In Custody Redetermination Proceedings

Date:

07/13/2026

ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

The respondent requested a custody redetermination pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 1236. After full consideration of the evidence presented, the respondent's request for a change in custody status is hereby ordered:

☐ Denied, because

- ☒ Granted. It is ordered that Respondent be:
- ☐ released from custody on his own recognizance.
  - ☒ released from custody under bond of $ 2,000.00
  - ☐ other:

☒ Other:

The following are conditions for release from DHS custody:

1. Respondent must self-quarantine/isolate for the first fourteen (14) days following release from DHS custody and arrival at sponsor's residence;
2. Respondent shall not be released from DHS custody until cleared from medical hold;
3. Residence: Respondent must live with sponsor and obtain DHS approval prior to changing residence;

4. Respondent must not commit any violation of criminal or immigration law, including working without authorization;

5. Alternatives to Detention (ATD) such as electronic monitoring may be imposed at DHS discretion;

6. DHS may file a Motion to Stay, Reopen, Reconsider, or Revoke the Bond Order without opposition from Respondent based on new derogatory information or violation of the bond conditions of release;

7. Failure to Appear Warnings: If you fail to appear for any hearings and there are no exceptional circumstances which caused your absence, a hearing may be held in your absence, all relief applications submitted by you may be deemed abandoned, and an order of removal may be entered against you;

8. Change of Address Warnings: You must inform the Court of any changes to your address within five (5) working days of moving from your last address. You must do so on a blue Form EOIR-33. The responsibility is your's and your's alone to keep the Court updated with your current address. If you do not receive a notice of hearing because you did not inform the Court of your most recent change of address and you miss your hearing, then you may be ordered removed in your absence for failure to appear as stated above;

9. Application(s) for Relief:

A) In the event that Respondent is released from custody and the Court has set a deadline to file an application for relief in his/her removal proceeding, that deadline remains in effect. Failure to comply with the deadline to file the application for relief may result in the Court deeming the request for relief abandoned, in which case the Respondent will be ordered removed from the United States to the Respondent's country of origin;

B) In the event that Respondent is released from custody and the Court has not set a deadline to file an application for relief in his/her removal proceeding; and if a change of venue is sought from the Court (see #10, below), then Respondent shall include an application for relief along with Respondent's motion for change of venue; and

10. Change of Venue: If you move to a location within another Immigration Court's jurisdiction and you want your case moved to that jurisdiction, you must file a Motion to Change Venue within thirty (30) days of residency and include proof of compliance with #3, above. You must also comply with the application for relief requirements, above. Failure to comply with this change of venue provision may result in denial of such a motion at a later date on the basis of untimeliness and/or for violation of the conditions of release.
