for your time and consideration.
